About this compilation

This compilation

This is a compilation of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 that shows the text of the law as amended and in force on 1 July 2026 (the compilation date).

The notes at the end of this compilation (the endnotes) include information about amending laws and the amendment history of provisions of the compiled law.

Uncommenced amendments

The effect of uncommenced amendments is not shown in the text of the compiled law. The details of amendments made up to, but not commenced at, the compilation date are underlined in the endnotes. Any uncommenced amendments affecting the law are accessible on the Register (www.legislation.gov.au).

Application, saving and transitional provisions

If the operation of a provision or amendment of the compiled law is affected by an application, saving or transitional provision that is not included in this compilation, details are included in the endnotes.

Editorial changes

For more information about any editorial changes made in this compilation, see the endnotes.

Presentational changes

The Legislation Act 2003 provides for First Parliamentary Counsel to make presentational changes to a compilation. Presentational changes are applied to give a more consistent look and feel to legislation published on the Register, and enable the user to more easily navigate those documents.

Modifications

If the compiled law is modified by another law, the compiled law operates as modified but the modification does not amend the text of the law. Accordingly, this compilation does not show the text of the compiled law as modified. Any modifications affecting the law are accessible on the Register.

Self-repealing provisions

If a provision of the compiled law has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law, details are included in the endnotes.

An Act about income tax and related matters

Chapter 1—Introduction and core provisions

Part 1-1—Preliminary

Division 1—Preliminary

Table of sections

1-1	Short title
1-2	Commencement
1-3	Differences in style not to affect meaning
1-4	Application
1-7	Administration of this Act

1-1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997.

1-2 Commencement

This Act commences on 1 July 1997.

1-3 Differences in style not to affect meaning

- (1) This Act contains provisions of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 in a rewritten form.
- (2) If:
 - (a) that Act expressed an idea in a particular form of words; and
 - (b) this Act appears to have expressed the same idea in a different form of words in order to use a clearer or simpler style;the ideas are not to be taken to be different just because different forms of words were used.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Chapter 1 Introduction and core provisions

Part 1-1 Preliminary

Division 1 Preliminary

Section 1-4

Note: A public or private ruling about a provision of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 is taken also to be a ruling about the corresponding provision of this Act, so far as the 2 provisions express the same ideas: see section 357-85 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953.

1-4 Application

This Act extends to every external Territory referred to in the definition of Australia.

1-7 Administration of this Act

The Commissioner has the general administration of this Act.

Note: An effect of this provision is that people who acquire information under this Act are subject to the confidentiality obligations and exceptions in Division 355 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Part 1-2—A Guide to this Act

Division 2—How to use this Act

Table of Subdivisions

2-A	How to find your way around
2-B	How the Act is arranged
2-C	How to identify defined terms and find the definitions
2-D	The numbering system
2-E	Status of Guides and other non-operative material

Subdivision 2-A—How to find your way around

2-1 The design

This Act is designed to help you identify accurately and quickly the provisions that are relevant to your purpose in reading the income tax law.

The Act contains tables, diagrams and signposts to help you navigate your way.

You can start at Division 3 (What this Act is about) and follow the signposts as far into the Act as you need to go. You may also encounter signposts to several areas of the law that are relevant to you. Each one should be followed.

Sometimes they will lead down through several levels of detail. At each successive level, the rules are structured in a similar way. They will often be preceded by a Guide to the rules at that level. The rules themselves will usually deal first with the general or most common case and then with the more particular or special cases.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Subdivision 2-B—How the Act is arranged

2-5 The pyramid

This Act is arranged in a way that reflects the principle of moving from the general case to the particular.

In this respect, the conceptual structure of the Act is something like a pyramid. The pyramid shape illustrates the way the income tax law is organised, moving down from the central or core provisions at the top of the pyramid, to general rules of wide application and then to the more specialised topics.

Note: The Taxation Administration Act 1953 contains the provisions on collection and recovery of tax and provisions on administration.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Subdivision 2-C—How to identify defined terms and find the definitions

Table of sections

2-10	When defined terms are identified
2-15	When terms are not identified
2-20	Identifying the defined term in a definition

2-10 When defined terms are identified

- (1) Many of the terms used in the income tax law are defined.
- (2) Most defined terms in this Act are identified by an asterisk appearing at the start of the term: as in “*business”. The footnote that goes with the asterisk contains a signpost to the Dictionary definitions starting at section 995-1.

2-15 When terms are not identified

- (1) Once a defined term has been identified by an asterisk, later occurrences of the term in the same subsection are not usually asterisked.
- (2) Terms are not asterisked in the non-operative material contained in this Act.

Note: The non-operative material is described in Subdivision 2-E.

- (3) The following basic terms used throughout the Act are not identified with an asterisk. They fall into 2 groups:

Key participants in the income tax system

Item	This term:	is defined in:
1.	Australian resident	section 995-1
2.	Commissioner	section 995-1
3.	company	section 995-1

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

2-20 Identifying the defined term in a definition

Within a definition, the defined term is identified by bold italics.

Subdivision 2-D—The numbering system

Table of sections

2-25	Purposes
2-30	Gaps in the numbering

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

2-25 Purposes

Two main purposes of the numbering system in this Act are:

- To indicate the relationship between units at different levels.

For example, the number of Part 2-15 indicates that the Part is in Chapter 2. Similarly, the number of section 165-70 indicates that the section is in Division 165.

- To allow for future expansion of the Act. The main technique here is leaving gaps between numbers.

2-30 Gaps in the numbering

There are gaps in the numbering system to allow for the insertion of new Divisions and sections.

Subdivision 2-E—Status of Guides and other non-operative material

Table of sections

2-35	Non-operative material
2-40	Guides
2-45	Other material

2-35 Non-operative material

In addition to the operative provisions themselves, this Act contains other material to help you identify accurately and quickly the provisions that are relevant to you and to help you understand them.

This other material falls into 2 main categories.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 2-40

2-40 Guides

The first is the “Guides”. A Guide consists of sections under a heading indicating that what follows is a Guide to a particular Subdivision, Division etc.

Guides form part of this Act but are kept separate from the operative provisions. In interpreting an operative provision, a Guide may only be considered for limited purposes. These are set out in section 950-150.

2-45 Other material

The other category consists of material such as notes and examples. These also form part of the Act. They are distinguished by type size from the operative provisions, but are not kept separate from them.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Division 3—What this Act is about

Table of sections

3-5	Annual income tax
3-10	Your other obligations as a taxpayer
3-15	Your obligations other than as a taxpayer

3-5 Annual income tax

- (1) Income tax is payable for each year by each individual and company, and by some other entities.

Note 1: Individuals who are Australian residents, and some trustees, are also liable to pay Medicare levy for each year. See the Medicare Levy Act 1986 and Part VIIB of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.

Note 2: Income tax is imposed by the Income Tax Act 1986 and the other Acts referred to in the definition of income tax in section 995-1.

- (2) Most entities have to pay instalments of income tax before the income tax they actually have to pay can be worked out.

- (3) This Act answers these questions:

1. What instalments of income tax do you have to pay? When and how do you pay them?

See Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953.

2. How do you work out how much income tax you must pay?

See Division 4, starting at section 4-1.

3. What happens if your income tax is more than the instalments you have paid? When and how must you pay the rest?

See Division 5 of this Act and Part 4-15 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953.

4. What happens if your income tax is less than the instalments you have paid? How do you get a refund?

See Division 3A of Part IIB of the Taxation Administration Act 1953.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 3-10

5. What are your other obligations as a taxpayer, besides paying instalments and the rest of your income tax?

See section 3-10.

6. Do you have any other obligations under the income tax law?

See section 3-15.

7. If a dispute between you and the Commissioner of Taxation cannot be settled by agreement, what procedures for objection, review and appeal are available?

See Part IVC (sections 14ZL to 14ZZS) of the Taxation Administration Act 1953.

3-10 Your other obligations as a taxpayer

- (1) Besides paying instalments and the rest of your income tax, your main obligations as a taxpayer are:

- (a) to keep records and provide information as required by:

- the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936; and
- Division 900 (which sets out substantiation rules) of this Act; and

- (b) to lodge income tax returns as required by:

- the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.

Tax file numbers

- (2) Under Part VA of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936, a tax file number can be issued to you. You are not obliged to apply for a tax file number. However, if you do not quote one in certain situations:

- you may become liable for instalments of income tax that would not otherwise have been payable;
- the amount of certain of your instalments of income tax may be increased.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

3-15 Your obligations other than as a taxpayer

Your main obligations under the income tax law, other than as a taxpayer are:

- in certain situations, to deduct from money you owe to another person, and to remit to the Commissioner, instalments of income tax payable by that person.

See Part 4-5 (Collection of income tax instalments), starting at section 750-1.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Part 1-3—Core provisions

Division 4—How to work out the income tax payable on your taxable income

Table of sections

4-1	Who must pay income tax
4-5	Meaning of you
4-10	How to work out how much income tax you must pay
4-15	How to work out your taxable income
4-25	Special provisions for working out your basic income tax liability

4-1 Who must pay income tax

Income tax is payable by each individual and company, and by some other entities.

Note: The actual amount of income tax payable may be nil.

For a list of the entities that must pay income tax, see Division 9, starting at section 9-1.

4-5 Meaning of you

If a provision of this Act uses the expression you, it applies to entities generally, unless its application is expressly limited.

Note 1: The expression you is not used in provisions that apply only to entities that are not individuals.

Note 2: For circumstances in which the identity of an entity that is a managed investment scheme for the purposes of the Corporations Act 2001 is not affected by changes to the scheme, see Subdivision 960-E of the Income Tax (Transitional Provisions) Act 1997.

4-10 How to work out how much income tax you must pay

- (1) You must pay income tax for each *financial year.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

- (2) Your income tax is worked out by reference to your taxable income for the income year. The income year is the same as the *financial year, except in these cases:
- (a) for a company, the income year is the previous financial year;
 - (b) if you have an accounting period that is not the same as the financial year, each such accounting period or, for a company, each previous accounting period is an income year.

Note 1: The Commissioner can allow you to adopt an accounting period ending on a day other than 30 June. See section 18 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.

Note 2: An accounting period ends, and a new accounting period starts, when a partnership becomes, or ceases to be, a VCLP, an ESVCLP, an AFOF or a VCMP. See section 18A of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.

- (3) Work out your income tax for the *financial year as follows:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out your taxable income for the income year.

To do this, see section 4-15.

Step 2. Work out your basic income tax liability on your taxable income using:

- (a) the income tax rate or rates that apply to you for the income year; and
- (b) any special provisions that apply to working out that liability.

See the Income Tax Rates Act 1986 and section 4-25.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 4-15

Step 3. Work out your tax offsets for the income year. A tax offset reduces the amount of income tax you have to pay.

For the list of tax offsets, see section 13-1.

Step 4. Subtract your *tax offsets from your basic income tax liability. The result is how much income tax you owe for the *financial year.

Note 1: Division 63 explains what happens if your tax offsets exceed your basic income tax liability. How the excess is treated depends on the type of tax offset.

Note 2: Section 4-11 of the Income Tax (Transitional Provisions) Act 1997 (which is about the temporary budget repair levy) may increase the amount of income tax worked out under this section.

Income tax worked out on another basis

- (4) For some entities, some or all of their income tax for the *financial year is worked out by reference to something other than taxable income for the income year.

See section 9-5.

4-15 How to work out your taxable income

- (1) Work out your taxable income for the income year like this:

Taxable income = Assessable income – Deductions

Method statement

Step 1. Add up all your assessable income for the income year.

To find out about your assessable income, see Division 6.

Step 2. Add up your deductions for the income year.

To find out what you can deduct, see Division 8.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Step 3. Subtract your deductions from your assessable income (unless they exceed it). The result is your taxable income. (If the deductions equal or exceed the assessable income, you don't have a taxable income.)

Note: If the deductions exceed the assessable income, you may have a tax loss which you may be able to utilise in that or a later income year: see Division 36.

(2) There are cases where taxable income is worked out in a special way:

Item	For this case ...	See:
1.	A company does not maintain continuity of ownership and control during the income year and does not satisfy the business continuity test	Subdivision 165-B
1B.	An entity is a *member of a *consolidated group at any time in the income year	Part 3-90
2.	A company becomes a PDF (pooled development fund) during the income year, and the PDF component for the income year is a nil amount	section 124ZTA of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936
3.	A shipowner or charterer: • has its principal place of business outside Australia; and • carries passengers, freight or mail shipped in Australia	section 129 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936
4.	An insurer who is a foreign resident enters into insurance contracts connected with Australia	sections 142 and 143 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936
5.	The Commissioner makes a default or special assessment of taxable income	sections 167 and 168 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Chapter 1 Introduction and core provisions

Part 1-3 Core provisions

Division 4 How to work out the income tax payable on your taxable income

Section 4-25

Item	For this case ...	See:
6.	The Commissioner makes a determination of the amount of taxable income to prevent double taxation in certain treaty cases	section 24 of the International Tax Agreements Act 1953
Note:	A life insurance company can have a taxable income of the complying superannuation class and/or a taxable income of the ordinary class for the purposes of working out its income tax for an income year: see Subdivision 320-D.

4-25 Special provisions for working out your basic income tax liability

Subsection 119-10(1) or 392-35(3) may increase your basic income tax liability beyond the liability worked out simply by applying the income tax rates to your taxable income.

Note 1: Subsection 119-10(1) increases some individuals' tax liability by requiring them to pay extra income tax in relation to certain capital gains.

Note 2: Subsection 392-35(3) increases some primary producers' tax liability by requiring them to pay extra income tax on their averaging components worked out under Subdivision 392-C.

Division 5—How to work out when to pay your income tax

Table of Subdivisions

	Guide to Division 5
5-A	How to work out when to pay your income tax

Guide to Division 5

5-1 What this Division is about

If your assessed income tax liability exceeds the credits available to you under the PAYG system, this Division explains when you must pay the excess to the Commissioner.

If your assessment is amended so that you must pay income tax, or pay more income tax than under the previous assessment, this Division explains:

- (a) when you must pay the additional tax; and
- (b) when any associated interest charges must be paid.

Note: For provisions about the collection and recovery of income tax and other tax-related liabilities, see Part 4-15 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953.

Subdivision 5-A—How to work out when to pay your income tax

Table of sections

5-5	When income tax is payable
5-10	When shortfall interest charge is payable
5-15	General interest charge payable on unpaid income tax or shortfall interest charge

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 5-5

5-5 When income tax is payable

Scope

- (1) This section tells you when income tax you must pay for a *financial year is due and payable.

Note: The Commissioner may defer the time at which the income tax is due and payable: see section 255-10 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953.

- (2) The income tax is only due and payable if the Commissioner makes an *assessment of your income tax for the year.
- (3) However, if the Commissioner does make an *assessment of your income tax for the year, the tax may be taken to have been due and payable at a time before your assessment was made.

Note: This is to ensure that general interest charge begins to accrue from the same date for all like entities. General interest charge on unpaid income tax is calculated from when the tax is due and payable, not from when the assessment is made: see section 5-15.

Original assessments—self-assessment entities

- (4) If you are a *self-assessment entity, the income tax is due and payable on the first day of the sixth month after the end of the income year.

Example: If your income year is the same as the financial year, your income tax would be due and payable on 1 December.

Original assessments—other entities

- (5) If you are not a *self-assessment entity, the income tax is due and payable 21 days after the day (the return day) on or before which you are required to lodge your *income tax return with the Commissioner.

Note: For rules about income tax returns and when they are due, see Part IV of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

- (6) However, if you lodge your return on or before the return day and the Commissioner gives you a notice of *assessment (other than an amended assessment) after the return day, the income tax is due and payable 21 days after the Commissioner gives you the notice.

Amended assessments

- (7) If the Commissioner amends your *assessment, any extra income tax resulting from the amendment is due and payable 21 days after the day on which the Commissioner gives you notice of the amended assessment.

Note: Shortfall interest charge may be payable, on any amount of extra income tax payable as a result of the amended assessment, for each day in the period that:

- (a) starts at the time income tax was due and payable on your original assessment; and
- (b) ends the day before the day on which the Commissioner gives you notice of the amended assessment.

5-10 When shortfall interest charge is payable

An amount of *shortfall interest charge that you are liable to pay is due and payable 21 days after the day on which the Commissioner gives you notice of the charge.

Note: Shortfall interest charge is imposed if the Commissioner amends an assessment and the amended assessment results in an increase in some tax payable. For provisions about liability for shortfall interest charge, see Division 280 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953.

5-15 General interest charge payable on unpaid income tax or shortfall interest charge

If an amount of income tax or *shortfall interest charge that you are liable to pay remains unpaid after the time by which it is due to be paid, you are liable to pay the *general interest charge on the unpaid amount for each day in the period that:

- (a) starts at the beginning of the day on which the amount was due to be paid; and

- (i) the income tax or shortfall interest charge;
 - (ii) general interest charge on any of the income tax or shortfall interest charge.

Note 1: The general interest charge is worked out under Part IIA of the Taxation Administration Act 1953.

Note 2: Shortfall interest charge is worked out under Division 280 in Schedule 1 to that Act.

non-assessable non-exempt income) in the hands of a particular entity.

Operative provisions

6-5 Income according to ordinary concepts (ordinary income)

- (1) Your assessable income includes income according to ordinary concepts, which is called ordinary income.

Note: Some of the provisions about assessable income listed in section 10-5 may affect the treatment of ordinary income.

- (2) If you are an Australian resident, your assessable income includes the *ordinary income you *derived directly or indirectly from all sources, whether in or out of Australia, during the income year.
- (3) If you are a foreign resident, your assessable income includes:
- (a) the *ordinary income you *derived directly or indirectly from all *Australian sources during the income year; and
 - (b) other *ordinary income that a provision includes in your assessable income for the income year on some basis other than having an *Australian source.
- (4) In working out whether you have derived an amount of *ordinary income, and (if so) when you derived it, you are taken to have received the amount as soon as it is applied or dealt with in any way on your behalf or as you direct.

6-10 Other assessable income (statutory income)

- (1) Your assessable income also includes some amounts that are not *ordinary income.

Note: These are included by provisions about assessable income. For a summary list of these provisions, see section 10-5.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 6-15

- (2) Amounts that are not *ordinary income, but are included in your assessable income by provisions about assessable income, are called statutory income.

Note 1: Although an amount is statutory income because it has been included in assessable income under a provision of this Act, it may be made exempt income or non-assessable non-exempt income under another provision: see sections 6-20 and 6-23.

Note 2: Many provisions in the summary list in section 10-5 contain rules about ordinary income. These rules do not change its character as ordinary income.

- (3) If an amount would be *statutory income apart from the fact that you have not received it, it becomes statutory income as soon as it is applied or dealt with in any way on your behalf or as you direct.
- (4) If you are an Australian resident, your assessable income includes your *statutory income from all sources, whether in or out of Australia.
- (5) If you are a foreign resident, your assessable income includes:
- (a) your *statutory income from all *Australian sources; and
 - (b) other *statutory income that a provision includes in your assessable income on some basis other than having an *Australian source.

6-15 What is not assessable income

- (1) If an amount is not *ordinary income, and is not *statutory income, it is not assessable income (so you do not have to pay income tax on it).
- (2) If an amount is *exempt income, it is not assessable income.

Note: If an amount is exempt income, there are other consequences besides it being exempt from income tax. For example:

- the amount may be taken into account in working out the amount of a tax loss (see section 36-10);

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 6-20

- you cannot deduct as a general deduction a loss or outgoing incurred in deriving the amount (see Division 8);
 - capital gains and losses on assets used solely to produce exempt income are disregarded (see section 118-12).
- (3) If an amount is non-assessable non-exempt income*, it is not assessable income.
- Note 1: You cannot deduct as a general deduction a loss or outgoing incurred in deriving an amount of non-assessable non-exempt income (see Division 8).
- Note 2: Capital gains and losses on assets used to produce some types of non-assessable non-exempt income are disregarded (see section 118-12).

6-20 Exempt income

- (1) An amount of ordinary income* or statutory income* is exempt income if it is made exempt from income tax by a provision of this Act or another Commonwealth law*.

For summary lists of provisions about exempt income, see sections 11-5 and 11-15.

- (2) Ordinary income* is also exempt income to the extent that this Act excludes it (expressly or by implication) from being assessable income.
- (3) By contrast, an amount of statutory income* is exempt income only if it is made exempt from income tax by a provision of this Act outside this Division or another Commonwealth law*.
- (4) If an amount of ordinary income* or statutory income* is non-assessable non-exempt income*, it is not exempt income.
- Note: An amount of non-assessable non-exempt income is not taken into account in working out the amount of a tax loss.

Section 6-23

6-23 Non-assessable non-exempt income

An amount of *ordinary income or *statutory income is non-assessable non-exempt income if a provision of this Act or of another *Commonwealth law states that it is not assessable income and is not *exempt income.

Note: Capital gains and losses on assets used to produce some types of non-assessable non-exempt income are disregarded (see section 118-12).

For a summary list of provisions about non-assessable non-exempt income, see Subdivision 11-B.

6-25 Relationships among various rules about ordinary income

- (1) Sometimes more than one rule includes an amount in your assessable income:
- the same amount may be *ordinary income and may also be included in your assessable income by one or more provisions about assessable income; or
 - the same amount may be included in your assessable income by more than one provision about assessable income.

For a summary list of the provisions about assessable income, see section 10-5.

However, the amount is included only once in your assessable income for an income year, and is then not included in your assessable income for any other income year.

- (2) Unless the contrary intention appears, the provisions of this Act (outside this Part) prevail over the rules about *ordinary income.

Note: This Act contains some specific provisions about how far the rules about ordinary income prevail over the other provisions of this Act.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Division 8—Deductions

Table of sections

8-1	General deductions
8-5	Specific deductions
8-10	No double deductions

8-1 General deductions

- (1) You can deduct from your assessable income any loss or outgoing to the extent that:
- (a) it is incurred in gaining or producing your assessable income; or
 - (b) it is necessarily incurred in carrying on a *business for the purpose of gaining or producing your assessable income.

Note: Division 35 prevents losses from non-commercial business activities that may contribute to a tax loss being offset against other assessable income.

- (2) However, you cannot deduct a loss or outgoing under this section to the extent that:
- (a) it is a loss or outgoing of capital, or of a capital nature; or
 - (b) it is a loss or outgoing of a private or domestic nature; or
 - (c) it is incurred in relation to gaining or producing your *exempt income or your *non-assessable non-exempt income; or
 - (d) a provision of this Act prevents you from deducting it.

For a summary list of provisions about deductions, see section 12-5.

- (3) A loss or outgoing that you can deduct under this section is called a general deduction.

For the effect of the GST in working out deductions, see Division 27.

Note If you receive an amount as insurance, indemnity or other recoupment of a loss or outgoing that you can deduct under this section, the amount may be included in your assessable income: see Subdivision 20-A.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 8-5

8-5 Specific deductions

- (1) You can also deduct from your assessable income an amount that a provision of this Act (outside this Division) allows you to deduct.
- (2) Some provisions of this Act prevent you from deducting an amount that you could otherwise deduct, or limit the amount you can deduct.
- (3) An amount that you can deduct under a provision of this Act (outside this Division) is called a specific deduction.

Note: If you receive an amount as insurance, indemnity or other recoupment of a deductible expense, the amount may be included in your assessable income: see Subdivision 20-A.

For a summary list of provisions about deductions, see section 12-5.

8-10 No double deductions

If 2 or more provisions of this Act allow you deductions in respect of the same amount (whether for the same income year or different income years), you can deduct only under the provision that is most appropriate.

Section 9-5

- (2) For entities covered by an item in the table in subsection (1), the income year is the same as the *financial year, except in these cases:
- (a) for a company, or an entity covered by item 2 or 3 in the table, the income year is the previous financial year;
 - (b) if an entity has an accounting period that is not the same as the financial year, each such accounting period or, for a company, each previous accounting period is an income year.

Note 1: The Commissioner can allow an entity to adopt an accounting period ending on a day other than 30 June. See section 18 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.

Note 2: An accounting period ends, and a new accounting period starts, when a partnership becomes, or ceases to be, a VCLP, an ESVCLP, an AFOF or a VCMP. See section 18A of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.

15-23	Payments of resale royalties by resale royalty collecting society
15-25	Amount received for lease obligation to repair
15-30	Insurance or indemnity for loss of assessable income
15-35	Interest on overpayments and early payments of tax
15-40	Providing mining, quarrying or prospecting information or geothermal exploration information
15-45	Amounts paid under forestry agreements
15-46	Amounts paid under forestry managed investment schemes

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 15-2

15-50	Work in progress amounts
15-55	Certain amounts paid under funeral policy
15-60	Certain amounts paid under scholarship plan
15-70	Reimbursed car expenses
15-75	Bonuses
15-80	Franked distributions entitled to a foreign income tax deduction— Additional Tier 1 capital exception

Operative provisions

15-2 Allowances and other things provided in respect of employment or services

- (1) Your assessable income includes the value to you of all allowances, gratuities, compensation, benefits, bonuses and premiums *provided to you in respect of, or for or in relation directly or indirectly to, any employment of or services rendered by you (including any service as a member of the Defence Force).
- (2) This is so whether the things were *provided in money or in any other form.
- (3) However, the value of the following are not included in your assessable income under this section:
 - (a) a *superannuation lump sum or an *employment termination payment;
 - (b) an *unused annual leave payment or an *unused long service leave payment;
 - (c) a *dividend or *non-share dividend;
 - (d) an amount that is assessable as *ordinary income under section 6-5;
 - (e) *ESS interests to which Subdivision 83A-B or 83A-C (about employee share schemes) applies.

Note: Section 23L of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 provides that fringe benefits are non-assessable non-exempt income.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 15-3

15-3 Return to work payments

Your assessable income includes an amount you receive under an *arrangement that an entity enters into for a purpose of inducing you to resume working for, or providing services to, any entity.

15-5 Accrued leave transfer payments

Your assessable income includes an *accrued leave transfer payment that you receive.

To find out if the payment is deductible to the payer, see section 26-10.

15-10 Bounties and subsidies

Your assessable income includes a bounty or subsidy that:

- (a) you receive in relation to carrying on a *business; and
- (b) is not assessable as *ordinary income under section 6-5.

15-15 Profit-making undertaking or plan

- (1) Your assessable income includes profit arising from the carrying on or carrying out of a profit-making undertaking or plan.
- (2) This section does not apply to a profit that:
 - (a) is assessable as *ordinary income under section 6-5; or
 - (b) arises in respect of the sale of property acquired on or after 20 September 1985.

Note: If you sell property you acquired before 20 September 1985 for profit-making by sale, your assessable income includes the profit: see section 25A of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.

15-20 Royalties

- (1) Your assessable income includes an amount that you receive as or by way of royalty within the ordinary meaning of “royalty”

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 15-22

(disregarding the definition of royalty in subsection 995-1(1)) if the amount is not assessable as *ordinary income under section 6-5.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to an amount of a payment to which section 15-22 or 15-23 applies.

15-22 Payments made to members of a copyright collecting society

- (1) This section, instead of Division 6 of Part III of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936, applies to a payment that a *copyright collecting society, to which section 51-43 applies, makes to you as a *member of the society.
- (2) Your assessable income includes the amount of the payment, except to the extent that the payment represents an amount on which the directors of the society are or have been assessed, and are liable to pay *tax, under section 98, 99 or 99A of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.

Note: Section 410-5 of this Act requires a copyright collecting society to give you a notice at the time of payment.

15-23 Payments of resale royalties by resale royalty collecting society

- (1) This section, instead of Division 6 of Part III of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936, applies to a payment that the *resale royalty collecting society makes to you under section 26 of the Resale Royalty Right for Visual Artists Act 2009.
- (2) Your assessable income includes the amount of the payment, except to the extent that the payment represents an amount on which the directors of the society are or have been assessed, and are liable to pay *tax, under section 98, 99 or 99A of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.

Note: Section 410-50 of this Act requires the resale royalty collecting society to give you a notice at the time of payment.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 15-25

15-25 Amount received for lease obligation to repair

Your assessable income includes an amount you receive from an entity if:

- (a) you receive it as a lessor or former lessor of premises; and
- (b) the entity pays you the amount for failing to comply with a lease obligation to make repairs to the premises; and
- (c) the entity uses or has used the premises for the *purpose of producing assessable income; and
- (d) the amount is not assessable as *ordinary income under section 6-5.

Note: The entity can deduct the amount: see section 25-15.

15-30 Insurance or indemnity for loss of assessable income

Your assessable income includes an amount you receive by way of insurance or indemnity for the loss of an amount (the lost amount) if:

- (a) the lost amount would have been included in your assessable income; and
- (b) the amount you receive is not assessable as *ordinary income under section 6-5.

15-35 Interest on overpayments and early payments of tax

Your assessable income includes interest payable to you under the Taxation (Interest on Overpayments and Early Payments) Act 1983. The interest becomes assessable when it is paid to you or applied to discharge a liability you have to the Commonwealth.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 15-40

15-40 Providing mining, quarrying or prospecting information or geothermal exploration information

- (1) Your assessable income includes an amount you receive for providing *mining, quarrying or prospecting information to another entity if:
 - (a) you continue to *hold the information; and
 - (b) the amount you receive is not assessable as *ordinary income under section 6-5.
- (2) Your assessable income includes an amount you receive for providing *geothermal exploration information you have to another entity if:
 - (a) you continue to have the information; and
 - (b) the information is, and continues to be, relevant to:
 - (i) *geothermal energy extraction that you carry on or propose to carry on; or
 - (ii) a *business that you carry on that includes *exploration or prospecting for *geothermal energy resources from which energy can be extracted by geothermal energy extraction; and
 - (c) the amount you receive is not assessable as *ordinary income under section 6-5.

It does not matter whether the information is generally available or not.
- (3) Geothermal exploration information is geological, geophysical or technical information that:
 - (a) relates to the presence, absence or extent of *geothermal energy resources in an area; or
 - (b) is likely to help in determining the presence, absence or extent of such resources in an area.
- (4) Geothermal energy extraction means operations that are for:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 15-45

- (a) the extraction of energy from *geothermal energy resources;
and
- (b) the *purpose of producing assessable income.

15-45 Amounts paid under forestry agreements

- (1) Your assessable income includes an amount you receive under an agreement for the planting and tending of trees for felling if:
 - (a) you are the manager of the agreement as mentioned in section 82KZMG of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936; and
 - (b) the amount satisfies, for the entity that paid it, the requirements of that section.

The amount is included for the income year in which the entity can claim a deduction for the amount.

- (2) No part of an amount included under subsection (1) is included in your assessable income for a later income year.

15-46 Amounts paid under forestry managed investment schemes

- (1) Your assessable income includes an amount you receive under a *forestry managed investment scheme if:
 - (a) you are the *forestry manager of the scheme, or an *associate of the forestry manager; and
 - (b) the entity that paid the amount can deduct or has deducted the amount under section 394-10 in relation to the scheme (disregarding subsection 394-10(5)).

The amount is included for the income year for which the entity that paid the amount can or has claimed a deduction for it (disregarding subsection 394-10(5)).

- (2) No part of an amount included under subsection (1) is included in your assessable income for a later income year.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 15-50

15-50 Work in progress amounts

Your assessable income includes a *work in progress amount that you receive.

Note: To find out whether the amount is deductible to the payer, see section 25-95.

15-55 Certain amounts paid under funeral policy

- (1) Your assessable income includes the amount of a benefit provided to you by a *life insurance company under a *funeral policy issued after 31 December 2002 to pay for the funeral of the insured person, reduced by:
 - (a) the amount of the premium or premiums of the policy that is reasonably related to the benefit; and
 - (b) the amount of the fees and charges included in the company's assessable income for any income year under paragraph 320-15(1)(k) that is reasonably related to the benefit.
- (2) This section does not apply if the benefit is included in your assessable income as:
 - (a) *ordinary income under section 6-5; or
 - (b) *statutory income under a section of this Act other than this section.

15-60 Certain amounts paid under scholarship plan

- (1) Your assessable income includes the amount of a benefit provided to you, or on your behalf, by a *life insurance company under a *scholarship plan covered by subsection (2) or (3), reduced by the amount worked out under subsection (4), if:
 - (a) the benefit is provided on or after 1 January 2003; and
 - (b) you are nominated in the plan as a beneficiary whose education is to be helped by the benefit.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 15-70

- (2) This subsection covers a *scholarship plan issued by the *life insurance company after 31 December 2002.
- (3) This subsection covers a *scholarship plan if:
 - (a) the plan was issued by the *life insurance company before 1 January 2003; and
 - (b) no amount received by the company on or after 1 January 2003 and attributable to the plan is *non-assessable non-exempt income of the company under paragraph 320-37(1)(d).
- (4) The amount of the reduction is the sum of:
 - (a) the amount of the premium or premiums of the plan that is reasonably related to the benefit; and
 - (b) the amount of the fees and charges included in the company's assessable income for any income year under paragraph 320-15(1)(k) that is reasonably related to the benefit.

15-70 Reimbursed car expenses

Your assessable income includes a reimbursement mentioned in section 22 of the Fringe Benefits Tax Assessment Act 1986 (about exempt car expense payment benefits) that, but for that section, would be a *fringe benefit *provided to you.

15-75 Bonuses

Your assessable income includes any amount you receive as or by way of bonus on a *life insurance policy, other than a reversionary bonus.

Note: Reversionary bonuses are covered by section 6-5 of this Act if they are ordinary income and, if not, by section 26AH of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 15-80

15-80 Franked distributions entitled to a foreign income tax deduction—Additional Tier 1 capital exception

- (1) If section 207-158 would, apart from subsection 207-158(2), apply to a *franked distribution, then an amount equal to the *foreign income tax deduction referred to in subsection (1) of that section is included in the assessable income of the entity that made the distribution for the income year mentioned in subsection (2) of this section.
- (2) The income year is:
 - (a) if the *foreign tax period in which the *foreign income tax deduction arises falls wholly within an income year of the entity—that income year; or
 - (b) if the foreign tax period in which the foreign income tax deduction arises straddles 2 income years of the entity—the later of those income years.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Division 17—Effect of GST etc. on assessable income

Guide to Division 17

17-1 What this Division is about

This Division sets out the effect of the GST in working out assessable income. Generally speaking, GST, input tax credits and adjustments under the GST Act are disregarded.

Table of sections

17-5	GST and increasing adjustments
17-10	Certain decreasing adjustments
17-15	Elements in calculation of amounts
17-20	GST groups and GST joint ventures
17-30	Special credits because of indirect tax transition
17-35	Certain sections not to apply to certain assets or expenditure

17-5 GST and increasing adjustments

An amount is not assessable income, and is not *exempt income, to the extent that it includes an amount relating to:

- (a) *GST payable on a *taxable supply; or
- (b) an *increasing adjustment that relates to a *supply; or
- (c) an *increasing adjustment that:
 - (i) relates to an *acquisition; and
 - (ii) arises in circumstances that also give rise to a *recoupment that is included in assessable income.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 17-10

17-10 Certain decreasing adjustments

- (1) An amount of a *decreasing adjustment that arises under Division 129 or 132 of the *GST Act is assessable income, unless the entity that has the adjustment is an *exempt entity.
- (2) However, the amount is not assessable income to the extent that, because it becomes a component of a *net input tax credit, a reduction is made under section 103-30 (reduction of cost base etc. by net input tax credits).

17-15 Elements in calculation of amounts

In calculating an amount that may be included in assessable income:

- (a) an element in the calculation that is an amount received or receivable is treated as not including an amount equal to any *GST payable on a *taxable supply related to the amount received or receivable, or any *increasing adjustment related to that amount; and
- (b) an element in the calculation that is an amount paid or payable is treated as not including an amount equal to any *input tax credit for an *acquisition related to the amount paid or payable, or any *decreasing adjustment related to that amount.

17-20 GST groups and GST joint ventures

- (1) A *member of a *GST group is to be treated, for the purposes of this Division, as if Subdivision 48-B of the *GST Act (other than paragraph 48-40(2)(a) and subsection 48-40(3)) did not apply to that member.
- (2) A *participant in a *GST joint venture is to be treated, for the purposes of this Division, as if Subdivision 51-B of the *GST Act (other than subsections 51-30(2) and (3)) did not apply to that participant.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

17-30 Special credits because of indirect tax transition

A special credit under section 19A of the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax Transition) Act 1999 is assessable income at the time it is attributed to a *tax period (for a credit under section 19A).

17-35 Certain sections not to apply to certain assets or expenditure

Sections 17-5, 17-10 and 17-15 do not apply to assets, or to expenditure, for which you can deduct amounts under Division 40 or Division 328.

Note: See instead Subdivision 27-B.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Subdivision 20-A—Insurance, indemnity or other recoupment for deductible expenses

Guide to Subdivision 20-A

20-10 What this Subdivision is about

Recoupment of expenses you incurred and can deduct

Your assessable income may include an amount that you receive by way of insurance, indemnity or other recoupment if:

- it is for a deductible expense; and
- it is not otherwise assessable income.

Recoupment of expenses you did not incur but can deduct

Your assessable income may include an amount that another entity receives by way of insurance, indemnity or other recoupment if:

- it is for an expense that you can deduct; and
- it is not otherwise your assessable income.

Chapter 2 Liability rules of general application

Part 2-1 Assessable income

Division 20 Amounts included to reverse the effect of past deductions

Section 20-15

- 20-35 If the expense is deductible in a single income year
- 20-40 If the expense is deductible over 2 or more income years
- 20-45 Effect of balancing charge
- 20-50 If the expense is only partially deductible
- 20-55 Meaning of previous recoupment law

What if you can deduct a loss or outgoing incurred by another entity?

- 20-60 If you are the only entity that can deduct an amount for the loss or outgoing
- 20-65 If 2 or more entities can deduct amounts for the loss or outgoing

20-15 How to use this Subdivision

If you incurred the deductible loss or outgoing

- (1) First, read sections 20-20 to 20-30 to work out whether you have received an assessable recoupment. If not, you do not need to read the rest of the Subdivision.
- (2) If you have received one or more assessable recoupments, sections 20-35 to 20-55 tell you how much is included in your assessable income for an income year.

If another entity incurred a loss or outgoing you can deduct

- (3) Sections 20-60 and 20-65 tell you how to apply this Subdivision.

What is an assessable recoupment?

20-20 Assessable recoupments

Exclusion

- (1) An amount is not an assessable recoupment to the extent that it is *ordinary income, or it is *statutory income because of a provision outside this Subdivision.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 20-25

Insurance or indemnity

- (2) An amount you have received as *recoupment of a loss or outgoing is an assessable recoupment if:
- (a) you received the amount by way of insurance or indemnity; and
 - (b) you can deduct an amount for the loss or outgoing for the *current year, or you have deducted or can deduct an amount for it for an earlier income year, under any provision of this Act.

Other recoupment

- (3) An amount you have received as *recoupment of a loss or outgoing (except by way of insurance or indemnity) is an assessable recoupment if:
- (a) you can deduct an amount for the loss or outgoing for the *current year; or
 - (b) you have deducted or can deduct an amount for the loss or outgoing for an earlier income year;
- under a provision listed in section 20-30.

20-25 What is recoupment?

General

- (1) Recoupment of a loss or outgoing includes:
- (a) any kind of recoupment, reimbursement, refund, insurance, indemnity or recovery, however described; and
 - (b) a grant in respect of the loss or outgoing.

Amount paid for you

- (2) If some other entity pays an amount for you in respect of a loss or outgoing that you incur, you are taken to receive the amount as recoupment of the loss or outgoing.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 20-30

Remission of general interest charge or shortfall interest charge

(2A) If:

- (a) you have incurred expenditure that consists of *general interest charge or *shortfall interest charge; and
- (b) the Commissioner remits any of that charge;

then you are taken to receive the remitted amount as recoupment of that expenditure.

Amount for disposing of right to recoupment

- (3) If you dispose of your right to receive an amount as *recoupment of a loss or outgoing you are taken to receive as recoupment of the loss or outgoing any amount you receive for disposing of that right. (The disposal need not be to another entity.)

Amount received that is recoupment to an unspecified extent

- (4) If you receive an amount that is, to an unspecified extent, *recoupment of a loss or outgoing, the amount is taken to be recoupment of the loss or outgoing to whatever extent is reasonable.

Balancing adjustments not covered

- (5) If a balancing adjustment is required for property on which you incurred a loss or outgoing, no part of the *termination value of the property is an amount you receive as recoupment of the loss or outgoing.

Note: The termination value is usually the amount you receive because of disposal, loss or destruction of the property.

20-30 Tables of deductions for which recoupments are assessable

- (1) This table shows the deductions under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 for which recoupments are assessable.

How much is included in your assessable income?

20-35 If the expense is deductible in a single income year

- (1) Your assessable income includes an *assessable recoupment of a loss or outgoing if:
- (a) you can deduct the whole of the loss or outgoing for the *current year; or
 - (b) you have deducted or can deduct the whole of the loss or outgoing for an earlier income year.

Note 1: The operation of this section may be affected if a balancing charge has been included in your assessable income because of a deduction for the loss or outgoing: see section 20-45.

Note 2: Recoupment of a loss or outgoing for which you can deduct amounts over more than one income year is covered by section 20-40.

Note 3: Recoupment of a loss or outgoing that is only partially deductible is covered by section 20-50.

Total assessed not to exceed the loss or outgoing

- (2) The total of all amounts that subsection (1) includes in your assessable income for one or more income years in respect of a loss or outgoing cannot exceed the amount of the loss or outgoing.

Recoupment received before income year of the deduction

- (3) If:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 20-40

- (a) you can deduct the whole of a loss or outgoing for the *current year; and
 - (b) before the current year you received an *assessable recoupment of the loss or outgoing;
- your assessable income for the current year includes so much of the recoupment as subsection (1) would have included if you had instead received the recoupment at the start of the current year.

20-40 If the expense is deductible over 2 or more income years

- (1) This section includes an amount in your assessable income if:
- (a) you receive in the *current year an *assessable recoupment of a loss or outgoing for which you can deduct amounts over 2 or more income years; or
 - (b) you received in an earlier income year an *assessable recoupment of a loss or outgoing of that kind (unless all of the recoupment has already been included in your assessable income for one or more earlier income years by this section or a *previous recoupment law).

(This section applies even if the recoupment was received before the first of those income years.)

Note: Recoupment of a loss or outgoing that is only partially deductible is covered by section 20-50.

- (2) Work out as follows how much is included in your assessable income for the *current year because of one or more *assessable recoupments of the loss or outgoing.

Note: The method statement ensures that assessable recoupments are included:

- only so far as they have not already been included for an earlier income year; and
- only to the extent of your total deductions to date for the loss or outgoing.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Method statement

- Step 1. Add up all the *assessable recoupments of the loss or outgoing that you have received (in the *current year or earlier). The result is the total assessable recoupment.
- Step 2. Add up the amounts (if any) included in your assessable income for earlier income years, in respect of the loss or outgoing, by this section or a *previous recoupment law. The result is the recoupment already assessed. (If no amount was included, the recoupment already assessed is nil.)
- Step 3. Subtract the recoupment already assessed from the total assessable recoupment. The result is the unassessed recoupment.
- Step 4. Add up each amount that you can deduct for the loss or outgoing for the *current year, or you have deducted or can deduct for the loss or outgoing for an earlier income year. The result is the total deductions for the loss or outgoing.
- Note: The total deductions may be reduced if an amount has been included in your assessable income because of a balancing adjustment: see section 20-45.
- Step 5. Subtract the recoupment already assessed from the total deductions for the loss or outgoing. The result is the outstanding deductions.
- Step 6. The unassessed recoupment is included in your assessable income, unless it is greater than the outstanding deductions. In that case, the amount of the outstanding deductions is included instead.

Example: At the start of the 2002-03 income year, a company incurs $100,000 to start to hold a depreciating asset. The company uses the prime cost method, and the effective life is 10 years. $10,000 is deductible for the 2002-03 income year and for each of the following 9 income years under section 40-25.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Chapter 2 Liability rules of general application

Part 2-1 Assessable income

Division 20 Amounts included to reverse the effect of past deductions

Section 20-45

In the 2002-03 income year, the company receives $20,000 as recoupment. How much is assessable for the 2002-03 income year?

Applying the method statement:

After step 1: the total assessable recoupment is $20,000.

After step 2: the recoupment already assessed is nil.

After step 3: the unassessed recoupment is:
total assessable recoupment minus recoupment already assessed,
i.e. $20,000 minus 0 = $20,000.

After step 4: the total deductions for the loss or outgoing are $10,000.

After step 5: the outstanding deductions are:
total deductions for the loss or outgoing minus recoupment already assessed, i.e. $10,000 minus 0 = $10,000.

After step 6: the unassessed recoupment (step 3) is greater than outstanding deductions (step 5), so the amount of the outstanding deductions is included in assessable income, i.e. $10,000.

Applying the method statement to the 2003-04 income year: a further $10,000 is included in the company's assessable income.

20-45 Effect of balancing charge

- (1) This section may affect the operation of section 20-35 or 20-40 (as appropriate) if:
 - (a) a balancing adjustment is required for the *current year (or for an earlier income year) because you have deducted or can deduct an amount for an income year for the loss or outgoing; and
 - (b) an amount (the balancing charge) is included in your assessable income for the *current year (or for the earlier income year) because of the balancing adjustment.

To find out about balancing adjustments, see Subdivision 40-D.

Effect on section 20-35

- (2) In applying section 20-35, treat each of the following as reduced by the balancing charge:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 20-45

- (a) the amount of the loss or outgoing;
- (b) the total of what you can deduct for the loss or outgoing for the *current year, or have deducted or can deduct for an earlier income year.

Effect on section 20-40

- (3) In applying the method statement in subsection 20-40(2), reduce the total deductions for the loss or outgoing by the balancing charge.

Example: Continuing the example in subsection 20-40(2): at the start of the 2005-06 income year, the company:

- receives a further $10,000 as recoupment; and
- sells the depreciating asset for $75,000.

As a result of the sale, a balancing adjustment of $5,000 is included under section 40-285 in the company's assessable income for that income year.

How much of the recoupment amount received in the 2005-06 income year is assessable for that income year?

Applying the method statement in subsection 20-40(2):

After step 1: the total assessable recoupment is $30,000 (received during 2002-03 and 2005-06).

After step 2: the recoupment already assessed is $20,000 (for 2002-03 and 2003-04).

After step 3: the unassessed recoupment is:
total assessable recoupment minus recoupment already assessed,
i.e. $30,000 minus $20,000 = $10,000.

After step 4: the total deductions for the loss or outgoing are $30,000 ($10,000 for each of 2002-03, 2004-04 and 2004-05), reduced by $5,000 (the amount included in assessable income for the balancing adjustment), i.e. $25,000.

After step 5: the outstanding deductions are:
total deductions for the loss or outgoing minus recoupment already assessed, i.e. $25,000 minus $20,000 = $5,000.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 20-50

After step 6: the unassessed recoupment (step 3) is greater than outstanding deductions (step 5), so the amount of the outstanding deductions is included in assessable income, i.e. $5,000.

20-50 If the expense is only partially deductible

- (1) This section extends the operation of section 20-35 or 20-40 (as appropriate) to a case where the total of what you can deduct under a provision (the deduction provision) for a loss or outgoing is limited to a proportion of the loss or outgoing.
- (2) If you receive an *assessable recoupment of the loss or outgoing, section 20-35 or 20-40 applies as if:
 - (a) you had incurred only that proportion of the loss or outgoing, but could deduct the whole of that proportion under the deduction provision; and
 - (b) you had received only that proportion of the recoupment.

Example: You incur expenditure of $500. A provision listed in section 20-30 entitles you to deduct 10% of the expenditure ($50) over 5 years. This means you can deduct $10 in each of the 5 years.

You recoup $300 of the expenditure. This section treats you as receiving only 10% of the recoupment. Therefore, $30 is dealt with by section 20-40.

20-55 Meaning of previous recoupment law

- (1) Previous recoupment law means a provision of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 listed in this table.

Previous recoupment law
Item	Provision	What kind of expense the provision relates to:
1	former 26(j) (so far as it relates to an amount received for or in respect of a loss or outgoing that is a deduction)	a loss or outgoing that is a deduction

2	former 26(k)	embezzlement or larceny by an employee
3	former 63(3)	bad debts
4	former 69(8)	tax-related expenses
5	former 70A(5)	mains electricity connection expenditure

6A	former 72A(4)(a) and (aa)	petroleum resource rent tax
7	former 74(2)	election expenses, Commonwealth and State elections

- (2) Former section 330-350 of this Act is also a previous recoupment law.

What if you can deduct a loss or outgoing incurred by another entity?

20-60 If you are the only entity that can deduct an amount for the loss or outgoing

This Subdivision applies in a different way if:

- (a) an entity (other than you) incurs a loss or outgoing; and
- (b) you can deduct the whole of the loss or outgoing for an income year, or you can deduct amounts for the loss or outgoing over 2 or more income years; and
- (c) no other entity can deduct an amount for the loss or outgoing; and

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 20-65

- (d) the entity that incurred the loss or outgoing receives one or more amounts as *recoupment of the loss or outgoing.

This Subdivision (except this section and section 20-65) applies as if you had incurred the loss or outgoing and had also received the *recoupment.

20-65 If 2 or more entities can deduct amounts for the loss or outgoing

- (1) Special rules apply if:
 - (a) an entity (the first entity) incurs a loss or outgoing; and
 - (b) 2 or more entities (the deducting entities, which may include the first entity) have deducted or can deduct amounts for the loss or outgoing (whether for the same income year or for different income years); and
 - (c) the first entity receives one or more amounts as *recoupment of the loss or outgoing.
- (2) This Subdivision (except this section and section 20-60) applies as if the first entity and the deducting entities together constituted a single entity (the notional entity) that had:
 - (a) incurred the loss or outgoing; and
 - (b) received the amount or amounts as *recoupment; and
 - (c) included in its assessable income any amount included in the assessable income of any of the deducting entities under a *previous recoupment law or this Subdivision (except this section).
- (3) If because of subsection (2) the notional entity's assessable income for an income year (the assessment year) would include an amount under this Subdivision (the assessable amount), the amount reverses in the assessment year the deductions for the loss or outgoing, in accordance with the rules in subsection (5).
- (4) The assessable income of each deducting entity for the assessment year includes the total amounts (if any) by which that entity's

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 20-100

actual deductions for the loss or outgoing are reversed in that income year.

- (5) Deductions for the loss or outgoing are reversed in the assessment year as follows:
- (a) the amounts by which deductions are reversed total the assessable amount (unless all the deductions have been reversed);
 - (b) a deduction for an income year is not reversed until all deductions for earlier income years have been reversed;
 - (c) a deduction is not reversed in the assessment year to the extent that it has already been reversed in an earlier year;
 - (d) if each of 2 or more entities can deduct an amount for the loss or outgoing for the same income year, those deductions are reversed in the assessment year by amounts proportionate to the amounts of the deductions.

Subdivision 20-B—Disposal of a car for which lease payments have been deducted

Guide to Subdivision 20-B

20-100 What this Subdivision is about

This Subdivision reverses the effect of deductions for lease payments for a car leased to you (or to your associate), but only if you make a profit by disposing of the car after acquiring it from the lessor. The smallest of these amounts is included in your assessable income:

- your profit on the disposal;
- the total deductible lease payments for the period of the lease;

Disposals of interests in a car: special rules apply

20-160 Disposal of an interest in a car

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

20-105 Map of this Subdivision

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 20-110

The usual case

20-110 Disposal of a leased car for profit

- (1) Your assessable income includes the *profit you make on disposing of a *car if:
- (a) the car was designed mainly for carrying passengers; and
 - (b) the car was leased to you and has been leased to no-one else; and
 - (c) you or another entity can deduct for the income year any of the lease payments paid or payable by you, or have deducted or can deduct any of them for an earlier income year, under this Act; and
 - (d) you acquired the car from the lessor.

Note 1: Even if subsection (1) does not apply, an amount may still be included in your assessable income:

- under section 20-125 (which deals with more complicated cases that may involve your associate); or
- if you disposed of an interest in a car (rather than the car itself): see section 20-160.

Note 2: In some cases you do not include an amount in your assessable income:

- if there has been an earlier disposal of the car for market value: see section 20-135; or
- if you inherited the car: see section 20-145; or
- if the car was let on hire in the circumstances set out in section 20-155.

- (2) However, the amount included cannot exceed the smaller of these limits:
- (a) the total lease payments for the lease that you or another entity have deducted or can deduct under this Act for an income year;
 - (b) the amount of *notional depreciation for the lease period.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 20-115

Note 1: If, because of more than one lease of the car, there is more than one way to work out the amount to be included, you only include the largest amount: see section 20-130.

Note 2: In some cases you reduce the amount to be included:

- if there has been an earlier disposal of the car, or of an interest in it: see section 20-140; or
- if another provision requires you to include an amount because of the disposal: see section 20-150.

- (3) You increase those limits if you have previously leased the *car from the same lessor, or from an *associate of that lessor.

You increase the first limit by the total lease payments for each previous lease of that kind that you or another entity have deducted or can deduct under this Act for an income year.

You increase the second limit by the amount of *notional depreciation for the period of each previous lease of that kind.

20-115 Working out the profit on the disposal

- (1) The profit on the disposal is the amount by which the *consideration receivable for the disposal exceeds:

- the amount it cost you to acquire the *car;

plus:

- any capital expenditure you incurred on the car after acquiring it.

- (2) The consideration receivable is worked out using this table:

Consideration receivable for the disposal of the car
Item	In this situation:	the consideration receivable is:
1	you sell the *car for an amount specific to it	the proceeds of the sale, less the expenses of the sale

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 20-120

Consideration receivable for the disposal of the car
Item	In this situation:	the consideration receivable is:
2	you sell the *car with other property without a specific amount being allocated to it	the part of the total proceeds of the sale that is reasonably attributable to the car less the part of the reasonably attributable expenses of the sale
3	you trade the *car in and buy another car	the value of the trade-in, plus any other consideration you receive
4	you sell the *car and another entity buys another car	the amount by which the cost of the other car is reduced by the sale, plus any other consideration you receive
5	you dispose of the *car to an insurer because it is lost or destroyed	the amount or value received or receivable under the insurance policy

- (3) However, if the disposal of the *car is a *taxable supply, the consideration receivable does not include an amount equal to the *GST payable on the supply.

20-120 Meaning of notional depreciation

This is how to work out the notional depreciation for a lease period:

Method statement

Step 1. Compare:

- the *car's *cost to the lessor for the purposes of Subdivision 40-C (which is about working out the cost of *depreciating assets);

with:

- the car's *termination value for the purposes of section 40-300 when the lessor disposed of it.

Step 2. If the car's cost exceeds the car's termination value, multiply the excess by:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 20-125

	- the number of days in the lease period; divided by: - the number of days the lessor owned the car.
Step 3.	The result is the notional depreciation for the lease period.
Step 4.	If the car's cost does not exceed the car's termination value, the notional depreciation for the lease period is zero.

Note 1: The notional depreciation for the lease period represents:

- the amount you could have deducted for the car's decline in value if, instead of leasing it, you had owned it and used it solely for the purpose of producing assessable income for that period;

adjusted by:

- the balancing adjustment you would have made if you had disposed of the car at the end of that period.

Note 2: The car's cost to the lessor is worked out differently if the lessor acquired it in the 1996-97 income year or an earlier income year: see section 20-105 of the Income Tax (Transitional Provisions) Act 1997.

Note 3: The car's termination value is worked out differently if the lessor disposed of it in the 1996-97 income year or an earlier income year: see section 20-110 of the Income Tax (Transitional Provisions) Act 1997.

The associate case

20-125 Disposal of a leased car for profit

- (1) Your assessable income includes the *profit you make on disposing of a *car if:
- (a) section 20-110 does not include an amount in your assessable income because of the disposal; and
 - (b) the car was designed mainly for carrying passengers; and
 - (c) the car was leased to you or your *associate; and

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 20-125

- (d) you, your associate or another entity can deduct for the income year any of the lease payments paid or payable by the lessee, or have deducted or can deduct any of them for an earlier income year, under this Act; and
- (e) either:
 - (i) you, your associate, or entities including you or your associate, acquired the car from the lessor; or
 - (ii) another entity acquired the car from the lessor under an *arrangement that enabled you or your associate to acquire the car.

Note 1: Even if subsection (1) does not apply, an amount may be included in your assessable income if you disposed of an interest in a car (rather than the car itself): see section 20-160.

Note 2: In some cases you do not include an amount in your assessable income:

- if there has been an earlier disposal of the car for market value: see section 20-135; or
- if you inherited the car: see section 20-145; or
- if the car was let on hire in the circumstances set out in section 20-155.

- (2) However, the amount included cannot exceed the smallest of these limits:
 - (a) the total lease payments for the lease that you, your *associate or another entity have deducted or can deduct under this Act for an income year;
 - (b) the amount of *notional depreciation for the lease period;
 - (c) if an entity other than you, or if entities including you, acquired the *car from the lessor—the amount by which the *consideration receivable for the disposal of the car by you exceeds the total of:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 20-125

- (i) the car's cost to that entity, or those entities; and
- (ii) any capital expenditure that entity, or any of those entities, incurred on the car after that acquisition and before you acquired it.

Note 1: If, because of more than one lease of the car, there is more than one way to work out the amount to be included, you only include the largest amount: see section 20-130.

Note 2: In some cases you reduce the amount to be included:

- if there has been an earlier disposal of the car, or of an interest in it: see section 20-140; or
- if another provision requires you to include an amount because of the disposal: see section 20-150.

Example: Your associate leases a car for 5 years and then acquires it from the lessor for $4,000. Your associate sells it to you for $3,000. You sell it for $10,000.

Your profit is $10,000 (the consideration receivable) less $3,000 (the car's cost to you) = $7,000.

The first 2 limits on the amount to be included in your assessable income are $9,000 (total deductible lease payments for the lease) and $8,000 (notional depreciation for the lease period).

Since your associate acquired the car from the lessor, the third limit is $10,000 (the consideration receivable by you) less $4,000 (the car's cost to the associate) = $6,000.

The amount you include in your assessable income cannot exceed the smallest of the limits. So, you do not include your profit of $7,000. Instead, you include $6,000 (the smallest of the limits).

- (3) You increase the first 2 limits if you, or your associate, have previously leased the *car from the same lessor, or from an associate of that lessor.

You increase the first limit by the total lease payments for each previous lease of that kind that you, your *associate or another entity have deducted or can deduct under this Act for an income year.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 20-130

You increase the second limit by the amount of *notional depreciation for the period of each previous lease of that kind.

Successive leases

20-130 Successive leases

If, because of 2 or more leases of the *car, there are different amounts that could be included in your assessable income because of the disposal, only the largest of those amounts is included.

Previous disposals of the car

20-135 No amount included if earlier disposal for market value

You do not include an amount in your assessable income because of the disposal if, after the lessor disposed of the *car and before you disposed of it, an entity other than you disposed of the car and:

- (a) the *consideration receivable for that disposal was at least the *market value of the car at the time of that disposal; or
- (b) because of that disposal, that market value was included, or an amount worked out using that market value was included, in the entity's assessable income under this Act.

20-140 Reducing the amount to be included if there has been an earlier disposal

Each limit on the amount to be included in your assessable income because of your disposal of the *car is reduced if, after the lease period began and before your disposal, the car, or an interest in it, was disposed of in one of these situations:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 20-140

Reducing each limit on the amount to be included
Item	In this situation:	reduce each limit by:
1	Section 20-110 or 20-125 included an amount in your assessable income in respect of such an earlier disposal by you	that amount
2	Section 20-110 or 20-125 included an amount in another entity's assessable income in respect of such an earlier disposal by the other entity	that amount
3	Section 20-110 or 20-125 would have included an amount in your assessable income in respect of such an earlier disposal by you but for the operation of section 20-145	that amount
4	Section 20-110 or 20-125 would have included an amount in another entity's assessable income in respect of such an earlier disposal by the other entity but for the operation of section 20-145	that amount
5	Section 20-150 reduced the amount to be included in your assessable income in respect of such an earlier disposal by you	the amount of the reduction
6	Section 20-150 reduced the amount to be included in another entity's assessable income in respect of such an earlier disposal by the other entity	the amount of the reduction

Examples: Your associate leases a car for 5 years and then acquires it. Your associate disposes of it to you and section 20-110 includes $500 in your associate's assessable income.

You later dispose of the car.

In working out the amount to include in your assessable income for your disposal, you can reduce each limit in subsection 20-125(2) by $500 because the disposal by your associate occurred after the lease period began.

Contrast this case:

You lease a car for 5 years and then acquire it. You dispose of it to another entity and section 20-110 includes $1,000 in your assessable income.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Chapter 2 Liability rules of general application

Part 2-1 Assessable income

Division 20 Amounts included to reverse the effect of past deductions

Section 20-145

You lease the car from that entity for 2 years and then acquire it. You later dispose of it.

In working out the amount to include in your assessable income in respect of the second lease, you cannot reduce each limit in subsection 20-110(2) by $1,000 because the first disposal did not occur after the start of that lease.

Note: If the earlier disposal occurred in the 1996-97 income year or an earlier income year, each limit may be able to be reduced by a further amount: see section 20-115 of the Income Tax (Transitional Provisions) Act 1997.

Miscellaneous rules

20-145 No amount included if you inherited the car

You do not include an amount in your assessable income because of the disposal if you inherited the *car.

20-150 Reducing the amount to be included if another provision requires you to include an amount for the disposal

The amount to be included in your assessable income because of the disposal is reduced by any amount that another provision of this Act (except sections 40-285 and 40-370) requires you to include in your assessable income because of the disposal.

Note: sections 40-285 and 40-370 are about including an amount after making a balancing adjustment on the disposal of a car.

20-155 Exception for particular cars taken on hire

This Subdivision does not apply to these kinds of leases:

- (a) letting a *car on hire under a *hire purchase agreement; or
- (b) letting a *car on hire under an agreement of a kind ordinarily entered into by people who take cars on hire intermittently on an hourly, daily, weekly or monthly basis.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

20-157 Exception for small business entities

This Subdivision does not apply to you if, at any time in the income year in which you disposed of the *car, it was allocated to a pool of yours under Division 328.

Disposals of interests in a car: special rules apply

20-160 Disposal of an interest in a car

- (1) This Subdivision applies to the disposal of an interest in a *car in almost the same way as it does to the disposal of the car itself. The differences are set out below.
- (2) Your assessable income includes so much of your *profit on the disposal as is reasonable. The limits in subsections 20-110(2) and 20-125(2) do not apply.
- (3) The cost of the interest to you is taken to be a reasonable amount.
- (4) Sections 20-135 and 20-140 do not apply to the disposal.
 - Note 1: Section 20-135 says that you do not include an amount if there has been an earlier disposal of the car for market value.
 - Note 2: Section 20-140 allows you to reduce the amount to be included if there has been an earlier disposal of the car.
- (5) Section 20-145 applies to the disposal if you inherited either the interest or the *car itself.
 - Note: Section 20-145 says that you do not include an amount if you inherited the car.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

25-125	COVID-19 tests
25-130	Standard deduction for work-related expenses

Operative provisions

25-5 Tax-related expenses

- (1) You can deduct expenditure you incur to the extent that it is for:
- (a) managing your *tax affairs; or
 - (b) complying with an obligation imposed on you by a
*Commonwealth law, insofar as that obligation relates to the *tax affairs of an entity; or
 - (ca) a penalty under Subdivision 162-D of the *GST Act; or
 - (cb) levy under the Major Bank Levy Act 2017; or
 - (d) obtaining a valuation in accordance with section 30-212 or 31-15; or
 - (e) managing your *Australian GloBE tax affairs; or
 - (f) complying with an obligation imposed on you by a
*Commonwealth law, insofar as that obligation relates to the Australian GloBE tax affairs of an entity.

Note 1: To find out whether a trustee of a deceased estate can deduct expenditure under this section, see subsection 69(7) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.

Note 2: If you receive an amount as recoupment of the expenditure, the amount may be included in your assessable income: see Subdivision 20-A.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-5

No deduction for certain expenditure

- (2) You cannot deduct under subsection (1):
- (a) *tax; or
 - (b) an amount withheld or payable under Part 2-5 or Part 2-10 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953; or
 - (c) expenditure for *borrowing money (including payments of interest) to pay an amount covered by paragraph (a) or (b); or
 - (d) expenditure for a matter relating to the commission (or possible commission) of an offence against an *Australian law or a *foreign law; or
 - (e) a fee or commission for advice about the operation of a *Commonwealth law relating to taxation, unless that advice is provided by a *recognised tax adviser.

No deduction for expenditure excluded from general deductions

- (3) You cannot deduct expenditure under subsection (1) to the extent that a provision of this Act (except section 8-1) expressly prevents or limits your deducting it under section 8-1 (about general deductions). It does not matter whether the provision specifically refers to section 8-1.

No deduction for capital expenditure

- (4) You cannot deduct capital expenditure under subsection (1). However, for this purpose, expenditure is not capital expenditure merely because the *tax affairs or *Australian GloBE tax affairs concerned relate to matters of a capital nature.

Example: Under this section, you can deduct expenditure you incur in applying for a private ruling on whether you can depreciate an item of property.

Use of property taken to be for income producing purpose

- (5) Under some provisions of this Act it is important to decide whether you used property for the *purpose of producing assessable

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-5

income. For provisions of that kind, your use of property is taken to be for that purpose insofar as you use the property for:

- (a) managing your *tax affairs; or
- (b) complying with an obligation imposed on you by a *Commonwealth law, insofar as that obligation relates to the *tax affairs of another entity.

Example: You buy a computer to prepare your tax returns. The expenditure you incur in buying the computer is capital expenditure and cannot be deducted under this section.

However, to the extent that you use the computer in preparing your income tax return, you will be able to deduct the decline in value of your computer under Division 40. That is because, under this subsection, the computer is property that you are taken to use for the purpose of producing assessable income.

- (6) If another provision of this Act expressly provides that a particular use of property is not taken to be for the *purpose of producing assessable income, that provision overrides subsection (5).

Expenditure by trustee of deceased estate

- (8) If:
 - (a) after you die, the trustee of your deceased estate incurs expenditure; and
 - (b) had you incurred the expenditure before you died, you could have deducted it under subsection (1);for the purposes of assessing the trustee for the income year in which you died, the expenditure is a deduction under that subsection.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-10

25-10 Repairs

- (1) You can deduct expenditure you incur for repairs to premises (or part of premises) or a *depreciating asset that you held or used solely for the *purpose of producing assessable income.

Property held or used partly for that purpose

- (2) If you held or used the property only partly for that purpose, you can deduct so much of the expenditure as is reasonable in the circumstances.

No deduction for capital expenditure

- (3) You cannot deduct capital expenditure under this section.

25-15 Amount paid for lease obligation to repair

You can deduct an amount that you pay for failing to comply with a lease obligation to make repairs to premises if you use or have used the premises for the *purpose of producing assessable income.

Note: The amount is assessable income of the entity to which you pay it: either as ordinary income under section 6-5 or because it is included by section 15-25.

25-20 Lease document expenses

- (1) You can deduct expenditure you incur for preparing, registering or stamping:
- (a) a lease of property; or
 - (b) an assignment or surrender of a lease of property;
- if you have used or will use the property solely for the *purpose of producing assessable income.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-25

Property used partly for that purpose

- (2) If you have used, or will use, the leased property only partly for that purpose, you can deduct the expenditure to the extent that you have used, or will use, the leased property for that purpose.

25-25 Borrowing expenses

- (1) You can deduct expenditure you incur for borrowing* money, to the extent that you use the money for the purpose* of producing assessable income. In most cases the deduction is spread over the period* of the loan.

For the cases where the deduction is not spread, see subsection (6).

Note: Your deductions under this section may be reduced if any of your commercial debts have been forgiven in the income year: see Subdivision 245-E.

Income year when money used solely for the purpose of producing assessable income

- (2) You can deduct for an income year the maximum amount worked out under subsection (4) if you use the borrowed* money during that income year solely for the purpose* of producing assessable income.

Example: In 1997-98 you borrow $100,000 and incur expenditure of $1,500 for the borrowing. You use the money to buy a house. Throughout 1998-99 you rent the house to a tenant. You can deduct for the expenditure for 1998-99 the maximum amount worked out under subsection (4).

Income year when borrowed money used partly for that purpose

- (3) If you use the money only partly for that purpose during that income year, you can deduct the proportion of that maximum amount that is appropriate having regard to the extent that you used the borrowed* money for that purpose.

Section 25-25

Note: You cannot deduct anything for that income year if you do not use the money for that purpose at all during that income year.

Maximum deduction for an income year

- (4) You work out as follows the maximum amount that you can deduct for the expenditure for an income year:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the remaining expenditure as follows:

- For the income year in which the *period of the loan begins, it is the amount of the expenditure.
- For a later income year, it is the amount of the expenditure reduced by the maximum amount that you can deduct for the expenditure for each earlier income year.

Step 2. Work out the remaining loan period as follows:

- For the income year in which the *period of the loan begins, it is the period of the loan (as determined at the end of the income year).
- For a later income year, it is the period from the start of the income year until the end of the period of the loan (as determined at the end of the income year).

Step 3. Divide the remaining expenditure by the number of days in the remaining loan period.

Step 4. Multiply the result from Step 3 by the number of days in the remaining loan period that are in the income year.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-25

Example: To continue the example in subsection (2): suppose the original period of the loan is 4 years starting on 1 September 1997. What is the maximum amount you can deduct for the expenditure for 1997-98?

Applying the method statement:

After Step 1: the remaining expenditure is $1,500 (the amount of the expenditure).

After Step 2: the remaining loan period is 4 years from 1 September 1997 (1,461 days).

After Step 3: the result is $1,500 divided by 1,461 = $1.03.

After Step 4: the result is $1.03 multiplied by 302 days = $310.06.

Suppose you repay the loan early, on 31 December 1998. What is the maximum amount you can deduct for the expenditure for 1998-99?

Applying the method statement:

After Step 1: the remaining expenditure is $1,500 (the amount of the expenditure) reduced by $310.06 (the maximum amount you can deduct for 1997-98) = $1,189.94.

After Step 2: the remaining loan period is the period from 1 July 1998 to 31 December 1998 (183 days).

After Step 3: the result is $1,189.94 divided by 183 days = $6.50.

After Step 4: the result is $6.50 multiplied by 183 days = $1,189.94.

Meaning of period of the loan

- (5) The period of the loan is the shortest of these periods:
- (a) the period of the loan as specified in the original loan contract;
 - (b) the period starting on the first day on which the money was borrowed and ending on the day the loan is repaid;
 - (c) 5 years starting on the first day on which the money was borrowed.

When deduction not spread

- (6) If the total of the following is $100 or less:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-30

- (a) each amount of expenditure you incur in an income year for *borrowing money you use during that income year solely for the *purpose of producing assessable income;
 - (b) for each amount of expenditure you incur in that income year for borrowing money you use during that income year only partly for that purpose—the proportion of that amount that is appropriate having regard to the extent that you use the money during that income year for that purpose;
- you can deduct for the income year:
- (c) each amount covered by paragraph (a); and
 - (d) each proportion covered by paragraph (b).

25-30 Expenses of discharging a mortgage

Mortgage for borrowed money

- (1) You can deduct expenditure you incur to discharge a mortgage that you gave as security for the repayment of money that you *borrowed if you used the money solely for the *purpose of producing assessable income.

Mortgage for property bought

- (2) You can deduct expenditure you incur to discharge a mortgage that you gave as security for the payment of the whole or part of the purchase price of property that you bought if you used the property solely for the *purpose of producing assessable income.

Money or property used partly for that purpose

- (3) If you used the money you *borrowed, or the property you bought, only partly for the *purpose of producing assessable income, you can deduct the expenditure to the extent that you used the money or property for that purpose.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-35

No deduction for payments of principal or interest

- (4) You cannot deduct payments of principal or interest under this section.

25-35 Bad debts

- (1) You can deduct a debt (or part of a debt) that you write off as bad in the income year if:
- (a) it was included in your assessable income for the income year or for an earlier income year; or
 - (b) it is in respect of money that you lent in the ordinary course of your *business of lending money.

Note: If a bad debt is in respect of a payment that is required to be made under a qualifying security (within the meaning of Division 16E of Part III of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936): see subsection 63(1A) of that Act.

Writing off a debt you have bought

- (2) You can deduct a debt that you write off as bad in the income year if you bought the debt in the ordinary course of your *business of lending money. However, you cannot deduct more than the expenditure you incurred in buying the debt.

Writing off part of a debt you have bought

- (3) You can deduct a part of a debt if:
- (a) you write off that part as bad in the income year; and
 - (b) you bought the debt in the ordinary course of your *business of lending money.
- (4) However, the maximum that you can deduct under subsection (3) for one or more income years is the amount (if any) by which:
- the expenditure you incurred in buying the debt; exceeds:
 - so much of the debt as has not yet been written off as bad.

Section 25-35

Limit on deductions for bad debts under leases of luxury cars

- (4A) There is a limit to how much you can deduct under this section for debts you write off that relate to *luxury car lease payments that have become or will become liable to be made under a lease of a *car to which Division 242 (about luxury car leases) applies.
- (4B) The most you can deduct for an income year is:
- the interest for the notional loan you are taken to have made to the lessee;
- reduced by:
- each amount that you have deducted, or can deduct, for an earlier income year under this section (or section 63 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936) for debts relating to *luxury car lease payments that have become or will become liable to be made under the lease.

Special rules affecting deductions under this section

- (5) The rules described in the table may affect your entitlement to deductions under this section, or may result in a deduction being reversed.

Provisions of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 are identified in normal text. The other provisions, in bold, are provisions of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.

Rules affecting deductions for bad debts
Item	For the rules about this situation:	See:
1	A company cannot deduct a bad debt if there has been a change in ownership or control of the company and the company has not satisfied the business continuity test.	Subdivisions 165-C and 166-C
2	A company cannot deduct a bad debt in various other cases that may involve trafficking in bad debts.	Subdivision 175-C and section 63D

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-40

Rules affecting deductions for bad debts
Item	For the rules about this situation:	See:
3	A deduction under this section is reduced if the debt is forgiven and the debtor and creditor are companies under common ownership and agree for the creditor to forgo the deduction to a specified extent.	section 245-90
4	If you receive an amount as recoupment of a bad debt that you can deduct under this section, the amount may be included in your assessable income.	Subdivision 20-A
5	Certain trusts cannot deduct a bad debt if there has been a change in ownership or control or an abnormal trading in their units	Divisions 266 and 267 in Schedule 2F
6	An entity that used to be a member of a consolidated group or MEC group can deduct a bad debt that used to be owed to a member of the group only if certain conditions are met	Subdivisions 709-D and 719-I
Note:	Subsections 230-180(3), (5) and (6) and 230-195(3), (5) and (6) provide that in certain circumstances a deduction for a loss in relation to a financial arrangement is to be treated, for the purposes of this Act, as a deduction of a bad debt. The rules referred to in this subsection apply to that deduction.

25-40 Loss from profit-making undertaking or plan

- (1) You can deduct a loss arising from the carrying on or carrying out of a profit-making undertaking or plan if any profit from that plan would have been included in your assessable income by section 15-15 (which is about profit-making undertakings and plans).

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-45

When section does not apply

- (2) You cannot deduct a loss under subsection (1) if the loss arises in respect of the sale of property acquired on or after 20 September 1985.

Note: If you sell property you acquired before 20 September 1985 for profit-making by sale, you may be able to deduct a loss on the sale: see section 52 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.

Notice to Commissioner

- (3) You can deduct a loss under subsection (1), insofar as it arises in respect of property, only if:
- (a) you notified the Commissioner that you acquired the property for the purpose of profit-making by sale or for the carrying on or carrying out of any profit-making undertaking or plan (however described); or
 - (b) the Commissioner is satisfied that you acquired the property for either of those purposes.

When notice must have been given

- (4) The notice must have been given at or before the time you lodged your ^{*}income tax return:
- (a) for the income year in which you acquired the property; or
 - (b) if you were not required to lodge an income tax return for that income year—for the first income year after that income year for which you were required to lodge one.

25-45 Loss by theft etc.

You can deduct a loss in respect of money if:

- (a) you discover the loss in the income year; and
- (b) the loss was caused by theft, stealing, embezzlement, larceny, defalcation or misappropriation by your employee or ^{*}agent

^{*}To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-47

(other than an individual you employ solely for private purposes); and

- (c) the money was included in your assessable income for the income year, or for an earlier income year.

Note: If you receive an amount as recoupment of the loss, the amount may be included in your assessable income: see Subdivision 20-A.

25-47 Misappropriation where a balancing adjustment event occurs

- (1) You can deduct an amount if:
- (a) a *balancing adjustment event occurs for a *depreciating asset you *held; and
 - (b) your employee or *agent misappropriates (whether by theft, embezzlement, larceny or otherwise) all or part of the amount applicable to you under:
 - (i) item 8 of the table in subsection 40-300(2); or
 - (ii) item 1, 3, 4 or 6 of the table in subsection 40-305(1);in relation to the balancing adjustment event.
- Note 1: The amount applicable to you under subsection 40-300(2) or 40-305(1) may be the market value of an asset or of a non-cash benefit.
- Note 2: If you receive an amount as recoupment of the amount misappropriated, the amount may be included in your assessable income: see Subdivision 20-A.
- (2) The amount you can deduct is so much of the amount misappropriated as represents an amount applicable to you under item 8 of the table in subsection 40-300(2) or item 1, 3, 4 or 6 of the table in subsection 40-305(1) in relation to the *balancing adjustment event.
- (3) You can deduct the amount for the income year in which the misappropriation happens.
- (4) You must reduce the amount you can deduct under this section if your deductions for the asset have been reduced under section 40-25 because of use for a purpose other than a *taxable purpose. The reduction is by the same proportion you reduce the balancing adjustment amount for the asset under section 40-290.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-50

- (4A) You must further reduce the amount you can deduct under this section if your deductions for the asset have been reduced under section 40-27 (about second-hand assets in residential property). The reduction is by the same proportion you reduce the balancing adjustment amount for the asset under section 40-291.
- (5) Section 170 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 does not prevent the amendment of an assessment for the purposes of giving effect to this section for an income year if:
- (a) you discover the misappropriation after you lodged your *income tax return for the income year; and
 - (b) the amendment is made at any time during the period of 4 years starting immediately after you discover the misappropriation.

25-50 Payments of pensions, gratuities or retiring allowances

- (1) You can deduct a payment of a pension, gratuity or retiring allowance that you make to:
- (a) an employee; or
 - (b) a former employee; or
 - (c) a dependant of an employee or a former employee.
- (2) However, you can deduct it only to the extent that it is made in good faith in consideration of the past services of the employee, or former employee, in any *business that you carried on for the purpose of gaining or producing assessable income.
- (3) You cannot deduct a payment under this section if you can deduct it under any other provision of this Act.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

25-55 Payments to associations

- (1) You can deduct a payment you make for membership of a trade, business or professional association.

Note: Alternatively, you can deduct the expense under section 8-1 (which is about general deductions) if you satisfy the requirements of that section.

Maximum amount—$42

- (2) However, $42 is the maximum amount you can deduct under this section for the payments that you make in the income year to any one association.

If you deduct under section 8-1

- (3) If you deduct a payment under section 8-1 (which is about general deductions) instead of this section:
- (a) the payment does not count towards the $42 limit; and
 - (b) the amount that you can deduct for the payment is not limited to $42.

25-60 Parliament election expenses

- (1) You can deduct expenditure you incur in contesting an election for membership of:
- (a) the Parliament of the Commonwealth; or
 - (b) the Parliament of a State; or
 - (c) the Legislative Assembly for the Australian Capital Territory; or
 - (d) the Legislative Assembly of the Northern Territory of Australia.

Note 1: Entertainment expenses are excluded: see section 25-70.

Note 2: If you receive an amount as recoupment of the expenditure, the amount may be included in your assessable income: see Subdivision 20-A.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-65

25-65 Local government election expenses

- (1) You can deduct expenditure you incur in contesting an election for membership of a *local governing body, but you cannot deduct more than $1,000 per election. You deduct the expenditure for the income year in which you incur it.
- (2) However, you can deduct more than the $1,000 limit if:
 - (a) you have received an amount as *recoupment of the expenditure; and
 - (b) some or all of that amount is included in your assessable income for an income year; and
 - (c) the total of your deductions for the election would be less than the $1,000 limit if you disregarded so much (the assessed recoupment) of the expenditure as equals the amount so included in your assessable income.

In that case:

- (d) the assessed recoupment is disregarded in applying the $1,000 limit; and
- (e) the further amount that you can deduct because of paragraph (d) is deducted for the income year referred to in paragraph (b).

Example: Chris is elected to the Bunyip Shire Council. In the 2007-08 income year he incurs expenditure of $1,200 in contesting the election, of which he deducts $1,000 (the limit under subsection (1)).

In 2008-09, Chris receives $360 as an assessable recoupment of the expenditure. $300 of that is included in his assessable income by section 20-35 (as extended by section 20-50).

Because of the assessable recoupment, $300 of the expenditure is disregarded under paragraph (2)(d) in applying the $1,000 limit. As a result, Chris's deductions are treated as being only $700, which is less than the limit. This does not affect his original deduction for 2007-2008, but it means he can deduct the previously undeducted $200, for 2008-09 (see paragraph (2)(e)).

This triggers a further application of section 20-35 (as extended by section 20-50) to include the remaining $60 of the assessable

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-70

recoupment in Chris's assessable income for 2008-09. His total deductions (net of recoupment included in assessable income) come to $840, which is the same as his original expenditure (net of recoupment).

Note: An amount you receive as recoupment of expenditure may be included in your assessable income as an assessable recoupment under Subdivision 20-A, as ordinary income under section 6-5 or as statutory income under some other provision.

25-70 Deduction for election expenses does not extend to entertainment

- (1) To the extent that you incur expenditure in respect of providing *entertainment, you cannot deduct it under section 25-60 or 25-65.
- (2) However, subsection (1) does not stop you deducting expenditure to the extent that you incur it in respect of:
 - (a) providing *entertainment that is available to the public generally; or
 - (b) providing food or drink to yourself, unless it would be concluded that you have a purpose of enabling or facilitating *entertainment to be provided to someone else.

25-75 Rates and land taxes on premises used to produce mutual receipts

- (1) An entity can deduct these amounts it pays for premises:
 - (a) rates which are annually assessed;
 - (b) land tax imposed under a *State law or *Territory law.But only if it uses the premises:
 - (c) for the purpose of producing mutual receipts; or
 - (d) in carrying on a *business for the purpose of producing mutual receipts; or
 - (e) for the purpose of producing amounts to which section 59-35 applies (amounts that would be mutual receipts but for prohibition on distributions to members or issue of MCIs); or

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-85

- (f) in carrying on a *business for the purpose of producing amounts to which section 59-35 applies.

Note: If the entity receives an amount as recoupment of the rates or land tax, the amount may be included in its assessable income: see Subdivision 20-A

When premises used only for deductible purposes

- (2) The entity can deduct the whole of the rates or land tax if it uses the premises only in one or more of these ways:
- (a) for the purpose of producing mutual receipts;
 - (b) in carrying on a *business for the purpose of producing mutual receipts;
 - (c) for the *purpose of producing assessable income.

When premises used partly for deductible purposes

- (3) If the entity uses the premises partly in one or more of the ways referred to in subsection (2) and partly in some other way, it can deduct the rates or land tax to the extent that it uses the premises in one or more of the ways referred to in that subsection.

No deduction under section 8-1

- (4) The entity cannot deduct the rates or land tax under section 8-1 (which is about general deductions).

25-85 Certain returns in respect of debt interests

- (1) This section deals with a *return that an entity pays or provides on a *debt interest.
- (2) The *return is not prevented from being a *general deduction for an income year under section 8-1 merely because:
- (a) the return is *contingent on aspects of the economic performance (whether past, current or future) of:
 - (i) the entity or a part of the entity's activities; or

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-85

- (ii) a *connected entity of the entity or a part of the activities of a connected entity of the entity; or
 - (b) the return secures a permanent or enduring benefit for the entity or a connected entity of the entity.
- (3) If the *return is a *dividend, the entity can deduct the return to the extent to which it would have been a *general deduction under section 8-1 if:
 - (a) the payment of the return were the incurring by the entity of a liability to pay the same amount as interest; and
 - (b) that interest were incurred in respect of the finance raised by the entity and in respect of which the return was paid or provided; and
 - (c) the *debt interest retained its character as a debt interest for the purposes of subsection (2).
- (4) Subsections (2) and (3) do not apply to a *return to the extent to which it would be a *general deduction under section 8-1 apart from this section.
- (4A) Subsections (2) and (3) do not apply to a *return on a *debt interest that is a *Division 230 financial arrangement.
- (5) Subject to regulations made for the purposes of subsection (6), subsections (2) and (3) do not apply to the return to the extent to which the annually compounded internal rate of return exceeds the *benchmark rate of return for the interest increased by 150 basis points.
- (6) The regulations may provide that subsection (5) applies in the circumstances specified in the regulations as if the reference to 150 basis points were a reference to a greater or lesser number of basis points.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-90

25-90 Deduction relating to foreign non-assessable non-exempt income

An *Australian entity can deduct an amount of loss or outgoing from its assessable income for an income year if:

- (a) the amount is incurred by the entity in deriving income from a foreign source; and
- (b) the income is *non-assessable non-exempt income under section 768-5, or section 23AI or 23AK of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936; and
- (c) the amount is a cost in relation to a *debt interest issued by the entity that is covered by paragraph (1)(a) of the definition of debt deduction.

Note: This section does not apply to a Division 230 financial arrangement.

25-95 Deduction for work in progress amounts

- (1) You can deduct a *work in progress amount that you pay for the income year in which you pay it to the extent that, as at the end of that income year:
 - (a) a recoverable debt has arisen in respect of the completion or partial completion of the work to which the amount related; or
 - (b) you reasonably expect a recoverable debt to arise in respect of the completion or partial completion of that work within the period of 12 months after the amount was paid.
- (2) You can deduct the remainder (if any) of the *work in progress amount for the following income year.
- (3) An amount is a work in progress amount to the extent that:
 - (a) an entity agrees to pay the amount to another entity (the recipient); and
 - (b) the amount can be identified as being in respect of work (but not goods) that has been partially performed by the recipient

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-100

for a third entity but not yet completed to the stage where a recoverable debt has arisen in respect of the completion or partial completion of the work.

- (4) An amount does not stop being a work in progress amount merely because it is paid after a recoverable debt has arisen in respect of the completion or partial completion of the work to which the amount related.

25-100 Travel between workplaces

When a deduction is allowed

- (1) If you are an individual, you can deduct a *transport expense to the extent that it is incurred in your *travel between workplaces.

Transport expense

- (1A) A transport expense is a loss or outgoing to do with transport (including the decline in value of a *depreciating asset used in connection with transport) but does not include:
- (a) a loss or outgoing for accommodation or for food or drink; or
 - (b) expenditure incidental to transport.

Travel between workplaces

- (2) Your travel between workplaces is travel directly between 2 places, to the extent that:
- (a) while you were at the first place, you were:
 - (i) engaged in activities to gain or produce your assessable income; or
 - (ii) engaged in activities in the course of carrying on a *business for the purpose of gaining or producing your assessable income; and
 - (b) the purpose of your travel to the second place was to:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-110

- (i) engage in activities to gain or produce your assessable income; or
 - (ii) engage in activities in the course of carrying on a business for the purpose of gaining or producing your assessable income;
- and you engaged in those activities while you were at the second place.
- (3) Travel between 2 places is not travel between workplaces if one of the places you are travelling between is a place at which you reside.
- (4) Travel between 2 places is not travel between workplaces if, at the time of your travel to the second place:
 - (a) the arrangement under which you gained or produced assessable income at the first place has ceased; or
 - (b) the *business in respect of which you engaged in activities at the first place has ceased.

No deduction for capital expenditure

- (5) You cannot deduct expenditure under subsection (1) to the extent that the expenditure is capital, or of a capital nature.

25-110 Capital expenditure to terminate lease etc.

- (1) You can deduct an amount for capital expenditure you incur to terminate a lease or licence (including an authority, permit or quota) that results in the termination of the lease or licence if the expenditure is incurred:
 - (a) in the course of carrying on a *business; or
 - (b) in connection with ceasing to carry on a business.
- (2) The amount you can deduct is 20% of the expenditure:
 - (a) for the income year in which the lease or licence is terminated; and

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

(b) for each of the next 4 income years.

Exceptions

- (3) You cannot deduct any amount for expenditure you incur to terminate a lease that, in accordance with *accounting standards, or statements of accounting concepts made by the Australian Accounting Standards Board, is classified as a finance lease.
- (4) If you incurred the expenditure under an *arrangement and:
- (a) there is at least one other party to the arrangement with whom you did not deal at *arm's length; and
 - (b) apart from this subsection, the amount of the expenditure would be more than the *market value of what it was for (assuming the termination did not occur and was never proposed to occur);
- the amount of expenditure you take into account is that market value.
- (5) You cannot deduct any amount for expenditure you incur to terminate a lease or licence if:
- (a) after the termination, you or an *associate of yours enters into another lease or licence with the same party or an associate of that party; and
 - (b) the other lease or licence is of the same kind as the original one.
- (6) You cannot deduct any amount for expenditure you incur to terminate a lease or licence to the extent that the expenditure is for the granting or receipt of another lease or licence in relation to the asset that was the subject of the original lease or licence.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-115

25-115 Deduction for payment of rent from land investment by operating entity to asset entity in relation to approved economic infrastructure facility

- (1) An entity that is an *operating entity in relation to a *cross staple arrangement can deduct an amount, for an income year, of *rent from land investment if:
 - (a) another entity derives or receives the amount from the operating entity:
 - (i) in the income year; and
 - (ii) on or after 27 March 2018; and
 - (b) the cross staple arrangement was entered into in relation to:
 - (i) a facility that is covered by section 12-439 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 at a time in the income year; or
 - (ii) an improvement to a facility that is covered by that section at a time in the income year; and
 - (c) the other entity is an *asset entity in relation to the cross staple arrangement; and
 - (d) apart from this subsection, the operating entity could otherwise deduct the amount under this Act; and
 - (e) the amount is *excepted MIT CSA income of the asset entity for the income year; and
 - (f) each entity that is a *stapled entity in relation to the cross staple arrangement has made a choice in accordance with subsection (3).
- (2) If the *asset entity is not a *managed investment trust in relation to the income year, for the purposes of paragraph (1)(e), treat it as a managed investment trust in relation to the income year.
- (3) An entity makes a choice in accordance with this subsection if:
 - (a) the entity makes the choice in the *approved form; and
 - (b) the entity makes the choice before:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-120

- (i) the start of the income year in which the asset is first put to use; or
 - (ii) a later time allowed by the Commissioner; and
 - (c) the entity gives the choice to the Commissioner within 60 days after the entity makes the choice.
- (4) The choice cannot be revoked.

25-120 Transitional—deduction for payment of rent from land investment by operating entity to asset entity

- (1) This section applies if the requirements in subsection 12-440(1) or (2) in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 are satisfied in relation to a *cross staple arrangement.
- (2) An entity that is an *operating entity in relation to the *cross staple arrangement can deduct, for an income year, an amount of *rent from land investment if:
 - (a) another entity derives or receives the amount from the operating entity at a time that:
 - (i) is in the income year; and
 - (ii) is on or after 27 March 2018; and
 - (iii) meets the requirements in subsection 12-440(4) of Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953; and
 - (b) the other entity is an *asset entity in relation to the cross staple arrangement; and
 - (c) apart from this subsection, the operating entity could otherwise deduct the amount under this Act; and
 - (d) the amount is *excepted MIT CSA income of the asset entity for the income year.
- (3) If the *asset entity is not a *managed investment trust in relation to the income year, for the purposes of paragraph (2)(d), treat it as a managed investment trust in relation to the income year.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-125

25-125 COVID-19 tests

- (1) You can deduct a loss or outgoing to the extent it is incurred in gaining or producing your assessable income if:
 - (a) you are an individual; and
 - (b) the loss or outgoing is incurred in respect of testing you for the novel coronavirus SARS-CoV-2 that causes COVID-19 using a test covered by subsection (3); and
 - (c) the purpose of testing you is to determine whether you may attend or remain at a place where you:
 - (i) engage in activities to gain or produce your assessable income; or
 - (ii) engage in activities in the course of carrying on a *business for the purpose of gaining or producing your assessable income.
- (2) However, you cannot deduct a loss or outgoing under this section to the extent that it is a loss or outgoing of capital, or of a capital nature.
- (3) This subsection covers a test that:
 - (a) is a polymerase chain reaction test; or
 - (b) is a therapeutic good (within the meaning of the Therapeutic Goods Act 1989) that:
 - (i) is included in the Australian Register of Therapeutic Goods maintained under section 9A of that Act; and
 - (ii) has an intended purpose, accepted in relation to that inclusion, that relates to the detection of the novel coronavirus SARS-CoV-2 that causes COVID-19.

25-130 Standard deduction for work-related expenses

- (1) You can deduct the amount provided by subsection (2) for an income year if:
 - (a) you are an individual; and

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-130

- (b) you are an Australian resident at any time during the income year; and
 - (c) you derive *assessable labour income in the income year.
- (2) The amount is the lesser of:
- (a) $1,000; and
 - (b) the total amount of your *assessable labour income for the income year;
- reduced, but not below zero, by the sum of the following amounts (if any):
- (c) subject to subsection (3), each of your deductions for the income year under section 8-1 (general deductions), to the extent that the loss or outgoing that gives rise to the deduction is incurred in gaining or producing your assessable labour income;
 - (d) each of your deductions for the income year under Division 28 (car expenses), to the extent that the deduction arises in respect of gaining or producing your assessable labour income;
 - (e) each of your deductions for the income year under section 25-100 (travel between workplaces), to the extent that either of the following is satisfied in relation to the deduction:
 - (i) while you were at the first place mentioned in paragraph 25-100(2)(a), you were engaged in activities to gain or produce your assessable labour income;
 - (ii) while you were at the second place mentioned in paragraph 25-100(2)(b), you were engaged in activities to gain or produce your assessable labour income;
 - (f) each of your deductions for the income year under any of the following provisions, to the extent that the deduction arises in respect of a *depreciating asset that is used for the purpose of gaining or producing your assessable labour income:
 - (i) section 25-10 (repairs);

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 25-130

- (ii) Subdivision 40-B (deducting amounts for depreciating assets);
 - (iii) Subdivision 40-D (balancing adjustments);
 - (g) each of your deductions under section 25-125 (COVID-19 tests) for the income year.
- (3) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(c), disregard each of your deductions under section 8-1 to the extent that the deduction is in respect of any of the following:
 - (a) an income protection insurance premium;
 - (b) a personal sickness insurance premium;
 - (c) an accident insurance premium;
 - (d) membership of a trade, business or professional association.
- (4) Your assessable labour income, for an income year, is each amount included in your assessable income for the income year from which an amount must be withheld (even if the amount is not withheld) under any of the following provisions in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953:
 - (a) section 12-35 (payment to employee);
 - (b) section 12-40 (payment to company director);
 - (c) section 12-45 (payment to office holder);
 - (d) section 12-47 (payment to religious practitioners);
 - (e) section 12-50 (return to work payment);
 - (f) Subdivision 12-C (payments for retirement or because of termination of employment);
 - (g) paragraph 12-110(1)(ca) (parental leave pay).

Operative provisions

26-5 Penalties

- (1) You cannot deduct under this Act:
 - (a) an amount (however described) payable, by way of penalty, under an Australian law* or a foreign law*; or
 - (b) an amount ordered by a court to be paid on the conviction of an entity for an offence against an Australian law* or a foreign law*.
- (1A) Without limiting paragraph (1)(a), you cannot deduct under this Act the general interest charge* or the shortfall interest charge*.
- (2) This section does not apply to an amount payable, by way of penalty, under Subdivision 162-D of the GST Act*.

Section 26-10

Note: See paragraph 25-5(1)(ca) for the deductibility of penalties that arise under Subdivision 162-D of the GST Act.

26-10 Leave payments

- (1) You cannot deduct under this Act a loss or outgoing for long service leave, annual leave, sick leave or other leave except:
 - (a) an amount paid in the income year to the individual to whom the leave relates (or, if that individual has died, to that individual's dependant or *legal personal representative); or
 - (b) an *accrued leave transfer payment that is made in the income year.
- (2) An accrued leave transfer payment is a payment that an entity makes:
 - (a) in respect of an individual's leave (some or all of which accrued while the entity was required to make payments in respect of the individual's leave, or leave the individual might take); and
 - (b) when the entity is no longer required (or is about to stop being required) to make payments in respect of such leave; and
 - (c) to another entity when the other entity has begun (or is about to begin) to be required to make payments in respect of such leave; and
 - (d) under (or for the purposes of facilitating the provisions of) an *Australian law, or an award, order, determination or industrial agreement under an *Australian law.

It does not matter whether the leave accrues to the individual as an employee or for some other reason.

Example: Your employee goes to a new employer. You pay the new employer $2,000 for the employee's unused long service leave because an industrial agreement requires you to make that payment.

Note: An accrued leave transfer payment is included in the assessable income of the entity to which it is made: see section 15-5.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 26-15

26-15 Franchise fees windfall tax

You cannot deduct under this Act any tax that is imposed by the Franchise Fees Windfall Tax (Imposition) Act 1997.

26-17 Commonwealth places windfall tax

You cannot deduct under this Act any tax that is imposed by the Commonwealth Places Windfall Tax (Imposition) Act 1998.

26-19 Rebatable benefits

- (1) You cannot deduct under this Act a loss or outgoing to the extent that the loss or outgoing is incurred in gaining or producing a rebatable benefit (within the meaning of section 160AAA of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936).
- (2) To the extent that you use property in gaining or producing a rebatable benefit, your use of the property is taken not to be for the *purpose of producing assessable income if subsection (1) would stop you deducting a loss or outgoing if you incurred it in the income year in gaining or producing the rebatable benefit.

Note: Under some provisions of this Act, in order to deduct an amount for your property, you must have used the property for the purpose of producing assessable income.

26-20 Assistance to students

- (1) You cannot deduct under this Act:
 - (ca) a student contribution amount within the meaning of the Higher Education Support Act 2003 paid to a higher education provider (within the meaning of that Act); or
 - (cb) a payment made to reduce a debt to the Commonwealth under Chapter 4 of that Act; or
 - (cba) a payment made to reduce a debt to the Commonwealth under Part 3A of the VET Student Loans Act 2016; or

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 26-22

- (cc) a payment made to reduce a debt to the Commonwealth under Chapter 2AA of the Social Security Act 1991 or Part 2 of the Student Assistance Act 1973; or
- (cd) a payment made to reduce a debt to the Commonwealth under Chapter 3 of the Australian Apprenticeship Support Loans Act 2014; or
- (ce) a payment made to reduce a liability to overseas debtors repayment levy under the Student Loans (Overseas Debtors Repayment Levy) Act 2015; or
- (d) a payment made to reduce a debt to the Commonwealth, or to a participating corporation, under Chapter 2B of the Social Security Act 1991 or Part 4A of the Student Assistance Act 1973.

Exception when you provide a fringe benefit

- (2) Subsection (1) does not stop you deducting expenditure you incur in *providing a *fringe benefit.

26-22 Political contributions and gifts

You cannot deduct political contributions or gifts

- (1) You cannot deduct under this Act (other than Subdivision 30-DA):
 - (a) a contribution (including a membership fee) or gift to a political party that is registered under Part XI of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 or under corresponding State or Territory legislation; or
 - (b) a contribution or gift to an individual when the individual is a candidate in an election for members of:
 - (i) an *Australian legislature; or
 - (ii) a *local governing body; or
 - (c) a contribution or gift to an individual who is a member of:
 - (i) an Australian legislature; or
 - (ii) a local governing body.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Chapter 2 Liability rules of general application

Part 2-5 Rules about deductibility of particular kinds of amounts

Division 26 Some amounts you cannot deduct, or cannot deduct in full

Section 26-25

Exception for employees and office holders

- (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply to a loss or outgoing incurred in gaining or producing assessable income from which an amount is required to be withheld under section 12-35 or 12-45 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953.

Note: These provisions of the Taxation Administration Act 1953 require amounts to be withheld from income of employees and office holders.

Starting and stopping being a candidate

- (3) For the purposes of this section, an individual:
- (a) starts being a candidate when the individual's intention to be or to attempt to be a candidate for the election is publicly available; and
 - (b) stops being a candidate at the earlier of:
 - (i) the time when the result of the election is declared or otherwise publicly announced by an entity (an electoral official) authorised under the relevant electoral legislation; and
 - (ii) the time (if any) when the individual's intention to no longer be a candidate for the election is publicly available.

Starting being a member

- (4) An individual who becomes a member as a result of an election (including an election that is later declared void) is taken to start being a member when the individual's election as a member is declared or otherwise publicly announced by an electoral official.

26-25 Interest or royalty

- (1) You cannot deduct under this Act interest (within the meaning of Division 11A of Part III of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936) or a *royalty if:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 26-25A

- (a) Subdivision 12-F in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 requires you to withhold an amount from the interest or royalty; and
- (b) either:
 - (i) you fail to withhold the amount; or
 - (ii) after withholding the amount, you fail to comply with section 16-70 in that Schedule in relation to that amount.
- (2) You cannot deduct under this Act interest (within the meaning of Division 11A of Part III of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936), or a *royalty, that is in the form of a *non-cash benefit if:
 - (a) section 14-5 or 14-10 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 requires you to pay an amount to the Commissioner before providing the benefit, because of Subdivision 12-F in that Schedule; and
 - (b) you fail to pay the amount as required by that section.
- (3) If:
 - (a) apart from subsection (1) or (2), you can deduct interest (within the meaning of Division 11A of Part III of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936) or a *royalty for an income year; and
 - (b) the *withholding tax payable for the interest or the royalty is paid;you can deduct the interest or royalty for that income year.

26-25A Payments to employees—labour mobility programs

No deduction to extent amount not withheld

- (1) You cannot deduct under this Act salary, wages, commission, bonuses or allowances from which Subdivision 12-FC in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 (about labour mobility programs) requires you to withhold an amount, to the extent that:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Chapter 2 Liability rules of general application

Part 2-5 Rules about deductibility of particular kinds of amounts

Division 26 Some amounts you cannot deduct, or cannot deduct in full

Section 26-26

- (a) you fail to withhold the amount; or
- (b) after withholding the amount, you fail to comply with section 16-70 in that Schedule in relation to that amount.

Note: Section 16-70 in that Schedule requires you to pay the amount to the Commissioner.

Deduction to extent amount not withheld but withholding tax paid

- (2) You can deduct, for an income year, salary, wages, commission, bonuses or allowances to the extent that:
 - (a) you cannot deduct the salary, wages, commission, bonuses or allowances for that income year only because of subsection (1) of this section; and
 - (b) the *labour mobility program withholding tax payable for the salary, wages, commission, bonuses or allowance is paid.

26-26 Non-share distributions and dividends

- (1) A company cannot deduct under this Act:
 - (a) a *non-share distribution; or
 - (b) a return that has accrued on a *non-share equity interest.
- (2) A company cannot deduct a *dividend paid on an *equity interest in the company as a *general deduction under this Act.

26-30 Relative's travel expenses

- (1) You cannot deduct under this Act a loss or outgoing you incur, insofar as it is attributable to your *relative's travel, if:
 - (a) you travelled in the course of performing your duties as an employee, or in the course of carrying on a *business for the purpose of gaining or producing your assessable income; and
 - (b) your relative accompanied you while you travelled.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Exception to subsection (1)

- (2) Subsection (1) does not stop you deducting a loss or outgoing if:
- (a) your *relative, while accompanying you, performed substantial duties as your employer's employee, or as your employee; and
 - (b) it is reasonable to conclude that your relative would still have accompanied you even if he or she had not had a personal relationship with you.

Exception when you provide a fringe benefit

- (3) Subsection (1) does not stop you deducting expenditure you incur in *providing a *fringe benefit.

This section also applies to individuals who are not employees

- (4) If an individual is not an employee, but receives, or is entitled to receive, *withholding payments covered by subsection (6), this section applies to the individual as if:
- (a) he or she were an employee; and
 - (b) the entity, who pays (or is liable to pay) *withholding payments covered by subsection (6) that result in the individual being in receipt of, or entitled to receive, such payments, were the individual's employer; and
 - (c) any other individual who receives (or is entitled to receive) *withholding payments covered by subsection (6):
 - (i) that result in that other individual being in receipt of, or entitled to receive, such payments; and
 - (ii) that the entity pays (or is liable to pay) to that other individual;were an employee of the entity.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Chapter 2 Liability rules of general application

Part 2-5 Rules about deductibility of particular kinds of amounts

Division 26 Some amounts you cannot deduct, or cannot deduct in full

Section 26-30

This section also applies to entities who are not employers

- (5) If an entity is not an employer, but pays (or is liable to pay) *withholding payments covered by subsection (6), this section applies to the entity as if:
- (a) it were an employer; and
 - (b) an individual to whom the entity pays (or is liable to pay) such withholding payments were the entity's employee.

Withholding payments covered

- (6) This subsection covers:
- (a) a *withholding payment covered by any of the provisions in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 listed in the table; and
 - (b) a withholding payment covered by section 12-47 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 where:
 - (i) the payment is made to a religious practitioner by a religious institution; and
 - (ii) the activity, or series of activities, for which the payment is made is done by the religious practitioner as a member of the religious institution.

Withholding payments covered
Item	Provision	Subject matter
1	Section 12-40	Payment to company director
2	Section 12-45	Payment to office holder
3	Section 12-50	Return to work payment
4	Subdivision 12-D	Benefit, training and compensation payments

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

26-31 Travel related to use of residential premises as residential accommodation

- (1) You cannot deduct under this Act a loss or outgoing you incur, insofar as it is related to travel, if:
- (a) it is incurred in gaining or producing your assessable income from the use of *residential premises as residential accommodation; and
 - (b) it is not necessarily incurred in carrying on a *business for the purpose of gaining or producing your assessable income.

Exception—kind of entity

- (2) Subsection (1) does not stop you deducting a loss or outgoing if, at any time during the income year in which the loss or outgoing is incurred, you are:
- (a) a *corporate tax entity; or
 - (b) a *superannuation plan that is not a *self managed superannuation fund; or
 - (c) a *managed investment trust; or
 - (d) a public unit trust (within the meaning of section 102P of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936); or
 - (e) a unit trust or partnership, if each *member of the trust or partnership is covered by a paragraph of this subsection at that time during the income year.

26-35 Reducing deductions for amounts paid to related entities

You can only deduct reasonable amounts paid to related entities

- (1) If, under another provision of this Act, you can deduct an amount for a payment you make, or for a liability you incur, to a *related entity, then you can only deduct so much of the amount as the Commissioner considers reasonable.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Chapter 2 Liability rules of general application

Part 2-5 Rules about deductibility of particular kinds of amounts

Division 26 Some amounts you cannot deduct, or cannot deduct in full

Section 26-35

Note: This section has a special operation if the payment is made, or the liability is incurred, by a partnership in which a private company is a partner: see section 65 (Payments to associated persons and relatives) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.

*Meaning of related entity

- (2) A related entity is any of the following:
- (a) your *relative; or
 - (b) a partnership in which your relative is a partner.
- (3) In the case of a partnership, a related entity is any of the following:
- (a) a *relative of a partner in the partnership;
 - (b) an individual who is or has been a director of a company that is a partner in the partnership and is a *private company for the income year;
 - (c) an entity that is or has been a shareholder in a company of that kind;
 - (d) a *relative of an individual who is or has been a director or shareholder of a company of that kind;
 - (e) a beneficiary of a trust if the trustee is a partner in the partnership;
 - (f) a *relative of a beneficiary of a trust if the trustee is a partner in the partnership;
 - (g) another partnership, if a partner in the other partnership is a *relative of a partner in the first partnership.

However, a partner in a partnership is not a related entity of the partnership.

If you can't deduct, then related entity doesn't include amount as income

- (4) To the extent that subsection (1) stops you deducting an amount, the amount is neither assessable income, nor exempt income, of the *related entity.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

26-40 Maintaining your family

You cannot deduct under this Act expenditure you incur for maintaining:

- (a) your *spouse (except a spouse permanently living separately and apart from you); or
- (b) your *child who is under 16 years.

Example: A farmer cannot deduct an amount for food or lodgings that the farmer provides to his or her child who is under 16 years for the work the child performs on the farm.

26-45 Recreational club expenses

- (1) You cannot deduct under this Act a loss or outgoing to the extent you incur it to obtain or maintain:
 - (a) membership of a *recreational club; or
 - (b) rights to enjoy (otherwise than as a *member) facilities provided by a *recreational club for the use or benefit of its *members;whether for yourself or someone else.

Meaning of recreational club

- (2) A recreational club is a company that was established or is carried on mainly to provide facilities, for the use or benefit of its *members, for drinking, dining, *recreation or entertainment.

Exception when you provide a fringe benefit

- (3) Subsection (1) does not stop you deducting expenditure you incur in *providing a *fringe benefit.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 26-47

26-47 Non-business boating activities

Object

- (1) The object of this section is to improve the integrity of the taxation system by preventing deductions from boating activities that are not carried on as a *business being offset against other assessable income.

Rule

- (2) This Act applies to you as if so much of the amounts relating to using or *holding boats that you could otherwise deduct for an income year as exceeds your assessable income from using or holding boats for that year:
- (a) were not deductible for that income year; and
 - (b) were an amount (a quarantined amount) relating to using or holding boats that you can deduct for the next income year.

Note: A quarantined amount may be reduced under subsection (5) (for boat capital gains), reduced under subsection (7) (where you deduct part of a quarantined amount under subsection (6) for boat business profits), reduced under subsection (8) (about exempt income) or affected by subsection (10) (about bankruptcy).

Example: Ian does not use his boat in a business. In Year 1, Ian would be able to claim $100,000 in deductions for the boat (but for this subsection), including interest, depreciation and running costs. He earns only $40,000 of income from the boat. He can only deduct $40,000. He carries the remaining $60,000 forward to Year 2 (the quarantined amount).

In Year 2, Ian has $95,000 of expenses and $30,000 of income for the boat. He can deduct $30,000. The quarantined amount is now $125,000: the quarantined amount from Year 1 plus the excess of expenses over income from Year 2.

In Year 3, Ian has $60,000 of expenses and $150,000 of income from the boat. The expenses from Year 3 plus the quarantined amount is $185,000. Therefore, Ian claims a deduction of $150,000 and carries forward $35,000 to Year 4.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Exception: business use

- (3) The rule in subsection (2) does not apply to amounts that are attributable to one or more of the following:
- (a) *holding a boat as your *trading stock;
 - (b) using a boat (or holding it) mainly for letting it on hire in the ordinary course of a *business that you carry on;
 - (c) using a boat (or holding it) mainly for transporting the public or goods for payment in the ordinary course of a business that you carry on;
 - (d) using a boat for a purpose that is essential to the efficient conduct of a business that you carry on.

Note: Even if this exception applies to you, you may still have to quarantine losses under Division 35 (deferral of losses from non-commercial business activities).

Exception: fringe benefits

- (4) The rule in subsection (2) does not apply to so much of an amount you incur in *providing a *fringe benefit.

Modification if you have boat capital gains

- (5) You reduce a quarantined amount you have for an income year by so much of that amount as is applied under section 118-80 to reduce a *capital gain you have for the year in relation to a boat. You make this reduction before you deduct an amount under subsection (6).

Deduction if you have boat business profits

- (6) You can deduct all or part of your remaining quarantined amount for an income year if your assessable income for the year from activities of a kind referred to in subsection (3) exceeds your deductions for the year relating to those activities. The amount you can deduct is the lesser of that excess and that remaining quarantined amount.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 26-47

- (7) You reduce your quarantined amount for the year by the amount you deduct. You make this reduction before a reduction under subsection (8).

Modification if you have exempt income

- (8) You reduce any remaining quarantined amount you have for an income year by your *net exempt income for that year (after *utilising the net exempt income under section 35-15 (about non-commercial business activities) or section 36-10 or 36-15 (about tax losses)).

Modification if you become bankrupt

- (9) The modification in subsection (10) has effect if:
- (a) in an income year (the current year) you become bankrupt or are released from a debt by the operation of an Act relating to bankruptcy; or
 - (b) you became bankrupt before the current year and:
 - (i) the bankruptcy is annulled in the current year under section 74 of the Bankruptcy Act 1966 because your creditors have accepted a proposal for a composition or scheme of arrangement; and
 - (ii) under the composition or scheme of arrangement, you have been, will be or may be released from some or all of the debts from which you would have been released if you had instead been discharged from the bankruptcy.
- (10) This Act applies to you as if any amount that:
- (a) is a quarantined amount for you for the current year or was a quarantined amount for you for an earlier year; and
 - (b) has not been applied under section 118-80 and that you have not yet deducted;
- were not an amount relating to using or holding boats that you can deduct for the current year or a later year.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

26-50 Expenses for a leisure facility

- (1) You cannot deduct under this Act a loss or outgoing to the extent you incur it:
- (a) to acquire ownership of a *leisure facility; or
 - (b) to retain ownership of a leisure facility; or
 - (c) to acquire rights to use a leisure facility; or
 - (d) to retain rights to use a leisure facility; or
 - (e) to use, operate, maintain or repair a leisure facility; or
 - (f) in relation to any obligation associated with your ownership of a leisure facility; or
 - (g) in relation to any obligation associated with your rights to use a leisure facility.
- However, there are exceptions (see subsections (3), (4) and (8)).

What is a leisure facility?

- (2) A leisure facility is land, a building, or part of a building or other structure, that is used (or held for use) for holidays or *recreation.

Exception—leisure facilities

- (3) Subsection (1) does not stop you deducting a loss or outgoing for a *leisure facility if at all times in the income year:
- (a) you hold the leisure facility for sale in the ordinary course of your business of selling leisure facilities; or
 - (b) you use the leisure facility (or hold it for use) mainly to provide it:
 - (i) in the ordinary course of your *business of providing leisure facilities for payment; or
 - (ii) to produce your assessable income in the nature of rents, lease premiums, licence fees or similar charges; or
 - (iii) for your employees to use; or
 - (iv) for the care of your employees' *children.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 26-52

In the case of a company, subparagraphs (b)(iii) and (iv) do not apply to employees who are *members or directors of the company.

Exception—part year use of leisure facilities

- (4) If you use a *leisure facility (or hold it) as described in subsection (3) at all times during part of the income year, then subsection (1) does not stop you deducting so much of the loss or outgoing as is reasonable in the circumstances.

Anti-avoidance—when exceptions do not apply

- (7) A *leisure facility is taken not to be used (or held) as described in subsection (3) if:
- (a) apart from this subsection, the leisure facility would be used (or held) in that way because of a *scheme; and
 - (b) in the Commissioner's opinion, the scheme would not have been entered into or carried out if this section had not been enacted.

Exception when you provide a fringe benefit

- (8) Subsection (1) does not stop you deducting expenditure you incur in *providing a *fringe benefit.

26-52 Bribes to foreign public officials

- (1) You cannot deduct under this Act a loss or outgoing you incur that is a *bribe to a foreign public official.
- (2) An amount is a bribe to a foreign public official to the extent that:
- (a) you incur the amount in, or in connection with:
 - (i) providing a benefit to another person; or
 - (ii) causing a benefit to be provided to another person; or
 - (iii) offering to provide, or promising to provide, a benefit to another person; or

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

- (iv) causing an offer of the provision of a benefit, or a promise of the provision of a benefit, to be made to another person; and
- (b) you incur the amount with the intention of improperly influencing a *foreign public official (who may be the other person) in order to obtain or retain business or a business or personal advantage (whether or not for yourself).

The benefit may be any advantage and is not limited to property.

- (2A) For the purposes of subsection (2), disregard whether business, or a business or personal advantage, was actually obtained or retained.

Payments that written law of foreign public official's country requires or permits

- (3) An amount is not a bribe to a foreign public official if, assuming the benefit had been provided, and all related acts had been done, in the *foreign public official's country, a written law of that country would have required or permitted the provision of the benefit.

Facilitation payments

- (4) An amount is not a bribe to a foreign public official if:
- (a) the value of the benefit is of a minor nature; and
 - (b) the amount is incurred for the sole or dominant purpose of expediting or securing the performance of a routine government action of a minor nature.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, a routine government action is an action of a *foreign public official that:
- (a) is ordinarily and commonly performed by the official; and
 - (b) is covered by any of the following subparagraphs:
 - (i) granting a permit, licence or other official document that qualifies a person to do business in a foreign country or in a part of a foreign country;

Section 26-52

- (ii) processing government papers such as a visa or work permit;
- (iii) providing police protection or mail collection or delivery;
- (iv) scheduling inspections associated with contract performance or related to the transit of goods;
- (v) providing telecommunications services, power or water;
- (vi) loading and unloading cargo;
- (vii) protecting perishable products, or commodities, from deterioration;
- (viii) any other action of a similar nature; and
- (c) does not involve a decision about:
 - (i) whether to award new business; or
 - (ii) whether to continue existing business with a particular person; or
 - (iii) the terms of new business or existing business; and
- (d) does not involve encouraging a decision about:
 - (i) whether to award new business; or
 - (ii) whether to continue existing business with a particular person; or
 - (iii) the terms of new business or existing business.

Improper influence

- (6) In determining whether influence is improper, disregard the following:
 - (a) the fact that the benefit, or the offer or promise to provide the benefit, may be, or be perceived to be, customary, necessary or required in the situation;
 - (b) any official tolerance of the benefit;
 - (c) if particular business or a particular business or personal advantage is relevant to determining whether influence is improper—the following:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 26-53

- (i) if the value of the business or advantage is insignificant—that fact;
- (ii) in the case of an advantage—any official tolerance of the advantage;
- (iii) in the case of an advantage—the fact that the advantage may be customary, or perceived to be customary, in the situation.

Duties of foreign public official

- (8) The duties of a *foreign public official are any authorities, duties, functions or powers that:
 - (a) are conferred on the official; or
 - (b) the official holds himself or herself out as having.

26-53 Bribes to public officials

- (1) You cannot deduct under this Act a loss or outgoing you incur that is a *bribe to a public official.
- (2) An amount is a bribe to a public official to the extent that:
 - (a) you incur the amount in, or in connection with:
 - (i) providing a benefit to another person; or
 - (ii) causing a benefit to be provided to another person; or
 - (iii) offering to provide, or promising to provide, a benefit to another person; or
 - (iv) causing an offer of the provision of a benefit, or a promise of the provision of a benefit, to be made to another person; and
 - (b) the benefit is not legitimately due to the other person (see subsection (3)); and
 - (c) you incur the amount with the intention of influencing a *public official (who may or may not be the other person) in the exercise of the official's duties as a public official in order to:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 26-54

- (i) obtain or retain business; or
- (ii) obtain or retain an advantage in the conduct of business that is not legitimately due to you, or another person, as the recipient, or intended recipient, of the advantage in the conduct of business (see subsection (4)).

The benefit may be any advantage and is not limited to property.

Benefit not legitimately due

- (3) In working out if a benefit is not legitimately due to another person in a particular situation, disregard the following:
 - (a) the fact that the benefit may be customary, or perceived to be customary, in the situation;
 - (b) the value of the benefit;
 - (c) any official tolerance of the benefit.

Advantage in the conduct of business that is not legitimately due

- (4) In working out if an advantage in the conduct of business is not legitimately due in a particular situation, disregard the following:
 - (a) the fact that the advantage may be customary, or perceived to be customary, in the situation;
 - (b) the value of the advantage;
 - (c) any official tolerance of the advantage.

Duties of public official

- (5) The duties of a *public official are any authorities, duties, functions or powers that:
 - (a) are conferred on the official; or
 - (b) the official holds himself or herself out as having.

26-54 Expenditure relating to illegal activities

physical element of an offence against an *Australian law of which you have been convicted if the offence was, or could have been, prosecuted on indictment.

- (2) Despite section 170 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936, the Commissioner may amend your assessment at any time within 4 years after you are convicted of the relevant offence for the purpose of giving effect to subsection (1) of this section.

26-55 Limit on deductions

- (1) There is a limit on the total of the amounts you can deduct for the income year under these provisions:
- (a) section 25-50 (which is about payments of pensions, gratuities or retiring allowances) of this Act;
 - (ba) Division 30 (which is about deductions for gifts or contributions) of this Act;
 - (bb) Division 31 (which is about deductions for conservation covenants) of this Act;
 - (d) section 290-150 (which is about deductions for personal superannuation contributions).

Do not include in the total an amount that you could also deduct under another provision of this Act, apart from section 8-10 (which prevents double deductions).

- (2) The limit is worked out by subtracting from your assessable income all your deductions except:
- (a) *tax losses; and

See Division 36 (which is about tax losses of earlier income years).

- (c) the amount you can deduct for the income year under section 393-5 (which provides for deductions for making *farm management deposits).

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 26-60

26-60 Superannuation contributions surcharge

You cannot deduct under this Act:

- (a) a superannuation contributions surcharge within the meaning of the Superannuation Contributions Tax (Assessment and Collection) Act 1997; or
- (b) a superannuation contributions surcharge within the meaning of the Superannuation Contributions Tax (Members of Constitutionally Protected Superannuation Funds) Assessment and Collection Act 1997.

26-68 Loss from disposal of eligible venture capital investments

Partners in VCLPs and ESVCLPs

- (1) You cannot deduct under this Act your share of a loss made from the disposal or other realisation of an *eligible venture capital investment if:
 - (a) it is made by a *VCLP, or an *ESVCLP, that is *unconditionally registered; and
 - (b) were that disposal or other realisation to be a *disposal of a *CGT asset, your share of any *capital gain or *capital loss would be disregarded under section 118-405 or 118-407.

Partners in AFOFs

- (2) You cannot deduct under this Act your share of a loss made from the disposal or other realisation of an *eligible venture capital investment if:
 - (a) it is made by:
 - (i) an *AFOF that is *unconditionally registered; or
 - (ii) a *VCLP, or an *ESVCLP, that is unconditionally registered and in which an AFOF that is *unconditionally registered is a partner; and

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 26-70

- (b) were that disposal or other realisation to be a *disposal of a *CGT asset, your share of any *capital gain or *capital loss would be disregarded under section 118-410.

Eligible venture capital investors

- (3) You cannot deduct under this Act a loss made from the disposal or other realisation of an *eligible venture capital investment if:
 - (a) you are an *eligible venture capital investor; and
 - (b) were that disposal or other realisation to be a *disposal of a *CGT asset, any *capital gain or *capital loss would be disregarded under section 118-415.

26-70 Loss from disposal of venture capital equity

You cannot deduct under this Act a loss made from the disposal or other realisation of *venture capital equity in a *resident investment vehicle if:

- (a) it is made by a *venture capital entity or a *limited partnership referred to in subsection 118-515(2); and
- (b) if that disposal or other realisation were a *disposal of a *CGT asset, any *capital gain or *capital loss would be disregarded under Subdivision 118-G.

26-75 Excess non-concessional contributions tax cannot be deducted

You cannot deduct under this Act an amount of *excess non-concessional contributions tax that you pay.

26-80 Financing costs on loans to pay superannuation contribution

- (1) You can only deduct under this Act a *financing cost connected with a contribution you make to a *superannuation plan if you can deduct the contribution under Subdivision 290-B.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 26-85

- (2) A financing cost connected with a contribution is expenditure incurred to the extent that it relates to obtaining finance to make the contribution, including:
- (a) interest, and payments in the nature of interest; and
 - (b) expenses of borrowing.

26-85 Borrowing costs on loans to pay life insurance premiums

- (1) You can only deduct under this Act interest on, or other expenses associated with, money you borrow to pay a premium for a *life insurance policy if:
- (a) the *risk component of the premium received by the insurer is the entire amount of the premium; and
 - (b) each amount the insurer is liable to pay under the policy would be included in your assessable income if it were paid.
- (2) The risk component of a premium for a *life insurance policy means the amount of the premium worked out on the basis specified in the regulations.

26-90 Superannuation supervisory levy

You cannot deduct under this Act so much of a levy imposed by the Superannuation (Self Managed Superannuation Funds) Supervisory Levy Imposition Act 1991 as represents the late lodgment amount (within the meaning of section 6 of that Act).

26-96 Laminaria and Corallina decommissioning levy cannot be deducted

You cannot deduct under this Act an amount of *Laminaria and Corallina decommissioning levy that you pay.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

26-97 National Disability Insurance Scheme expenditure

A participant (within the meaning of the National Disability Insurance Scheme Act 2013) cannot deduct under this Act a loss or outgoing to the extent the loss or outgoing is funded (including funded by way of reimbursement) by an *NDIS amount the participant *derives.

26-98 Division 293 tax cannot be deducted

You cannot deduct under this Act any of the following:

- (a) an amount of *Division 293 tax that you pay;
- (b) an amount of *debt account discharge liability that you pay.

26-99 Excess transfer balance tax cannot be deducted

You cannot deduct under this Act an amount of *excess transfer balance tax that you pay.

26-99A Division 296 tax cannot be deducted

You cannot deduct under this Act any of the following:

- (a) an amount of *Division 296 tax that you pay;
- (b) an amount of *Division 296 debt account discharge liability that you pay.

26-99B Build to rent development misuse tax cannot be deducted

You cannot deduct under this Act an amount of *build to rent development misuse tax that you pay.

26-99C Australian IIR/UTPR tax and Australian DMT tax cannot be deducted

You cannot deduct under this Act an amount of *Australian IIR/UTPR tax or *Australian DMT tax that you pay.

Section 26-100

26-100 Expenditure attributable to water infrastructure improvement payments

- (1) You cannot deduct under this Act *SRWUIP expenditure if the matching *SRWUIP payment is, or is reasonably expected to be, *non-assessable non-exempt income (whether for you or for another entity) under section 59-65.
- (2) SRWUIP expenditure, in respect of a *SRWUIP program, is expenditure that:
 - (a) you incur that satisfies an obligation under an *arrangement under the program; and
 - (b) is, or is reasonably expected to be, matched by a *SRWUIP payment in respect of the program.
- (3) However, treat the expenditure as if it had never been SRWUIP expenditure if it is no longer reasonable to expect that the expenditure will be matched by a *SRWUIP payment in respect of the program.

26-102 Expenses associated with holding vacant land

Limit on deduction

- (1) If:
 - (a) at a particular time, you incur a loss or outgoing relating to holding land (including interest or any other ongoing costs of borrowing to acquire the land); and
 - (b) at the earlier of the following (the critical time):
 - (i) that time;
 - (ii) if you have ceased to hold the land—the time just before you ceased to hold the land;there is no substantial and permanent structure in use or available for use on the land having a purpose that is independent of, and not incidental to, the purpose of any other structure or proposed structure;

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

you can only deduct under this Act the loss or outgoing to the extent that the land is in use, or available for use, in carrying on a business covered by subsection (2) at the time applying under subsection (3).

Note 1: The ordinary meaning of structure includes a building and anything else built or constructed.

Note 2: The land need not be all of the land under a land title.

- (2) A *business is covered by this subsection if the business is carried on for the purpose of gaining or producing the assessable income of one or more of the following entities:
- (a) you;
 - (b) your *affiliate, or an entity of which you are an affiliate;
 - (c) if you are an individual—your *spouse, or any of your *children who is under 18 years of age;
 - (d) an entity *connected with you.
- (3) The time applying under this subsection is the critical time unless:
- (a) the business referred to in subsection (1) ceases before the critical time; and
 - (b) the loss or outgoing is otherwise deductible because of the use or availability for use of the land at an earlier time or during an earlier period; and
 - (c) at that earlier time or during that earlier period the land was in use or available for use in carrying on that business;
- in which case the time applying under this subsection is that earlier time or the end of that earlier period.

Disregard certain residential premises if not rented etc.

- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), treat a building as not being a substantial and permanent structure if it is *residential premises constructed, or *substantially renovated, while you hold the land unless:
- (a) the residential premises are lawfully able to be occupied; and

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 26-102

- (b) the residential premises are:
 - (i) leased, hired or licensed; or
 - (ii) available for lease, hire or licence.

Note: If all of the structures on the land are disregarded under this subsection, then subsection (1) may deny you a deduction for a loss or outgoing relating to the land.

Exception—kind of entity

- (5) Subsection (1) does not stop you deducting a loss or outgoing if, at any time during the income year in which the loss or outgoing is incurred, you are:
 - (a) a *corporate tax entity; or
 - (b) a *superannuation plan that is not a *self managed superannuation fund; or
 - (c) a *managed investment trust; or
 - (d) a public unit trust (within the meaning of section 102P of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936); or
 - (e) a unit trust or partnership, if each *member of the trust or partnership is covered by a paragraph of this subsection at that time during the income year.

Exception—structures affected by natural disasters or other exceptional circumstances

- (6) Subsection (1) does not stop you deducting a loss or outgoing relating to holding land if:
 - (a) had an earlier time been the critical time (see paragraph (1)(b)), paragraph (1)(b) would not have applied to you for the land because of the existence at that earlier time of a substantial and permanent structure on the land; and
 - (b) after that earlier time, paragraph (1)(b):
 - (i) began to apply to you for the land wholly or mainly because of a circumstance affecting that structure; and
 - (ii) continued to do so at the critical time; and

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

- (c) the circumstance was exceptional and beyond the reasonable control of you, and of all the entities referred to in paragraphs (2)(b), (c) and (d); and
 - (d) the critical time happened before:
 - (i) the third anniversary of the time paragraph (1)(b) began to apply to you for the land as described in subparagraph (b)(i) of this subsection; or
 - (ii) such later time as the Commissioner allows.
- (7) If subsection (6) applies to you and you deduct the loss or outgoing, you must keep written records of:
- (a) the circumstance; and
 - (b) the circumstance's effect on the affected structure;
- until the fifth anniversary of the end of the income year in which you incurred the loss or outgoing.

Note: There is an administrative penalty if you fail to keep these records (see section 288-25 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953).

Exception—land held by primary producers

- (8) Subsection (1) does not stop you deducting a loss or outgoing relating to holding land if, at the critical time (see paragraph (1)(b)):
- (a) the land is under lease, hire or licence to another entity; and
 - (b) you are, or an entity referred to in paragraph (2)(b), (c) or (d) is, carrying on a *primary production business; and
 - (c) the land does not contain *residential premises; and
 - (d) residential premises are not being constructed on the land.

Exception—land in use or available for use in carrying on a business

- (9) Subsection (1) does not stop you deducting a loss or outgoing relating to holding land if, at the critical time (see paragraph (1)(b)):

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 26-105

- (a) the land is under lease, hire or licence to another entity as a result of a dealing at *arm's length; and
- (b) the land is in use, or available for use, in carrying on a *business; and
- (c) the land does not contain *residential premises; and
- (d) residential premises are not being constructed on the land.

26-105 Non-compliant payments for work and services

No deduction if amount not withheld or Commissioner not notified

- (1) You cannot deduct under this Act a payment if:
 - (a) any of the following provisions in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 require you to withhold an amount from the payment:
 - (i) section 12-35 (about payments to employees);
 - (ii) section 12-40 (about payments to directors);
 - (iii) section 12-47 (about payments to *religious practitioners);
 - (iv) section 12-60 (about payments under labour hire and certain other arrangements);
 - (v) in relation to a *supply, other than a supply referred to in subsection (3) of this section—section 12-190 (about quoting of *ABN); and
 - (b) either:
 - (i) you fail to withhold an amount (whether or not that amount is the amount required to be withheld as mentioned in paragraph (a)) from the payment; or
 - (ii) after withholding the amount from the payment, you fail to comply, or purportedly comply, with section 16-150 or 389-5 (as the case requires) in that Schedule, in relation to the amount.
- (2) You cannot deduct under this Act a *non-cash benefit if:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 26-105

- (a) section 14-5 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 requires you to pay an amount to the Commissioner before providing the benefit, because of any of the following provisions in that Schedule:
 - (i) section 12-35 (about payments to employees);
 - (ii) section 12-40 (about payments to directors);
 - (iii) section 12-47 (about payments to *religious practitioners);
 - (iv) section 12-60 (about payments under labour hire and certain other arrangements);
 - (v) in relation to a *supply, other than a supply referred to in subsection (3) of this section—section 12-190 (about quoting of *ABN); and
 - (b) you fail to comply, or purportedly comply, with section 16-150 in that Schedule in relation to the amount.
- (3) For the purposes of subparagraphs (1)(a)(v) and (2)(a)(v), the supplies are supplies that are wholly a *supply of either or both of the following:
- (a) a supply of goods (within the meaning of section 195-1 of the *GST Act);
 - (b) a supply of real property (within the meaning of that section of that Act).

Exception—nil amounts

- (4) Subsection (1) or (2) does not apply if the amount required to be withheld, or the amount required to be paid to the Commissioner, (as the case requires) is a nil amount.

Exception—ABN quoted

- (5) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to an amount required to be withheld from a payment under section 12-35 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953, if:
- (a) when the payment is made, you have been given:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 26-105

- (i) an *invoice or some other document that relates to the payment that *quotes the individual's *ABN; or
 - (ii) if the payment relates to a *supply that has been made through an *agent—an invoice or some other document that relates to the payment that quotes the agent's ABN; or
- (b) when the payment is made:
 - (i) you have been given an invoice or some other document that relates to the payment that purports to quote the individual's ABN; and
 - (ii) the individual does not have an ABN, or the invoice or other document does not in fact quote the individual's ABN; and
 - (iii) you have no reasonable grounds to believe that the individual does not have an ABN, or that the invoice or other document does not quote the individual's ABN; or
- (c) if the payment relates to a supply that has been made through an agent—when the payment is made:
 - (i) you have been given an invoice or some other document that relates to the payment that purports to quote the agent's ABN; and
 - (ii) the agent does not have an ABN, or the invoice or other document does not in fact quote the agent's ABN; and
 - (iii) you have no reasonable grounds to believe that the agent does not have an ABN, or that the invoice or other document does not quote the agent's ABN.
- (6) Subsection (2) does not apply in relation to a *non-cash benefit that requires an amount to be paid to the Commissioner, if:
 - (a) when the non-cash benefit is provided, you have been given:
 - (i) an *invoice or some other document that relates to the non-cash benefit that *quotes the individual's *ABN; or
 - (ii) if the non-cash benefit relates to a *supply that has been made through an *agent—an invoice or some other

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

- document that relates to the non-cash benefit that quotes the agent's ABN; or
- (b) when the non-cash benefit is provided:
- (i) you have been given an invoice or some other document that relates to the non-cash benefit that purports to quote the individual's ABN; and
 - (ii) the individual does not have an ABN, or the invoice or other document does not in fact quote the individual's ABN; and
 - (iii) you have no reasonable grounds to believe that the individual does not have an ABN, or that the invoice or other document does not quote the individual's ABN; or
- (c) if the non-cash benefit relates to a supply that has been made through an agent—when the non-cash benefit is provided:
- (i) you have been given an invoice or some other document that relates to the non-cash benefit that purports to quote the agent's ABN; and
 - (ii) the agent does not have an ABN, or the invoice or other document does not in fact quote the agent's ABN; and
 - (iii) you have no reasonable grounds to believe that the agent does not have an ABN, or that the invoice or other document does not quote the agent's ABN.

Exception—voluntarily tell the Commissioner about a mistake

- (7) Subsection (1) does not apply if, before the Commissioner tells you that an examination is to be made of your affairs relating to a *taxation law for a relevant period, you voluntarily tell the Commissioner, in the *approved form, that you have failed to:
- (a) withhold an amount; or
 - (b) comply with section 16-150 or 389-5 (as the case requires) in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 in relation to the amount.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 26-155

- (8) Subsection (2) does not apply if, before the Commissioner tells you that an examination is to be made of your affairs relating to a *taxation law for a relevant period, you voluntarily tell the Commissioner, in the *approved form, that you have failed to comply with section 16-150 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 in relation to the amount.

26-155 Using or holding residential dwellings

General rule

- (1) If the amounts relating to the using or holding of *residential dwellings as residential accommodation that you could otherwise deduct for an income year exceed your assessable income from using or holding residential dwellings as residential accommodation for the income year, this Act applies to the amount of the excess as follows:
- (a) it is not deductible for that income year;
 - (b) it is an amount (a quarantined amount) that could be applied in accordance with the method statement in section 102-5 (about working out your net capital gain) for that income year;
 - (c) to the extent any part of it remains after applying that method statement—it is treated as an amount relating to using or holding residential dwellings as residential accommodation for the next income year.

Example: Henrietta acquires an established residential dwelling in July 2028. For the 2028-29 income year Henrietta has assessable income of $50,000 from renting out the residential dwelling as residential accommodation. For that year, Henrietta has (but for this subsection) $65,000 in deductions for the residential dwelling, including interest, insurance and strata costs. She can only deduct $50,000 and the remaining $15,000 is carried forward to the next income year.

For the 2029-30 income year, Henrietta has (but for this subsection) $70,000 in deductions and $52,000 of assessable income from renting out the residential dwelling as residential accommodation. She can deduct $52,000 and $33,000 is carried forward to the next income year.

year (comprising the $15,000 carried forward from the 2028-29 income year and $18,000 from the 2029-30 income year).

For the 2030-31 income year, Henrietta has $20,000 in deductions and $72,000 of assessable income from renting out the residential dwelling as residential accommodation, having reduced her mortgage following an inheritance. She has net rental income from the residential dwelling of $52,000 for this income year and can fully offset the amount of $33,000 that has been carried forward from the previous income year.

Exceptions for non-quarantined residential dwellings

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), disregard amounts you could otherwise deduct, and amounts of assessable income, to the extent those amounts relate to the using or holding of the following:
- (a) an *ownership interest in a *residential dwelling you last *acquired before 7.30 pm, by legal time in the Australian Capital Territory, on 12 May 2026;
 - (b) a residential dwelling that is a *new residential dwelling in relation to you;
 - (c) a residential dwelling for an activity or purpose determined by the Minister by legislative instrument for the purposes of this paragraph.
- Note: If you have a net gain from your non-quarantined residential dwellings for an income year: see subsection (6).
- (3) Despite subsection 118-130(2), for the purposes of paragraph (2)(a) of this section, for a *residential dwelling that you *acquire under a contract, you have an *ownership interest in the residential dwelling from the time when you enter into the contract.
- (3A) Before determining an activity or purpose for the purposes of paragraph (2)(c), the Minister must be satisfied that determining the activity or purpose will assist in achieving one or more of the following objectives:
- (a) improving availability of social or affordable housing;
 - (b) improving housing outcomes for one or more of the following:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 26-155

- (i) Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander persons;
- (ii) persons with a disability;
- (iii) aged persons;
- (iv) another class of persons suffering disadvantage.

Exception for certain kinds of entities

- (4) Subsection (1) does not apply to you if you are:
 - (a) a widely held unit trust as defined in section 272-105 in Schedule 2F to the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936; or
 - (b) a *complying superannuation entity.

Exception for fringe benefits

- (5) For the purposes of subsection (1), disregard amounts you could otherwise deduct, and amounts of assessable income, to the extent those amounts relate to *providing a *fringe benefit.

Modification in relation to certain gains

- (6) Reduce the amount of an excess referred to in subsection (1) for an income year (before applying any of paragraphs (1)(a) to (c)) by the sum of the following:
 - (a) any amount by which your assessable income covered by subsection (2) for the income year exceeds your deductions covered by that subsection for the income year;
 - (b) any gain you *realised for income tax purposes for the income year from a *realisation event occurring in relation to a *residential dwelling that is a *revenue asset.

Modification in relation to beneficiaries of trusts

- (7) If:
 - (a) you are a beneficiary of a trust estate; and
 - (b) an amount is taken to have been included in your assessable income for an income year under Division 6 of Part III of the

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 in relation to the *net income of the trust estate; to the extent that the amount is referable (either directly or indirectly through one or more interposed partnerships or trust estates) to using or holding *residential dwellings as residential accommodation, the amount is taken to be included in your assessable income from using or holding residential dwellings as residential accommodation for that year.

Modification if you become bankrupt

- (8) The modification in subsection (9) has effect if:
- (a) in an income year (the current year) you become bankrupt or are released from a debt by the operation of an Act relating to bankruptcy; or
 - (b) you became bankrupt before the current year and:
 - (i) the bankruptcy is annulled in the current year under section 74 of the Bankruptcy Act 1966 because your creditors have accepted a proposal for a composition or scheme of arrangement; and
 - (ii) under the composition or scheme of arrangement, you have been, will be or may be released from some or all of the debts from which you would have been released if you had instead been discharged from the bankruptcy.
- (9) This Act applies to you as if any amount that:
- (a) is an amount that you cannot deduct for the current year in accordance with paragraph (1)(a); and
 - (b) has not been applied in accordance with the method statement in section 102-5;
- were not an amount relating to using or holding *residential dwellings as residential accommodation that you can deduct for the current year or a later year.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 26-160

26-160 Meaning of residential dwelling and new residential dwelling

Meaning of residential dwelling

- (1) A residential dwelling means a *dwelling other than any of the following:
- (a) a caravan, mobile tiny home, or other mobile home;
 - (b) a hotel, motel, inn, hostel or boarding house;
 - (c) a dwelling providing accommodation to students in connection with a school or an education institution that is not a school;
 - (d) a boat or other marine vessel.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a residential dwelling is taken to include any of the following things to the extent that the thing is available for use by an occupant of the *dwelling:
- (a) land adjacent to the dwelling;
 - (b) a garage, storeroom or other structure associated with the dwelling.

Meaning of new residential dwelling

- (3) A *residential dwelling is a new residential dwelling in relation to you if the requirements determined under subsection (4) are met in relation to you and the residential dwelling.
- (4) The Minister must, by legislative instrument, determine requirements for the purposes of subsection (3). Without limiting this subsection, the requirements may include requirements relating to one or more of the following:
- (a) the kind of *residential dwelling;
 - (b) the kind of interest you hold in the residential dwelling and the circumstances in which you acquired your interest (such as whether you were the builder or a subsequent purchaser of the residential dwelling);

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

- (c) circumstances relating to the creation of the residential dwelling (such as whether the residential dwelling was built on vacant land, was created through substantial renovations of an existing building, or was built to replace a demolished residential dwelling);
 - (d) whether the residential dwelling has a separate title, equitable title or similar legal interest that can be acquired by an entity.
- (4A) Before determining requirements for the purposes of subsection (4), the Minister must be satisfied that determining the requirements will assist in achieving the objective of genuinely adding to the supply of residential dwellings in Australia.
- (5) To avoid doubt, the Minister may determine requirements under subsection (4) relating to matters or circumstances existing before the commencement of this section.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 27-1

Division 27—Effect of input tax credits etc. on deductions

Table of Subdivisions

	Guide to Division 27
27-A	General
27-B	Effect of input tax credits etc. on capital allowances

Guide to Division 27

27-1 What this Division is about

This Division sets out the effect of the GST in working out deductions. Generally speaking, input tax credits, GST and adjustments under the GST Act are disregarded.

Subdivision 27-A—General

Table of sections

27-5	Input tax credits and decreasing adjustments
27-10	Certain increasing adjustments
27-15	GST payments
27-20	Elements in calculation of amounts
27-25	GST groups and GST joint ventures
27-35	Certain sections not to apply to certain assets or expenditure

27-5 Input tax credits and decreasing adjustments

You cannot deduct under this Act a loss or outgoing you incur, to the extent that the loss or outgoing includes an amount relating to an *input tax credit to which you are entitled or a *decreasing adjustment that you have.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

27-10 Certain increasing adjustments

- (1) You can deduct an amount of an *increasing adjustment that arises under Division 129 of the *GST Act.
- (2) However, you cannot deduct the amount to the extent (if any) that the adjustment arises from an increase in the extent to which the activity giving rise to the adjustment is of a private or domestic nature.
- (3) If:
 - (a) you have an *increasing adjustment under Division 138 of the *GST Act in respect of an asset as a result of the cancellation of your registration under Part 2-5 of the GST Act; and
 - (b) immediately after the cancellation, you held the asset for the purpose of gaining or producing assessable income;you can deduct the amount of the increasing adjustment.
- (4) However, you cannot deduct an amount under subsection (1) or (3) to the extent that, because it becomes a component of a *net input tax credit, a reduction is made under section 103-30 (reduction of cost base etc. by net input tax credits).

27-15 GST payments

- (1) You cannot deduct under this Act a loss or outgoing consisting of a payment under Division 33 of the *GST Act.
- (2) This section does not apply to the payment:
 - (a) to the extent (if any) that the *net amount to which the payment relates was increased under section 21-5 of the *Wine Tax Act (which allows for such increases to take account of wine equalisation tax); and
 - (b) to the extent (if any) that the *net amount was increased under section 13-5 of the *Luxury Car Tax Act (which allows for such increases to take account of luxury car tax); and

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 27-20

- (c) to the extent (if any) that the *net amount was increased under paragraph 13-10(1)(a) of the Luxury Car Tax Act (which allows for such alterations to take account of increasing luxury car tax adjustments under that Act).
- (3) This section does not apply to the payment of *assessed GST (under section 33-15 of the *GST Act) on a *taxable importation that:
 - (a) was not a *creditable importation; or
 - (b) was *partly creditable;but only to the extent that that payment of assessed GST exceeds the *input tax credit (if any) to which you are entitled for that importation.
- (4) This section does not apply to the payment of an *assessed net amount under section 33-3 or 33-5 of the *GST Act to the extent that the assessed net amount includes *GST on a *taxable supply that:
 - (a) exceeds the *input tax credit (if any) to which you are entitled for a *creditable acquisition that relates to that supply; and
 - (b) is payable by you (and is not payable by the supplier of that supply) because of the operation of Division 83, 84 or 86 of the GST Act.

27-20 Elements in calculation of amounts

In calculating an amount that you may be able to deduct:

- (a) an element in the calculation that is an amount paid or payable is treated as not including an amount equal to any *input tax credit for an *acquisition related to the amount paid or payable, or any *decreasing adjustment related to that amount; and
- (b) an element in the calculation that is an amount received or receivable is treated as not including an amount equal to any *GST payable on a *taxable supply related to the amount

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 27-25

received or receivable, or any *increasing adjustment related to that amount.

27-25 GST groups and GST joint ventures

- (1) A *member of a *GST group is to be treated, for the purposes of this Division, as if Subdivision 48-B of the *GST Act (other than subsections 48-45(3) and (4)) did not apply to that member.
- (2) A *participant in a *GST joint venture is to be treated, for the purposes of this Division, as if Subdivision 51-B of the *GST Act did not apply to that participant.

27-35 Certain sections not to apply to certain assets or expenditure

Sections 27-5, 27-10, 27-15 and 27-20 do not apply to assets, or to expenditure, for which you can deduct amounts under Division 40 or 328.

Note: See instead Subdivision 27-B.

Subdivision 27-B—Effect of input tax credits etc. on capital allowances

Table of sections

27-80	Cost or opening adjustable value of depreciating assets reduced for input tax credits
27-85	Cost or opening adjustable value of depreciating assets reduced: decreasing adjustments
27-87	Certain decreasing adjustments included in assessable income
27-90	Cost or opening adjustable value of depreciating assets increased: increasing adjustments
27-92	Certain increasing adjustments can be deducted
27-95	Balancing adjustment events
27-100	Pooling
27-105	Other Division 40 expenditure
27-110	Input tax credit etc. relating to 2 or more things

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 27-80

27-80 Cost or opening adjustable value of depreciating assets reduced for input tax credits

- (1) A *depreciating asset's *cost is reduced if:
- (a) an entity's acquisition or importation of the asset constitutes a *creditable acquisition or *creditable importation; and
 - (b) the entity is or becomes entitled to an *input tax credit for the acquisition or importation; and
 - (c) the entity can deduct amounts for the asset under Division 40 or 328.

The reduction is the amount of the input tax credit.

- (2) A *depreciating asset's *cost is also reduced if:
- (a) the entity that *holds the asset incurs expenditure that is included in the second element of the asset's cost for the income year in which the asset's *start time occurs; and
 - (b) the entity is or becomes entitled to an *input tax credit for the *creditable acquisition or *creditable importation to which the expenditure relates; and
 - (c) the entity can deduct amounts for the asset under Division 40 or 328.

The reduction is the amount of the input tax credit.

- (3) However, subsections (1) and (2) do not apply if the *cost of the *depreciating asset is modified under Division 40 to be its *market value.

- (3A) A *depreciating asset's *opening adjustable value for an income year and its *cost is reduced if:
- (a) an entity's acquisition or importation of the asset constitutes a *creditable acquisition or *creditable importation; and
 - (b) the entity is or becomes entitled to an *input tax credit in an income year (the credit year) for the acquisition or importation and the credit year occurs after the income year in which the acquisition or importation occurred; and

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 27-80

- (c) the income year is after the one in which the asset's *start time occurs; and
- (d) the entity can deduct amounts for the asset under Division 40 or 328.

The reduction is the amount of the input tax credit.

- (4) A *depreciating asset's *opening adjustable value for an income year and its *cost is reduced if:
 - (a) the entity that *holds the asset incurs expenditure that is included in the second element of the asset's cost for that income year; and
 - (b) that income year is after the one in which the asset's *start time occurs; and
 - (c) the entity is or becomes entitled to an *input tax credit for the *creditable acquisition or *creditable importation to which the expenditure relates for the income year in which the expenditure was incurred; and
 - (d) the entity can deduct amounts for the asset under Division 40 or 328.

The reduction is the amount of the input tax credit.

- (5) If the reduction under subsection (2), (3A) or (4) is more than:
 - (a) for a subsection (2) case—the *depreciating asset's *cost; or
 - (b) for a subsection (3A) or (4) case—the depreciating asset's *opening adjustable value;the excess is included in the entity's assessable income unless the entity is an *exempt entity.

Exception: pooling

- (6) This section does not apply to:
 - (a) a depreciating asset allocated to a low-value pool or a pool under Division 328 for or in the *current year; or
 - (b) *in-house software if expenditure on the software is allocated to a software development pool for the current year; or

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 27-85

- (c) a project pool.

27-85 Cost or opening adjustable value of depreciating assets reduced: decreasing adjustments

- (1) This section applies to an entity if:
- (a) the entity can deduct amounts for a *depreciating asset under Division 40 or 328; and
 - (b) the entity has a *decreasing adjustment in an income year that relates directly or indirectly to the asset.
- (1A) However, this section does not apply to a *decreasing adjustment that arises under Division 129 or 132 of the *GST Act.
- Note: See instead section 27-87.
- (2) The asset's *cost is reduced by an amount equal to the *decreasing adjustment if the adjustment arises in the income year in which the asset's *start time occurs.
- (3) The asset's *opening adjustable value for an income year and its *cost is reduced by an amount equal to the *decreasing adjustment if the adjustment arises in that year and that year is after the one in which the asset's *start time occurs.
- (4) If the reduction under subsection (2) or (3) is more than:
- (a) for a subsection (2) case—the *depreciating asset's *cost; or
 - (b) for a subsection (3) case—the depreciating asset's *opening adjustable value;
- the excess is included in the entity's assessable income unless the entity is an *exempt entity.

Exception: pooling

- (5) This section does not apply to:
- (a) a depreciating asset allocated to a low-value pool or a pool under Division 328 for or in the *current year; or

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 27-87

- (b) *in-house software if expenditure on the software is allocated to a software development pool for the current year; or
- (c) a project pool.

27-87 Certain decreasing adjustments included in assessable income

- (1) This section applies to an entity if:
 - (a) the entity can deduct amounts for a *depreciating asset under Division 40 or 328; and
 - (b) the entity has a *decreasing adjustment that arises under Division 129 or 132 of the *GST Act in an income year that relates directly or indirectly to the asset; and
 - (c) section 27-95 does not apply to the entity in relation to the asset.
- (2) The amount of the *decreasing adjustment is included in the entity's assessable income for the income year unless the entity is an *exempt entity.

27-90 Cost or opening adjustable value of depreciating assets increased: increasing adjustments

- (1) This section applies to an entity if:
 - (a) the entity can deduct amounts for a *depreciating asset under Division 40 or 328; and
 - (b) the entity has an *increasing adjustment in an income year that relates directly or indirectly to the asset.
- (1A) However, this section does not apply to an *increasing adjustment that arises under Division 129 or 132 of the *GST Act.

Note: See instead section 27-92.
- (2) The asset's *cost is increased by an amount equal to the *increasing adjustment if the adjustment arises in the income year in which the asset's *start time occurs.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 27-92

- (3) The asset's *opening adjustable value for an income year and its *cost is increased by an amount equal to the *increasing adjustment if the adjustment arises in that year and that year is after the one in which the asset's *start time occurs.

Exception: pooling

- (4) This section does not apply to:
- (a) a depreciating asset allocated to a low-value pool or a pool under Division 328 for or in the *current year; or
 - (b) *in-house software if expenditure on the software is allocated to a software development pool for the current year; or
 - (c) a project pool.

27-92 Certain increasing adjustments can be deducted

- (1) This section applies to an entity if:
- (a) the entity can deduct amounts for a *depreciating asset under Division 40 or 328; and
 - (b) the entity has an *increasing adjustment that arises under Division 129 or 132 of the *GST Act in an income year that relates directly or indirectly to the asset.
- (2) The entity can deduct the amount of the *increasing adjustment for the income year.
- (3) However, the entity cannot deduct the amount to the extent (if any) that the adjustment arises from an increase in the extent to which the activity giving rise to the adjustment is of a private or domestic nature.

27-95 Balancing adjustment events

- (1) The *termination value of a *depreciating asset is reduced if the relevant *balancing adjustment event is a *taxable supply. The reduction is an amount equal to the *GST payable on the supply.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 27-100

- (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply if the *termination value of the *depreciating asset is modified under Division 40 to be its *market value.
- (3) The *termination value of a *depreciating asset is increased if the entity that *held the asset has a *decreasing adjustment that relates directly or indirectly to that *taxable supply in the income year in which the *balancing adjustment event occurred. The increase is the amount of the decreasing adjustment.
- (4) The *termination value of a *depreciating asset is decreased if the entity that *held the asset has an *increasing adjustment that relates directly or indirectly to that *taxable supply in the income year in which the *balancing adjustment event occurred. The decrease is the amount of the increasing adjustment.
- (5) An amount is included in the assessable income of the entity that *held the asset if the entity has a *decreasing adjustment that relates directly or indirectly to that *taxable supply in a later income year. The amount included is the amount of the decreasing adjustment.
- (6) The entity that *held the asset can deduct an amount if the entity has an *increasing adjustment that relates directly or indirectly to that *taxable supply in a later income year. The amount it can deduct is the amount of the increasing adjustment.

27-100 Pooling

- (1) This section contains special rules for expenditure (the pooled expenditure) incurred by an entity:
 - (a) on a *depreciating asset allocated to a low-value pool; or
 - (b) on a depreciating asset allocated to a pool under Division 328 for or in an income year; or
 - (c) on *in-house software if the expenditure on the software is allocated to a software development pool; and

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 27-100

- (d) on *project amounts if the amounts are allocated to a project pool.

Reduction to pools etc.

- (2) There is a reduction under subsection (3) or (5) if:
 - (a) the pooled expenditure relates directly or indirectly to a *creditable acquisition or *creditable importation; and
 - (b) the entity is or becomes entitled to an *input tax credit in an income year (the credit year) for the acquisition or importation and the credit year occurs after the income year in which the acquisition or importation occurred.
- (2A) There is a reduction under subsection (4) if:
 - (a) the pooled expenditure relates directly or indirectly to a *creditable acquisition or *creditable importation; and
 - (b) the entity is or becomes entitled to an *input tax credit in an income year (the credit year) for the acquisition or importation.

Reduced cost of assets allocated to a pool

- (2B) A *depreciating asset's *cost is reduced if:
 - (a) an entity's acquisition or importation of the asset constitutes a *creditable acquisition or *creditable importation; and
 - (b) the entity is or becomes entitled to an *input tax credit for the acquisition or importation and the income year in which the acquisition or importation occurred is the same as the one in which the input tax credit arose; and
 - (c) the asset is allocated to a low-value pool or a pool under Division 328 for or in that year.

The reduction is the amount of the input tax credit.

Low-value pools

- (3) For a low-value pool, the *closing pool balance of the pool for:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

- (a) if the credit year is later than the first income year for which *depreciating assets were allocated to the pool—the income year before the credit year; or
 - (b) if the credit year is the first income year for which *depreciating assets were allocated to the pool—the credit year;
- is reduced by an amount equal to the input tax credit.

Software development pools and project pools

- (4) For a software development pool or a project pool, the expenditure in the pool for the credit year, or the *pool value for the credit year, is reduced by an amount equal to the *input tax credit.

Small business pools

- (5) For a pool under Division 328, the *opening pool balance of the pool for the credit year is reduced by an amount equal to the input tax credit.

No reduction if market value

- (5A) However, there is no reduction to the *cost of a *depreciating asset if its cost is modified under Division 40 to be its *market value.

Second element of cost

- (6) There is a reduction under subsection (7) if:
 - (a) the entity incurs expenditure in an income year (also the credit year) that is included in the second element of the *cost of a *depreciating asset allocated to a low-value pool or a pool under Division 328 for or in the credit year; and
 - (b) the entity is or becomes entitled, after the credit year, to an *input tax credit for the expenditure.
- (7) An amount equal to the amount of the *input tax credit is applied in reduction of:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 27-100

- (a) for a low-value pool:
 - (i) if the credit year is later than the first income year for which *depreciating assets were allocated to the pool—the *closing pool balance of the pool for the income year before the credit year; or
 - (ii) if the credit year is the first income year for which *depreciating assets were allocated to the pool—the *closing pool balance of the pool for the credit year; or
 - (b) for a pool under Division 328—the *opening pool balance of the pool for the credit year.
- (7A) There is a reduction to an amount of expenditure included in the second element of the *cost of a *depreciating asset if:
- (a) the asset is allocated to a low-value pool or a pool under Division 328 for or in the income year in which the expenditure was incurred; and
 - (b) the entity that incurred the expenditure is or becomes entitled to an *input tax credit for the expenditure; and
 - (c) the entitlement arises in the income year in which the expenditure was incurred.

The reduction is the amount of the input tax credit.

Increasing adjustments

- (8) There is an increase under subsection (9) if the entity has an *increasing adjustment (except one that arises under Division 129 or 132 of the *GST Act) in an income year (the adjustment year) that relates directly or indirectly to a *creditable acquisition or *creditable importation to which the pooled expenditure relates.

Note: For an increasing adjustment that arises under Division 129 or 132 of the GST Act, see section 27-92.

- (9) An amount equal to the amount of that *increasing adjustment is added to:
- (a) for a low-value pool:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

- (i) if the adjustment year is later than the first income year for which *depreciating assets were allocated to the pool—the *closing pool balance of the pool for the income year before the adjustment year; or
- (ii) if the adjustment year is the first income year for which *depreciating assets were allocated to the pool—the *closing pool balance of the pool for the adjustment year; or
- (b) for a pool under Division 328—the *opening pool balance of the pool for the adjustment year; or
- (c) for *in-house software—the amount of expenditure allocated to the software development pool for the adjustment year; or
- (d) for a project pool—the *pool value for the adjustment year.

Decreasing adjustments

- (10) There is a decrease under subsection (11) if the entity has a *decreasing adjustment (except one that arises under Division 129 or 132 of the *GST Act) in an income year (also the adjustment year) that relates directly or indirectly to a *creditable acquisition or *creditable importation to which the pooled expenditure relates.

Note: For a decreasing adjustment that arises under Division 129 or 132 of the GST Act, see section 27-87.

- (11) An amount equal to the amount of the *decreasing adjustment is applied in reduction of:
- (a) for a low-value pool:
 - (i) if the adjustment year is later than the first income year for which *depreciating assets were allocated to the pool—the *closing pool balance of the pool for the income year before the adjustment year; or
 - (ii) if the adjustment year is the first income year for which *depreciating assets were allocated to the pool—the *closing pool balance of the pool for the adjustment year; or

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 27-105

- (b) for a pool under Division 328—the *opening pool balance of the pool for the adjustment year; or
 - (c) for *in-house software—the amount of expenditure allocated to the software development pool for the adjustment year; or
 - (d) for a project pool—the *pool value for the adjustment year.
- (12) If the amount available for reduction under subsection (11) is more than the amount referred to in paragraph (11)(a), (b), (c) or (d) (whichever is applicable), the excess is included in the entity's assessable income unless the entity is an *exempt entity.

27-105 Other Division 40 expenditure

- (1) This section applies to expenditure for which an entity can deduct amounts under Division 40 (but not under Subdivision 40-B or 40-E, or Subdivision 40-I to the extent that that Subdivision relates to project pools).
- (2) The amount of the expenditure is reduced if the entity is or becomes entitled to an *input tax credit for a *creditable acquisition or *creditable importation to which the expenditure directly or indirectly relates. The reduction is the amount of the input tax credit that relates to that expenditure.
- (3) If the entity has a *decreasing adjustment in an income year that relates directly or indirectly to the expenditure, an amount equal to the decreasing adjustment is included in the entity's assessable income for that income year.
- (4) If the entity has an *increasing adjustment in an income year that relates directly or indirectly to the expenditure, the entity can deduct an amount equal to the increasing adjustment for that income year.
- (5) If the entity is a partnership and partners in that partnership can deduct amounts under Division 40 because section 40-570 or 40-665 applies, an amount equal to the *input tax credit, the *decreasing adjustment or the *increasing adjustment is apportioned to each of the partners as set out in subsection 40-570(2) or 40-665(2).

(6) However, this section does not apply to an *exempt entity.

27-110 Input tax credit etc. relating to 2 or more things

This Subdivision applies to an *input tax credit, or an *increasing adjustment or *decreasing adjustment, that relates directly or indirectly to 2 or more things of which at least one is a *depreciating asset as if a reasonable proportion of the input tax credit or adjustment related directly or indirectly to each of those depreciating assets and each of those other things.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Subdivision 28-A—Deductions for car expenses

Table of sections

28-10	Application of Division 28
28-12	Car expenses
28-13	Meaning of car expense

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 28-10

28-10 Application of Division 28

- (1) This Division applies to an individual.
- (2) It also applies to a partnership that includes at least one individual, as if the partnership were an individual.
- (3) It does not apply to any other entity.

28-12 Car expenses

- (1) If you owned or leased a *car, you can deduct for the car's expenses an amount or amounts worked out using one of 2 methods.

Note 1: For particular types of cars taken on hire you cannot use one of the 2 methods: see section 28-165.

Note 2: In certain circumstances the lessee of a luxury car is taken to be its owner (see subsection 242-15(2)).

Note 3: In certain circumstances (for example, under a hire purchase agreement) the notional buyer of property is taken to be its owner (see subsection 240-20(2)).
- (2) You must use one of the 2 methods unless an exception applies. If you can't use either of the methods, you can't deduct anything for the *car expenses.

28-13 Meaning of car expense

- (1) A car expense is a loss or outgoing to do with a *car.
- (2) In addition, any of the following is a car expense:
 - (a) a loss or outgoing to do with operating a *car;
 - (b) the decline in value of a car.
- (3) None of the following is a car expense:
 - (a) a loss or outgoing incurred, or a payment made, in respect of travel outside Australia;

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

- (b) a taxi fare or similar loss or outgoing.

Subdivision 28-B—Choosing which method to use

Guide to Subdivision 28-B

28-14 What this Subdivision is about

This Subdivision sets out the rules about choosing a method of calculating car expense deductions.

Table of sections

28-15 Choosing between the 2 methods

Operative provision

28-20 Rules governing choice of method

28-15 Choosing between the 2 methods

- (1) Below is a diagram giving information about the 2 methods of calculating car expense deductions.
- (2) The 2 methods give you the choice of which method best suits your situation and needs. For instance, one method may involve more paperwork than the other, but could give you bigger deductions.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 28-15

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Operative provision

28-20 Rules governing choice of method

- (1) You can choose only one method for all the *car expenses for the *car for the income year. Choosing one method precludes the other method.
- (2) However, you can change your choice for the income year.
Example: You choose the “log book” method and deduct $1,000. On audit, the Commissioner finds that your claim is too high and should be reduced to $500. You would have been able to deduct $700 if you had chosen the “cents per kilometre” method. This rule lets you change your choice and deduct the $700.
- (3) You can also choose different methods for the same *car for different income years and different methods for different cars for the same year.

Subdivision 28-C—The “cents per kilometre” method

Table of sections

28-25	How to calculate your deduction
28-30	Capital allowances
28-35	Substantiation

28-25 How to calculate your deduction

- (1) To calculate your deduction using the “cents per kilometre” method, use this formula:

$$\begin{array}{l} \text{Number of *business kilometres} \\ \text{travelled by the *car in the income year} \end{array} \times \begin{array}{l} \text{Rate of cents/kilometre} \\ \text{determined under subsection (4)} \\ \text{for the car for the income year} \end{array}$$

- (2) But you can use this formula for the first 5,000 *business kilometres only. If the *car travelled more than 5,000 business kilometres, you must discard the kilometres in excess of 5,000.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 28-30

Example: If the car travelled 5,085 business kilometres, you could claim for 5,000, and would lose the extra 85.

- (3) Business kilometres are kilometres the *car travelled in the course of:

- (a) producing your assessable income; or
- (b) your *travel between workplaces.

You calculate the number of business kilometres by making a reasonable estimate.

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Commissioner may, by legislative instrument, determine rates of cents per kilometre for cars for an income year.

- (5) In determining a rate, the Commissioner must have regard to the average operating costs for the cars to be covered by that rate.

Note: Examples of operating costs include fixed costs such as registration, insurance and depreciation, and variable costs such as fuel and maintenance.

28-30 Capital allowances

If a *balancing adjustment event occurs for the *car, you will need to refer to the capital allowances rules in Division 40 to find out how using this method affects the operation of those rules. See section 40-370 (about balancing adjustments for some cars).

28-35 Substantiation

To use this method, you do not need to substantiate the *car expenses for the *car.

Subdivision 28-F—The “log book” method

Table of sections

28-90	How to calculate your deduction
28-95	Eligibility

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

28-100 Substantiation

28-90 How to calculate your deduction

- (1) To use the “log book” method, you multiply the amount of each *car expense by the *business use percentage.

The expense

- (2) The expense must qualify as a deduction under some provision of this Act outside this Division (or would qualify if, while you *held the *car, you had used it only in producing your assessable income). If only part of the expense would qualify, you multiply that part by the *business use percentage.

Example: You borrow money to buy a car. You make repayments of principal and payments of interest.

You cannot deduct the repayments of principal because they are capital expenses.

The interest payments would be deductible in full if, throughout the income year, you had used the car only in producing your assessable income.

Using the “log book” method:

- if you held the car for the whole income year—multiply the interest payments by the business use percentage;
- if you held the car for only 6 months of the income year—multiply the interest payments for those 6 months by the business use percentage.

To find out whether an expense qualifies as a deduction under this Act, see Division 8 (Deductions).

The percentage

- (3) The business use percentage is calculated by dividing:

- the number of *business kilometres that the *car travelled in the period when you *held it during the income year;

by

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 28-95

- the total number of kilometres that the car travelled in that period;
and expressing the result as a percentage.
- (4) Business kilometres are kilometres the *car travelled in the course of:
 - (a) producing your assessable income; or
 - (b) your *travel between workplaces.
- (5) You calculate the number of business kilometres by making a reasonable estimate. The estimate must take into account all relevant matters, including:
 - (a) any log books, odometer records or other records you have; and
 - (b) any variations in the pattern of use of the *car; and
 - (c) any changes in the number of cars you used in the course of producing your assessable income.
- (6) You hold a *car while you own it, or it is leased to you, for use in the course of producing your assessable income, even if it is also used for some other purpose.

Note 1: In certain circumstances the lessee of a luxury car is taken to be its owner (see subsection 242-15(2)).

Note 2: In certain circumstances the notional buyer of property is taken to be its owner (see subsection 240-20(2)).

28-95 Eligibility

You can use this method only if you *held the *car for some or all of the income year.

28-100 Substantiation

- (1) To use this method, you must substantiate the *car expenses under Subdivision 900-C.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 28-105

(2) You must also keep a log book. Subdivision 28-G explains:

- how often you need to keep a log book;
- how to keep a log book.

The log book is relevant to estimating the number of business kilometres the *car travelled in the period when you *held it during the income year.

(3) You must keep odometer records for the period when you *held the *car during the income year. Subdivision 28-H tells you about odometer records, which document the total number of kilometres the car travelled in that period.

(4) You must record the following information, in writing, before you lodge your *income tax return:

- (a) your estimate of the number of *business kilometres; and
- (b) the *business use percentage.

However, the Commissioner may allow you to record the information later.

(5) You must retain the log book and the odometer records. Subdivision 28-I has the rules about this.

Subdivision 28-G—Keeping a log book

Guide to Subdivision 28-G

28-105 What this Subdivision is about

This Subdivision tells you how to keep a log book. A log book is relevant to estimating the number of business kilometres the car travelled in the period when you held it during the income year.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 28-110

Table of sections

28-110 Steps for keeping a log book

Operative provisions

28-115 Income years for which you need to keep a log book

28-120 Choosing the 12 week period for a log book

28-125 How to keep a log book

28-130 Replacing one car with another

28-110 Steps for keeping a log book

There are 3 steps you need to follow in keeping a log book:

- identify an income year for which to keep a log book;
- choose a period of at least 12 weeks for the log book to cover;
- record journeys made in the car during the log book period in the course of producing your assessable income.

Operative provisions

28-115 Income years for which you need to keep a log book

- (1) You need to keep a log book for the first income year for which you use this method for the *car.
- (2) Having kept a log book for one income year, you don't need to keep a new one for the next 4 or more income years unless subsection (3) or (4) requires it. If you haven't kept a new log book for 4 income years in a row, you must keep one for the next income year.

Example: If you keep a log book in 1997-98, you would need to keep the next one in 2002-2003, unless subsection (3) or (4) requires one sooner.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 28-120

- (3) You must keep a log book for an income year if the Commissioner sends you a notice before the year directing you to keep a log book for the *car for that year.
- (4) You must keep a log book for an income year if, during that year, you get one or more additional *cars for which you want to use the “log book” method for that year.
- (5) When you replace one *car with another, you might have a period when you *hold both the new car and the old car, or a period when you no longer *hold the old car but do not yet hold the new car. In both these cases, you are treated for the purposes of subsection (4) as if you held the one car continuously.
- (6) You may choose to keep a log book for an income year even if you don’t need to; for example, because you want to establish a higher *business use percentage.

28-120 Choosing the 12 week period for a log book

- (1) The log book must cover a continuous period of at least 12 weeks throughout which you *held the *car. If you hold the car for less than 12 weeks, the period must be the entire period for which you held the car.
- (2) The period may overlap the start or end of the income year, so long as it includes part of the year.
- (3) If you want to use the “log book” method for 2 or more *cars for the same income year, the log books for those cars must cover periods that are concurrent.

28-125 How to keep a log book

- (1) It is in your interests to record in the log book any journey made in the *car during the log book period in the course of producing your assessable income. If a journey is not recorded, the log book will indicate a lower *business use percentage than is actually the case.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 28-125

- (2) A journey is recorded by making in the log book an entry specifying:
- (a) the day the journey began and the day it ended;
 - (b) the *car's odometer readings at the start and end of the journey;
 - (c) how many kilometres the car travelled on the journey;
 - (d) why the journey was made.

The record must be made at the end of the journey or as soon as possible afterwards.

- (3) If 2 or more journeys in a row are made in the *car on the same day in the course of producing your assessable income, they can be recorded as a single journey.
- (4) The following must be entered in the log book:
- (a) when the log book period begins and ends;
 - (b) the *car's odometer readings at the start and the end of the period;
 - (c) the total number of kilometres that the car travelled during the period;
 - (d) the number of kilometres that the car travelled, in the course of producing your assessable income, on journeys recorded in the log book;
 - (e) the number of kilometres referred to in paragraph (d), expressed as a percentage of the total number referred to in paragraph (c).

Each of the entries must be made at or as soon as possible after the start or end of the period, as appropriate.

- (5) Each entry in the log book must be in English.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

28-130 Replacing one car with another

- (1) For the purposes of using the “log book” method, you may nominate one *car as having replaced another car with effect from a day specified in the nomination.
- (2) After the nomination takes effect, the replacement *car is treated as the original car, and the original car is treated as a different car. This means that you do not need to repeat for the replacement car the steps you have already taken for the original car under this Subdivision.
- (3) You must record the nomination in writing before you lodge your *income tax return for the income year in which the nomination takes effect. However, the Commissioner may allow you to do it later.
- (4) You must retain the nomination document until the end of the period for which you must retain the last log book that you began to keep for the original *car before the day of effect of the nomination.
- (5) Section 28-150 (which is about retaining log books) applies to the nomination document in the same way as it applies to that last log book.

Subdivision 28-H—Odometer records for a period

Guide to Subdivision 28-H

28-135 What this Subdivision is about

This Subdivision tells you how to keep odometer records for a car during a particular period. Odometer records document the total number of kilometres the car travelled during a particular period.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 28-140

Table of sections

Operative provision

28-140 How to keep odometer records for a car for a period

Operative provision

28-140 How to keep odometer records for a car for a period

- (1) Odometer records for a period are kept in the form of a document in which the following are entered:
 - (a) the *car's odometer readings at the start and the end of the period;
 - (b) if there is a nomination under section 28-130 to replace the car with another *car with effect from a day in that period—the odometer readings, at the end of that day, of both cars affected by the nomination.
- (2) Each entry under subsection (1) must be in English and must be made at or as soon as possible after the start or end of the period, or the end of the specified day, as appropriate.
- (3) The following must also be entered in the document:
 - (a) the *car's make, model and registration number (if any);
 - (b) if the car has an internal combustion engine—its engine capacity expressed in cubic centimetres;
 - (c) if there is a nomination under section 28-130 to replace the car with another *car—the corresponding details for the other car affected by the nomination.
- (4) Each entry under subsection (3) must be made in English and must be made before you lodge your *income tax return.
- (5) The Commissioner may allow you to make an entry under this section after you lodge your *income tax return.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Subdivision 28-I—Retaining the log book and odometer records

Table of sections

28-150	Retaining the log book for the retention period
28-155	Retaining odometer records

28-150 Retaining the log book for the retention period

- (1) You must retain the log book:
 - (a) first, until the end of the latest income year for which you rely on the log book to support your calculation of the *business use percentage for the *car; and
 - (b) then for another 5 years.The period for which you must retain the log book is called the retention period.
- (2) The 5 years start on the due day for lodging your *income tax return for that latest income year. If you lodge your return later, the 5 years start on the day you lodge it.
- (3) However, the *retention period is extended if, when the 5 years end, you are involved in a dispute with the Commissioner that relates to a deduction worked out using a *business use percentage that you are relying on the log book to support. See section 900-170.
- (4) If you do not retain the log book for the *retention period, you cannot deduct any amount worked out using a *business use percentage that you are relying on the log book to support. If you have already deducted such an amount, your assessment may be amended to disallow the deduction.
- (5) For the purposes of the rules about retaining and producing records of expenses (see Subdivision 900-G), the log book is treated as a record of the *car expenses for each year for which you use a *business use percentage that you are relying on the log book to support.

- (6) If you lose the log book, there are rules that might help you in section 900-205. For the purposes of the rules about relief from the effects of failing to substantiate (see Subdivision 900-H), not doing something required by this Division is treated in the same way as not doing something necessary to follow the rules in Division 900.

28-155 Retaining odometer records

- (1) You must retain your odometer records relating to the period when you *held the *car in the income year.
- (2) If you keep a log book for the income year, you must retain the odometer records for the same period as the log book, and section 28-150 applies to them in the same way as it applies to the log book.
- (3) If you don't keep a log book for the income year, you must retain the odometer records for the same period as written evidence of a *car expense for the *car for the income year, and section 900-75 applies to them in the same way as it applies to written evidence of an expense.

Note: Section 900-75 is about retaining written evidence of a car expense.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Subdivision 28-J—Situations where you cannot use, or do not need to use, one of the 2 methods

Guide to Subdivision 28-J

28-160 What this Subdivision is about

This Subdivision sets out the situations where you cannot use, or don't need to use, either of the 2 methods. These situations involve either the nature of your car or the way you use it.

Table of sections

Operative provisions

28-165	Exception for particular cars taken on hire
28-170	Exception for particular cars used in particular ways
28-175	Further miscellaneous exceptions
28-185	Application of Subdivision 28-J to recipients and payers of certain withholding payments

Operative provisions

28-165 Exception for particular cars taken on hire

- (1) For particular types of * cars taken on hire you cannot use one of the 2 methods to calculate your deductions for * car expenses.
- (2) Instead, you must calculate the deductions under the normal principles governing deductions, including the rules for apportioning a loss or outgoing that is only partly attributable to producing assessable income.
- (3) This section applies to a taxi taken on hire.
- (4) It also applies to a * motor vehicle taken on hire under an agreement of a kind ordinarily entered into by people who take motor vehicles

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 28-170

on hire intermittently, as the occasion requires, on an hourly, daily, weekly or short term basis, except if the motor vehicle:

- (a) has been taken on hire under successive agreements of a kind that result in substantial continuity of the motor vehicle being taken on hire; or
- (b) it is reasonable to expect that the motor vehicle will be taken on hire under successive agreements of a kind that will so result.

28-170 Exception for particular cars used in particular ways

- (1) For particular types of *cars used in particular ways you don't need to use one of the 2 methods to calculate your deductions for *car expenses.
- (2) You may use one of the 2 methods, or you may instead calculate the deductions under the normal principles governing deductions, including the rules for apportioning a loss or outgoing that is only partly attributable to producing assessable income.
- (3) This section applies if, whenever you used the *car in the income year:
 - (a) the car was covered by the description in column 2 of an item in the table below; and
 - (b) you used the car as described in column 3 of that item.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 28-170

Item	Column 2 Particular car	Column 3 Exempt use
1.	The * car was: (a) a panel van or utility truck; or (b) any other road vehicle designed to carry a load of less than 1 tonne (other than a vehicle designed principally to carry passengers); or (c) a taxi.	You used the car only in one or more of the following ways: (a) in the course of producing your assessable income; (b) to go between your residence and a place where you use the car in the course of producing your assessable income; (c) by providing the car to someone else to drive between his or her residence and a place where the car is used in the course of producing your assessable income; (d) for the purpose of travel that is incidental to using the car in the course of producing your assessable income; (e) for your own or someone else's private use that was minor, infrequent and irregular.
2.	The * car was part of the *trading stock of a *business of selling cars that you carried on.	You used the car in the course of the business.
3.	The * car was any type of car.	You let the car on lease or hire in the course of a *business of letting cars on lease or hire that you carry on.
4.	The * car was any type of car.	As an employer, you provided the car for the exclusive use of one or more of the following: (a) your employees; (b) their *relatives; in circumstances where one or more of them was entitled to use the car for private purposes. Note: This Subdivision also applies to entities that are not employers, but pay (or are liable to pay) withholding payments covered by subsection 28-185(3).

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 28-175

28-175 Further miscellaneous exceptions

- (1) This section lists some miscellaneous cases where you don't need to use one of the 2 methods to calculate your deductions for *car expenses.
- (2) You may use one of the 2 methods, or you may instead calculate the deductions under the normal principles governing deductions, including the rules for apportioning a loss or outgoing that is only partly attributable to producing assessable income.
- (3) The cases are as follows:
 - (a) the *car was unregistered throughout the period when you *held it during the income year, and during that period you used it principally in the course of producing your assessable income; or
 - (b) at some time during the income year the *car was part of the *trading stock of a *business of selling cars that you carried on, and you didn't use the car at any time during that year; or
 - (c) the expense is to do with repairs to or other work on the *car, and you incurred it in the course of a *business that you carried on of doing repairs or other work on cars.

In applying paragraph (a), the car is taken to be registered in a particular place while it is lawful to drive the car on a public road there.

28-185 Application of Subdivision 28-J to recipients and payers of certain withholding payments

Application to recipients

- (1) If an individual receives, or is entitled to receive, *withholding payments covered by subsection (3), this Subdivision applies to him or her:
 - (a) in the same way as it applies to an employee; and

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 28-185

- (b) as if an entity (a notional employer) that makes (or is liable to make) such payments to him or her were his or her employer; and
- (c) as if any other individual who receives, or is entitled to receive, such payments from a notional employer were also an employee of the notional employer.

Application to payers

- (2) This Division applies to an entity that makes, or is liable to make, *withholding payments covered by subsection (3):
 - (a) in the same way as it applies to an employer; and
 - (b) as if an individual to whom the entity makes (or is liable to make) such payments were the entity's employee.

Withholding payments covered

- (3) This subsection covers a *withholding payment covered by any of the provisions in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 listed in the table.

Withholding payments covered

Table of sections

30-5	How to find your way around this Division
30-10	Index

30-5 How to find your way around this Division

- (1) You should start at Subdivision 30-A unless you are making a contribution or gift to a political party, independent candidate or member.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 30-5

Note: Subdivision 30-DA deals with the deductibility of contributions and gifts to political parties, independent candidates and members.

- (2) Subdivision 30-A contains a table of all the gifts and contributions that you can deduct. You need to look at the table to see whether the type of gift or contribution you are making is covered by it.
 - (3) In some cases, the table sends you off to Subdivision 30-B. It has a number of tables that list particular funds, authorities or institutions that deductible gifts can be made to.
 - (4) In other cases, the table sends you off to Subdivision 30-C. It contains rules that apply to particular gifts of property.
 - (4AA) Subdivision 30-BA provides for the Commissioner to endorse as a deductible gift recipient an entity that is, or operates, a fund, authority or institution. The relevance of the Subdivision to you is that generally you can deduct only a gift you make to a recipient that is endorsed or named in:
 - (a) this Division; or
 - (b) regulations made for the purposes of this Division.
- Note: The fact that gifts to a recipient registered in the Australian Business Register are deductible will be shown in the Register.
- (4AB) Subdivision 30-CA sets out administrative rules which do not directly affect whether you can deduct a gift you make. The rules require:
 - (a) a receipt issued by an entity for a gift to the entity or to a fund, authority or institution operated by the entity to show the entity's ABN; and
 - (b) the Australian Business Registrar to enter in the Australian Business Register a statement in relation to an entity entered in the Register if:
 - (i) gifts to the entity are deductible; or
 - (ii) gifts to a fund, authority or institution operated by the entity are deductible.

Table of sections

30-15	Table of gifts or contributions that you can deduct
30-17	Requirements for certain recipients

30-15 Table of gifts or contributions that you can deduct

- (1) You can deduct a gift or contribution that you make in the situations set out in the following table. It tells you:
- who the recipient of the gift or contribution can be; and
 - the type of gift or contribution that you can make; and
 - how much you can deduct for the gift or contribution; and
 - any special conditions that apply.
- (2) A testamentary gift or contribution is not deductible under this section.

Note: Subdivision 30-DA deals with the deductibility of contributions and gifts to political parties, independent candidates and members.

30-17 Requirements for certain recipients

- (1) This section sets out requirements to be met for you to be able to deduct a gift you make to a fund, authority or institution described in the column headed “Recipient” of item 1, 2 or 4 of the table in section 30-15. However, this section does not apply to:
 - (a) a fund, authority or institution that is mentioned by name in an item of a table in Subdivision 30-B; or
 - (c) the Australian Fund.
- (2) The fund, authority or institution must:
 - (a) be an entity or *government entity that is endorsed under Subdivision 30-BA as a *deductible gift recipient; or
 - (b) in the case of a fund—either:
 - (i) be owned legally by an entity that is endorsed under Subdivision 30-BA as a *deductible gift recipient for the operation of the fund; or

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 30-17

- (ii) be under the control of one or more persons who constitute a *government entity that is endorsed under Subdivision 30-BA as a *deductible gift recipient for the operation of the fund; or
- (c) in the case of an authority or institution—be part of an entity or *government entity that is endorsed under Subdivision 30-BA as a *deductible gift recipient for the operation of the authority or institution.

Example: A public fund that is established and maintained for constructing a building to be used by a State school and is controlled by the principal of the school would be an example of a fund under the control of one or more persons who constitute a government entity that is endorsed as a deductible gift recipient for the operation of the fund, if the school were so endorsed.

 - (c) the money, property or benefits are so provided to the fund, authority or institution for any purposes set out in the item of that table in which the fund, authority or institution is described.
- (4) This subsection covers the purpose of engaging in an activity that:
- (a) is the principal activity of a fund, authority or institution described (but not by name) in an item of a table in this Subdivision (other than item 13.1.1 or 13.1.2 of the table in subsection 30-105(1)); or
 - (b) involves pursuing the principal purpose of a fund, authority or institution described (but not by name) in an item of a table in this Subdivision (other than item 13.1.1 or 13.1.2 of the table in subsection 30-105(1)).

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 30-115

Permitted purpose

- (5) This subsection covers the purpose of establishing a fund, authority or institution described (whether or not by name) in an item of a table in this Subdivision (other than item 13.1.1 or 13.1.2 of the table in subsection 30-105(1)).

Subdivision 30-BA—Endorsement of deductible gift recipients

Guide to Subdivision 30-BA

30-115 What this Subdivision is about

This Subdivision sets out rules about endorsement of entities and government entities as deductible gift recipients. Endorsement of an entity described (except by name) in Subdivision 30-A or 30-B lets you deduct a gift you make to a fund, authority or institution that is, or is operated by, the entity.

Table of sections

Endorsement as a deductible gift recipient

- 30-120 Endorsement by Commissioner
30-125 Entitlement to endorsement

Government entities treated like entities

- 30-180 How this Subdivision applies to government entities

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Endorsement as a deductible gift recipient

30-120 Endorsement by Commissioner

If an entity applies for endorsement in accordance with Division 426 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953, the Commissioner must endorse the entity:

- (a) as a *deductible gift recipient, if the entity is entitled to be endorsed as a deductible gift recipient; or
- (b) as a *deductible gift recipient for the operation of a fund, authority or institution, if the entity is entitled to be endorsed as a deductible gift recipient for the operation of the fund, authority or institution.

Note: For procedural rules relating to endorsement, see Division 426 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953.

30-125 Entitlement to endorsement

Endorsement of an entity that is a fund, authority or institution

- (1) An entity is entitled to be endorsed as a *deductible gift recipient if:
 - (a) the entity has an *ABN; and
 - (b) the entity is a fund, authority or institution that:
 - (i) is described (but not by name) in item 1, 2 or 4 of the table in section 30-15; and
 - (ii) is not described by name in Subdivision 30-B if it is described in item 1 of that table; and
 - (iii) meets the relevant conditions (if any) identified in the column headed “Special conditions” of the item of that table in which it is described; and
 - (c) the entity meets the requirements of subsection (6), unless:
 - (i) the entity is established by an Act; and

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 30-125

- (ii) the Act (or another Act) does not provide for the winding up or termination of the entity; and
- (d) in the case of an *ancillary or community charity trust fund—the fund and all of its trustees comply with the rules in the *applicable trust fund guidelines; and
- (e) in the case of a *community charity corporation—the corporation and all of its directors comply with the rules in the *community charity corporation guidelines.

Endorsement of an entity for operating a fund, authority etc.

- (2) An entity is entitled to be endorsed as a *deductible gift recipient for the operation of a fund, authority or institution that is described (but not by name) in item 1, 2 or 4 of the table in section 30-15 and is not described by name in Subdivision 30-B if:
 - (a) the entity has an *ABN; and
 - (b) the entity:
 - (i) legally owns the fund; or
 - (ii) includes the authority or institution; and
 - (c) the fund, authority or institution meets the relevant conditions (if any) identified in the column headed “Special conditions” of that item; and
 - (d) the entity meets the requirements of subsection (6), unless:
 - (i) the entity is established by an Act; and
 - (ii) the Act (or another Act) does not provide for the winding up or termination of the entity; and
 - (e) the entity meets the requirements of section 30-130, unless the entity is endorsed as a deductible gift recipient under paragraph 30-120(a).

Relevant special conditions in table in section 30-15

- (3) To avoid doubt:
 - (a) a condition requiring the fund, authority or institution to meet the requirements of section 30-17 is not a relevant condition

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 30-125

for the purposes of subparagraph (1)(b)(iii) or paragraph (2)(c) of this section; and

Note: Section 30-17 requires the entity to be endorsed under this Subdivision as a deductible gift recipient.

- (b) in the case of a fund, authority or institution that is described in item 1 of the table in section 30-15—a condition set out in the relevant table item in Subdivision 30-B, including a condition identified in the column headed “Special conditions—fund, authority or institution” of that item (if any), is a relevant condition for the purposes of subparagraph (1)(b)(iii) or paragraph (2)(c) of this section.

Note: Paragraph (c) of the column headed “Special conditions” of item 1 of the table in section 30-15 requires any conditions set out in the relevant table item in Subdivision 30-B to be satisfied.

Transfer of assets from fund, authority or institution

- (6) A law (outside this Subdivision), a document constituting the entity or rules governing the entity’s activities must require the entity, at the first occurrence of an event described in subsection (7), to transfer to a fund, authority or institution gifts to which can be deducted under this Division:
- (a) any surplus assets of the gift fund (see section 30-130); or
 - (b) if the entity is not required by this section to meet the requirements of section 30-130—any surplus:
 - (i) gifts of money or property for the principal purpose of the fund, authority or institution; and
 - (ii) contributions described in item 7 or 8 of the table in section 30-15 in relation to a *fund-raising event held for that purpose; and
 - (iii) money received by the entity because of such gifts or contributions.

Events requiring transfer

- (7) The events are:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 30-130

- (a) the winding up of the fund, authority or institution; and
- (b) if the entity is endorsed because of a fund, authority or institution—the revocation of the entity’s endorsement under this Subdivision relating to the fund, authority or institution.

Note 1: There are 2 ways an entity can be endorsed because of a fund, authority or institution. An entity can be endorsed either because it is a fund, authority or institution or because it operates a fund, authority or institution.

Note 2: Section 426-55 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 deals with revocation of endorsement.

Note 3: The entity is also required to keep appropriate records: see section 382-15 of the Taxation Administration Act 1953.

30-130 Maintaining a gift fund

- (1) The entity must maintain for the principal purpose of the fund, authority or institution a fund (the gift fund):
 - (a) to which gifts of money or property for that purpose are to be made; and
 - (b) to which contributions described in item 7 or 8 of the table in section 30-15 in relation to a *fund-raising event held for that purpose are to be made; and
 - (c) to which any money received by the entity because of such gifts or contributions is to be credited; and
 - (d) that does not receive any other money or property.
- (2) The entity must use the gift fund only for the principal purpose of the fund, authority or institution.

Exception—only one gift fund required per entity

- (3) An entity that operates 2 or more funds, authorities or institutions also meets the requirements of this section for 2 or more of those funds, authorities or institutions by maintaining a single gift fund if:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 30-180

- (a) the gift fund meets the requirements in paragraphs (1)(a), (b) and (c) in respect of each of the funds, authorities or institutions for which the gift fund is maintained; and
 - (b) the gift fund does not receive any other money or property.
- (4) The entity must use a gift or contribution made to the fund and any money credited to the fund only for the principal purpose of the fund, authority or institution to which the gift, contribution or money relates.

Note: The entity is also required to keep appropriate records for each of the funds, authorities or institutions: see section 382-15 of the Taxation Administration Act 1953.

Government entities treated like entities

30-180 How this Subdivision applies to government entities

- (1) The other sections of this Subdivision apply in relation to a *government entity in the same way as they apply in relation to an entity.
- (2) Subparagraph 30-125(2)(b)(i) (as applied by this section) operates as if it referred to the *government entity consisting of persons, one or more of whom controlled the fund (instead of referring to the entity legally owning the fund).

Subdivision 30-C—Rules applying to particular gifts of property

Table of sections

Valuation requirements

30-200	Getting written valuations
30-205	Proceeds of the sale would have been assessable
30-210	Approved valuers
30-212	Valuations by the Commissioner

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 30-200

Working out the amount you can deduct for a gift of property

- 30-215 How much you can deduct
30-220 Reducing the amount you can deduct

Joint ownership of property

- 30-225 Gift of property by joint owners

Valuation requirements

30-200 Getting written valuations

- (1) You satisfy the valuation requirements if you get 2 or more written valuations of the gift you made.

Note 1: In most cases, you need to get these written valuations to be able to deduct a gift of property that you make to a recipient covered by item 4, 5 or 6 of the table in section 30-15.

Note 2: You do not need to get written valuations in the circumstances set out in section 30-205.

- (2) The valuations must be by different individuals, each of whom is an approved valuer of the kind of property you are giving away.

Note: Section 30-210 deals with how an individual becomes an approved valuer.

- (3) Each valuation must state the amount that, in the opinion of the valuer, was:

- (a) the *GST inclusive market value of the property on the day you made the gift; or
- (b) the *GST inclusive market value of the property on the day the valuation was made.

- (4) If a valuation states the *GST inclusive market value of the property on the day the valuation was made, it must have been made within 90 days before or after the gift was made. However, the Commissioner may allow a longer period than this.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

30-205 Proceeds of the sale would have been assessable

- (1) You do not need to get written valuations of the gift you made if:
 - (a) no amount is included in your assessable income in respect of the gift you made; but
 - (b) an amount would have been included in your assessable income if you had sold the property instead of making the gift.
- (2) However, this section does not apply if, apart from the operation of subsection 118-60(2), an amount would have been included in your assessable income in respect of the gift you made.

30-210 Approved valuers

- (1) The *Arts Secretary may approve an individual as a valuer of a particular kind of property. The approval must be in writing, signed by the Secretary.
- (2) The Secretary must, in deciding whether to approve an individual, have regard to:
 - (a) the individual's qualifications, experience and knowledge in valuing that kind of property; and
 - (b) the individual's knowledge of the current *GST inclusive market value of that kind of property; and
 - (c) the individual's standing in the professional community.

30-212 Valuations by the Commissioner

- (1) If you make a gift or contribution that is covered by a provision of this Division that refers to the value of property as determined by the Commissioner, you must seek the valuation from the Commissioner.
- (2) The Commissioner may charge you the amount worked out in accordance with the regulations for making the valuation.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 30-215

Working out the amount you can deduct for a gift of property

30-215 How much you can deduct

- (1) This section contains the rules for working out how much you can deduct for a gift of property that you make to a recipient covered by item 4, 5 or 6 of the table in section 30-15.
- (2) The general rule is that the amount you can deduct for a gift of this kind is the average of the *GST inclusive market values (as reduced under subsection 30-15(3) if that subsection applies) specified in the written valuations you got from the approved valuers.

Note: In some situations you must reduce the amount you can deduct: see section 30-220.

- (3) The exceptions to the general rule are set out in this table:

Amount you can deduct for a gift of property
Item	In this case:	The amount you can deduct is:
1	Section 30-205 (which is about the proceeds of the sale being assessable) applies, and you bought the property	the amount you paid for the property, reduced by the amount of any *input tax credit to which you are or were entitled for your *acquisition of the property
2	Section 30-205 (which is about the proceeds of the sale being assessable) applies, and you created or produced the property	so much of the cost of creation or production as you would have been able to deduct if you had sold the property, reduced by the amount of any *input tax credit to which you are or were entitled for your *acquisitions to the extent that they were made for the purpose of creating or producing the property

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 30-220

Amount you can deduct for a gift of property

Item	In this case:	The amount you can deduct is:
3	Neither of cases 1 and 2 applies, and you acquired the property: (a) less than one year before making the gift (otherwise than by inheriting it); or (b) for the purpose of giving it away; or (c) subject to an *arrangement that the property would be given away	the lesser of the amount you paid for the property and: (a) if the average of the written valuations you got fairly represents the *GST inclusive market value (as reduced under subsection (4) if that subsection applies) of the property on the day you made the gift—that average; or (b) if it does not—the *GST inclusive market value (as reduced under subsection (4) if that subsection applies) of the property on the day you made the gift
4	None of cases 1 to 3 applies, and the average of the written valuations you got does not fairly represent the *market value of the property on the day you made the gift	the *GST inclusive market value (as reduced under subsection (4) if that subsection applies) of the property on the day you made the gift

(4) For the purposes of items 3 and 4 of the table in subsection (3), the *GST inclusive market values of the property in question are reduced by $\frac{1}{11}$ if you would have been entitled to an *input tax credit if:

- (a) you had *acquired the property at the time you made the gift; and
- (b) your acquisition had been for a *creditable purpose.

30-220 Reducing the amount you can deduct

- (1) The amount you can deduct is reduced by a reasonable amount if:
 - (a) the terms and conditions on which the gift is made are such that the recipient:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 30-225

- (i) does not receive immediate custody and control of the property; or
 - (ii) does not have the unconditional right to retain custody and control of the property in perpetuity; or
 - (iii) does not obtain an immediate, indefeasible and unencumbered legal and equitable title to the property; or
 - (b) the custody, control or use of the property by the recipient is affected by an *arrangement entered into in respect of the making of the gift.
- (2) In deciding what is a reasonable amount, have regard to the effect of those terms and conditions, or that *arrangement, on the *GST inclusive market value of the gift.

Joint ownership of property

30-225 Gift of property by joint owners

If:

- (a) you own property jointly with one or more other entities; and
- (b) you and the other entities make a gift of the property; and
- (c) you would have been able to deduct the gift under section 30-15 because of item 4, 5 or 6 of the table in that section if you had made a gift of the property as sole owner of it;

you can deduct so much of the gift as is reasonable, having regard to your interest in the property.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Subdivision 30-CA—Administrative requirements relating to ABNs

Guide to Subdivision 30-CA

30-226 What this Subdivision is about

An entity must ensure certain details must appear on a receipt it issues for a gift that:

- (a) is made to the entity or a fund, authority or institution it operates; and
- (b) is of a kind that the giver can deduct under Subdivision 30-A.

If the entity has an ABN, the Australian Business Registrar must state in the Australian Business Register that the entity is a deductible gift recipient.

Table of sections

Requirements

30-227	Entities to which this Subdivision applies
30-228	Content of receipt for gift or contribution
30-229	Australian Business Register must show deductibility of gifts to deductible gift recipient

Requirements

30-227 Entities to which this Subdivision applies

- (1) This Subdivision sets out requirements relating to a *deductible gift recipient.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 30-228

- (2) A deductible gift recipient is an entity or *government entity that:
- (a) is a fund, authority or institution described in item 1, 2, 4, 5 or 6 of the table in section 30-15 and is:
 - (i) endorsed under Subdivision 30-BA as a deductible gift recipient; or
 - (ii) mentioned by name in that table or in Subdivision 30-B; or
 - (b) is endorsed as a deductible gift recipient for the operation of a fund, authority or institution described in item 1, 2 or 4 of the table in section 30-15.

30-228 Content of receipt for gift or contribution

- (1) If a *deductible gift recipient issues a receipt for a gift described in the relevant item of the table in section 30-15 to the fund, authority or institution, the deductible gift recipient must ensure that the receipt states:
- (a) the name of the fund, authority or institution; and
 - (b) the *ABN (if any) of the deductible gift recipient; and
 - (c) the fact that the receipt is for a gift.

Note: If the deductible gift recipient is endorsed as a deductible gift recipient and it contravenes this section, the Commissioner may revoke its endorsement: see section 426-55 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953.

- (2) If a *deductible gift recipient issues a receipt for a contribution described in item 7 of the table in section 30-15, the deductible gift recipient must ensure that the receipt states:
- (a) the name of the deductible gift recipient; and
 - (b) the *ABN (if any) of the deductible gift recipient; and
 - (c) the fact that the receipt is for a contribution made in return for a right to attend, or participate in, a specified *fund-raising event; and
 - (d) if the contribution is money—the amount of the contribution; and

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 30-229

- (e) the amount of the *GST inclusive market value, on the day the contribution was made, of the right to attend, or participate in, the fund-raising event.
- (3) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(e), in working out the *GST inclusive market value of the right in question, disregard anything that would prevent or restrict conversion of the right to money.
- (4) If a *deductible gift recipient issues a receipt for a contribution described in item 8 of the table in section 30-15, the deductible gift recipient must ensure that the receipt states:
 - (a) the name of the deductible gift recipient; and
 - (b) the *ABN (if any) of the deductible gift recipient; and
 - (c) the fact that the receipt is for a contribution made by way of consideration for the supply of goods or services; and
 - (d) the fact that the contribution was made because the contributor was the successful bidder at an auction that:
 - (i) was a specified *fund-raising event; or
 - (ii) was held at a specified fund-raising event; and
 - (e) if the contribution is money—the amount of the contribution; and
 - (f) the *GST inclusive market value, on the day the contribution was made, of the goods or services.
- (5) For the purposes of paragraph (4)(f), in working out the *GST inclusive market value of the goods or services in question, disregard anything that would prevent or restrict conversion of the goods or services to money.

30-229 Australian Business Register must show deductibility of gifts to deductible gift recipient

- (1) If a *deductible gift recipient has an *ABN, the *Australian Business Registrar must enter in the *Australian Business Register in relation to the deductible gift recipient a statement that it is a deductible gift recipient for a specified period.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 30-229

Note 1: An entry (or lack of entry) of a statement required by this section does not affect whether you can deduct a gift to the fund, authority or institution.

Note 2: This section will apply to all entities and government entities that are endorsed as deductible gift recipients under Subdivision 30-BA, because they must have ABNs to be endorsed. It will also apply to other entities described or named in Subdivision 30-A if they have ABNs.

- (2) If the *deductible gift recipient is a deductible gift recipient only because it is endorsed under Subdivision 30-BA as a deductible gift recipient for the operation of a fund, authority or institution, the statement must name the fund, authority or institution.

(2A) If:

- (a) the *deductible gift recipient is:
- (i) a fund, authority or institution; or
 - (ii) a deductible gift recipient only because it is endorsed under Subdivision 30-BA as a deductible gift recipient for the operation of a fund, authority or institution; and
- (b) the fund, authority or institution is covered by item 1, 2 or 4 of the table in section 30-15;

the statement must specify that the fund, authority or institution is covered by that item.

- (3) The *Australian Business Registrar may remove the statement from the *Australian Business Register after the end of the period.
- (4) The *Australian Business Registrar must take reasonable steps to ensure that a statement appearing in the *Australian Business Register under this section is true. For this purpose, the Registrar may:
- (a) change the statement; or
 - (b) remove the statement from the Register if the statement is not true; or
 - (c) remove the statement from the Register and enter another statement in the Register under this section.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Subdivision 30-DA—Donations to political parties and independent candidates and members

Guide to Subdivision 30-DA

30-241 What this Subdivision is about

Generally, you can deduct certain contributions and gifts to political parties, independent candidates and members.

Contributions and gifts must be at least $2 and there is a limit on the total amount that you can deduct.

Table of sections

Operative provisions

30-242	Deduction for political contributions and gifts
30-243	Amount of the deduction
30-244	When an individual is an independent candidate
30-245	When an individual is an independent member

Operative provisions

30-242 Deduction for political contributions and gifts

- (1) You can deduct any of the following for the income year in which they are made:
 - (a) a contribution or gift to a political party that is registered under Part XI of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 or under corresponding State or Territory legislation;
 - (b) a contribution or gift to an individual when the individual is an *independent candidate for a Commonwealth, State, Northern Territory or Australian Capital Territory election;

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 30-242

- (c) a contribution or gift to an individual who is, or was, an *independent member of the Commonwealth Parliament, a State Parliament, the Legislative Assembly of the Northern Territory or the Legislative Assembly for the Australian Capital Territory.
- (2) The contribution or gift must be of:
 - (a) money; or
 - (b) property that you purchased during the 12 months before making the contribution or gift.
- (3) The value of the contribution or gift must be at least $2.
- (3A) You can deduct the contribution or gift only if:
 - (a) you are an individual; and
 - (b) you do not make the gift or contribution in the course of carrying on a *business.
- (4) You cannot deduct a testamentary contribution or gift under this Subdivision.
- (5) A contribution or gift to an individual who is, or was, an *independent member must be made:
 - (a) when the individual is an independent member; or
 - (b) if the individual ceases to be an independent member because:
 - (i) a Parliament, a House of a Parliament or a Legislative Assembly is dissolved or has reached its maximum duration; or
 - (ii) the individual comes up for election;
after the individual ceases to be a member but before candidates for the resulting election are declared or otherwise publicly announced by an entity authorised under the relevant electoral legislation.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

30-243 Amount of the deduction

- (1) If the contribution or gift is money, the amount of the deduction is the amount of money.
- (2) If the contribution or gift is property, the amount of the deduction is the lesser of:
 - (a) the market value of the property on the day that you made the contribution or gift; and
 - (b) the amount that you paid for the property.

$1,500 limit on deductions

- (3) You cannot deduct more than $1,500 under this Subdivision for an income year for contributions and gifts to political parties.
- (4) You cannot deduct more than $1,500 under this Subdivision for an income year for contributions and gifts to *independent candidates or *independent members.

30-244 When an individual is an independent candidate

- (1) An individual is an independent candidate if:
 - (a) the individual is a candidate in an election (including an election that is later declared void) for members of the Commonwealth Parliament, a State Parliament, the Legislative Assembly of the Northern Territory or the Legislative Assembly for the Australian Capital Territory; and
 - (b) the individual's candidature is not endorsed by a political party that is registered under Part XI of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 or under corresponding State or Territory legislation.
- (2) However, an individual does not start being an *independent candidate until the candidates for the election are declared or otherwise publicly announced by an entity authorised under the relevant electoral legislation.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 30-245

- (3) An individual stops being an *independent candidate when the result of the election is declared or otherwise publicly announced by an entity authorised under the relevant electoral legislation.
- (4) If:
- (a) the election is taken to have wholly failed under the relevant electoral legislation; and
 - (b) the result of the election has not been declared or otherwise publicly announced by an entity authorised under the relevant electoral legislation;
- the individual stops being an *independent candidate in that election when candidates for the replacement election are declared or otherwise publicly announced by an entity authorised under the relevant electoral legislation.

30-245 When an individual is an independent member

- (1) An individual is an independent member of the Commonwealth Parliament, a State Parliament, the Legislative Assembly of the Northern Territory or the Legislative Assembly for the Australian Capital Territory if the individual:
- (a) is a member of that Parliament or Legislative Assembly; and
 - (b) the individual is not a member of a political party that is registered under Part XI of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 or under corresponding State or Territory legislation.
- (2) An individual who becomes a member as a result of an election (including an election that is later declared void) is taken to start being a member of the Parliament or Legislative Assembly when the individual's election as a member is declared or otherwise publicly announced by an entity authorised under the relevant electoral legislation.

Operative provisions

30-247 Gifts and covenants for which elections can be made

- (1) An election under this Subdivision may be made for a gift, made on or after 1 July 2003, that is:
- (a) a gift of:
- (i) money; or
 - (ii) property valued by the Commissioner at more than $5,000; made to a fund, authority or institution covered by item 1 or 2 of the table in section 30-15; or

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 30-248

- (b) a gift that is covered by item 4, 5 or 6 of the table in section 30-15.
- (2) An election under this Subdivision may also be made for entering into a *conservation covenant, under Division 31, on or after 1 July 2003.

30-248 Making an election

- (1) If you can deduct an amount:
 - (a) under this Division for a gift covered by subsection 30-247(1); or
 - (b) under Division 31 for entering into a *conservation covenant covered by subsection 30-247(2);you may make a written election to spread that deduction over the current income year and up to 4 of the immediately following income years.
- (2) In the election, you must specify the percentage (if any) of the deduction that you will deduct in each of the income years.
- (3) You must make the election before you lodge your *income tax return for the income year in which you made the gift or entered into the covenant.
- (4) You may vary an election at any time. However, the variation can only change the percentage that you will deduct in respect of income years for which you have not yet lodged an *income tax return.
- (5) Unless section 30-249A or 30-249B applies, the election and any variation must be in the *approved form.

Note: Sections 30-249A and 30-249B provide for the form of elections and variations for gifts covered by those sections.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

30-249 Effect of election

- (1) In each of the income years you specified in the election, you can deduct the amount corresponding to the percentage you specified for that year.
- (2) You cannot deduct the amount that you otherwise would have been able to deduct for the gift in the income year in which you made the gift or entered into the covenant.

30-249A Requirements—environmental property gifts

- (1) This section applies if you make an election for a gift of property made to a fund, authority or institution covered by section 30-55.
- (2) You must give a copy of the election to the *Environment Secretary before you lodge your *income tax return for the income year in which you made the gift.
- (3) If you vary the election, you must give a copy of the variation to the *Environment Secretary before you lodge your *income tax return for the first income year to which the variation applies.
- (4) The election and any variation must be in a form approved in writing by the *Environment Secretary.

30-249B Requirements—heritage property gifts

- (1) This section applies if you make an election for a gift of property made to a fund, authority or institution covered by item 6 of the table in section 30-15.
- (2) You must give a copy of the election to the *Heritage Secretary before you lodge your *income tax return for the income year in which you made the gift.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 30-249D

- (3) If you vary the election, you must give a copy of the variation to the *Heritage Secretary before you lodge your *income tax return for the first income year to which the variation applies.
- (4) The election and any variation must be in a form approved in writing by the *Heritage Secretary.

30-249D Requirements—conservation covenants

- (1) This section applies if you make an election for a *conservation covenant.
- (2) You must give a copy of the election to the *Environment Secretary before you lodge your *income tax return for the income year in which you entered the covenant.
- (3) If you vary the election, you must give a copy of the variation to the *Environment Secretary before you lodge your *income tax return for the first income year to which the variation applies.

Section 31-1

Division 31—Conservation covenants

Guide to Division 31

31-1 What this Division is about

You can deduct an amount if you enter into a conservation covenant over land that you own and you satisfy certain conditions.

The amount you can deduct is the difference between the market value of the land just before and after you enter into the covenant.

Table of sections

Operative provisions

- | | |
|-------|---|
| 31-5 | Deduction for entering into conservation covenant |
| 31-10 | Requirements for fund, authority or institution |
| 31-15 | Valuations by the Commissioner |

Operative provisions

31-5 Deduction for entering into conservation covenant

- (1) You can deduct an amount if:
 - (a) you enter into a *conservation covenant over land you own;
and
 - (b) the conditions set out in subsection (2) are met.
- (2) These conditions must be satisfied:
 - (a) the covenant must be perpetual;
 - (b) you must not receive any money, property or other material benefit for entering into the covenant;

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 31-5

- (c) the *market value of the land must decrease as a result of your entering into the covenant;
- (d) one or both of these must apply:
 - (i) the change in the market value of the land as a result of entering into the covenant must be more than $5,000;
 - (ii) you must have entered into a contract to acquire the land not more than 12 months before you entered into the covenant;
- (e) the covenant must have been entered into with:
 - (i) a fund, authority or institution that meets the requirements of section 31-10; or
 - (ii) the Commonwealth, a State, a Territory or a *local governing body; or
 - (iii) an authority of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory.

Note: You must seek a valuation of the change in market value from the Commissioner: see section 31-15.

- (3) The amount you can deduct is the difference between the *market value of the land just before you entered the covenant and its decreased market value just after that time, but only to the extent that the decrease is attributable to your entering into the covenant.

Note: You can spread the deduction over a 5 year period: see Subdivision 30-DB.

- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(a), a covenant is treated as being perpetual even if a Minister of a State or Territory has a power to rescind it.
- (5) A conservation covenant over land is a covenant that:
 - (a) restricts or prohibits certain activities on the land that could degrade the environmental value of the land; and
 - (b) is permanent and registered on the title to the land (if registration is possible); and

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 31-10

- (c) is approved in writing by, or is entered into under a program approved in writing by, the *Environment Minister.

31-10 Requirements for fund, authority or institution

- (1) The fund, authority or institution:
 - (a) must be covered by an item in any of the tables in Subdivision 30-B and must meet any conditions set out in the relevant table item; or
 - (b) must be an *ancillary fund established under a will or instrument of trust solely for:
 - (i) the purpose of providing money, property or benefits to a fund, authority or institution mentioned in paragraph (a) and for any purposes set out in the item of the table in Subdivision 30-B that covers the fund, authority or institution; or
 - (ii) the establishment of such a fund, authority or institution.
- (2) If the fund, authority or institution is not listed specifically in Subdivision 30-B, it must also:
 - (a) be in Australia; and
 - (b) meet the requirements of section 30-17 (about the endorsement of deductible gift recipients).

31-15 Valuations by the Commissioner

- (1) You must seek a valuation of the change in the *market value of the land from the Commissioner for the purposes of this Division.
- (2) The Commissioner may charge you the amount worked out in accordance with the regulations for making the valuation.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Division 32—Entertainment expenses

Table of Subdivisions

	Guide to Division 32
32-A	No deduction for entertainment expenses
32-B	Exceptions
32-C	Definitions relevant to the exceptions
32-D	In-house dining facilities (employer expenses table item 1.2)
32-E	Anti-avoidance
32-F	Special rules for companies and partnerships

Guide to Division 32

32-1 What this Division is about

You cannot deduct costs of providing entertainment. Nor can you deduct amounts for property that you use for providing entertainment. But there are exceptions.

Subdivision 32-A—No deduction for entertainment expenses

Table of sections

32-5	No deduction for entertainment expenses
32-10	Meaning of entertainment
32-15	No deduction for property used for providing entertainment

32-5 No deduction for entertainment expenses

To the extent that you incur a loss or outgoing in respect of providing *entertainment, you cannot deduct it under section 8-1.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 32-10

However, there are exceptions, which are set out in Subdivision 32-B.

- Note 1: Under section 8-1 you can deduct a loss or outgoing that you incur for the purpose of producing assessable income.
- Note 2: If you have used your property in providing entertainment, you may not be able to deduct an amount for the property: see section 32-15.
- Note 3: Section 32-75 deals with arrangements to avoid the operation of this section.

32-10 Meaning of entertainment

- (1) Entertainment means:
- (a) entertainment by way of food, drink or *recreation; or
 - (b) accommodation or travel to do with providing entertainment by way of food, drink or *recreation.
- (2) You are taken to provide entertainment even if business discussions or transactions occur.

Note: These are some examples of what is entertainment:

- business lunches
- social functions.

These are some examples of what is not entertainment:

- meals on business travel overnight
- theatre attendance by a critic
- a restaurant meal of a food writer.

32-15 No deduction for property used for providing entertainment

To the extent that you use property in providing *entertainment, your use of the property is taken not to be for the *purpose of producing assessable income if section 32-5 would stop you deducting a loss or outgoing if you incurred it in the income year in providing the entertainment.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Note: Under some provisions of this Act, in order to deduct an amount for your property, you must have used the property for the purpose of producing assessable income.

Subdivision 32-B—Exceptions

Table of sections

32-20	The main exception—fringe benefits
32-25	The tables set out the other exceptions
32-30	Employer expenses
32-35	Seminar expenses
32-40	Entertainment industry expenses
32-45	Promotion and advertising expenses
32-50	Other expenses

32-20 The main exception—fringe benefits

Section 32-5 does not stop you deducting a loss or outgoing to the extent that you incur it in respect of providing *entertainment by way of *providing a *fringe benefit.

But this exception does not apply to the extent that the taxable value of the *fringe benefit is reduced under section 63A of the Fringe Benefits Tax Assessment Act 1986.

Note 1: You may be able to deduct losses or outgoings that are fringe benefits under section 51AEA, 51AEB or 51AEC of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936. If you do, then you cannot deduct them under section 8-1 (about general deductions) and so this section is not relevant.

Note 2: There are other exceptions for a loss or outgoing you incur in providing a benefit that would be a fringe benefit if it were not an exempt benefit: see items 1.6 and 1.7 of the table in section 32-30.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 32-25

32-25 The tables set out the other exceptions

Section 32-5 does not stop you deducting a loss or outgoing to the extent that you incur it in respect of providing *entertainment as described in column 2 of an item of a table in this Subdivision.

However, if column 3 of that item applies, the exception in column 2 of that item does not.

32-30 Employer expenses

Employer expenses
Item	Section 32-5 does not stop you deducting a loss or outgoing for ...	But the exception does not apply if ...
1.1	providing food or drink to your employees in an *in-house dining facility.	the food or drink is provided at a party, reception or other social function.
1.2	providing food or drink to individuals (other than your employees) in an *in-house dining facility.	(a) you choose (under section 32-70) not to include in your assessable income $30 for each meal you provide in the *in-house dining facility in the income year to an individual (other than your employee); or (b) the food or drink is provided at a party, reception or other social function.
1.3	providing food or drink in a *dining facility to your employees who perform most of their duties in connection with: (a) the dining facility; or (b) a facility (of which the dining facility forms a part) for providing accommodation,	the food or drink is provided at a party, reception or other social function.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 32-50

32-50 Other expenses

Other expenses
Item	Section 32-5 does not stop you deducting a loss or outgoing for ...	But the exception does not apply if ...
5.1	buying food or drink to do with overtime that you work, if you receive an allowance under an *industrial instrument to buy the food or drink.
5.2	providing *entertainment free to members of the public who are sick, disabled, poor or otherwise disadvantaged.

Subdivision 32-C—Definitions relevant to the exceptions

Table of sections

32-55	In-house dining facility (employer expenses table items 1.1 and 1.2)
32-60	Dining facility (employer expenses table item 1.3)
32-65	Seminars (seminar expenses table item 2.1)

32-55 In-house dining facility (employer expenses table items 1.1 and 1.2)

An in-house dining facility is a canteen, dining room or similar facility that:

- (a) is on property you occupy; and
- (b) is operated mainly for providing food and drink to your employees; and
- (c) is not open to the public.

Note 1: In the case of a company, this definition also covers directors of the company as if they were employees: see section 32-80.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 32-60

Note 2: In the case of a company, this definition also covers directors, employees and property of another company that is a member of the same wholly-owned group: see section 32-85.

32-60 Dining facility (employer expenses table item 1.3)

A dining facility is:

- (a) a canteen, dining room or similar facility; or
- (b) a cafe, restaurant or similar facility;

that is on property you occupy.

Note: In the case of a company, this definition also covers property of another company that is a member of the same wholly-owned group: see section 32-85.

32-65 Seminars (seminar expenses table item 2.1)

- (1) Seminar includes a conference, convention, lecture, meeting (including a meeting for the presentation of awards), speech, “question and answer session”, training session or educational course.
- (2) In working out whether a *seminar goes for at least 4 hours the following are taken not to affect the seminar’s continuity, nor to form part of it:
 - (a) any part of the seminar that occurs during a meal;
 - (b) any break during the seminar for the purpose of a meal, rest or *recreation.
- (3) A *seminar is a business meeting if its main purpose is for individuals who are (or will be) associated with the carrying on of a particular *business to give or receive information, or discuss matters, relating to the business.

However, the *seminar is not a business meeting if it:

- (a) is organised by (or on behalf of) an employer solely for either or both of these purposes:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 32-70

- (i) training the employer and the employer's employees (or just those employees) in matters relevant to the employer's *business (or prospective *business);
 - (ii) enabling the employer and the employer's employees (or just those employees) to discuss general policy issues relevant to the internal management of the employer's *business; and
- (b) is conducted on property that is occupied by a person (other than the employer) whose *business includes organising seminars or making property available for conducting seminars.

Note 1: In the case of a company, subsection (3) covers directors of the company as if they were employees: see section 32-80.

Note 2: In the case of a company, paragraph (3)(b) also covers property of another company that is a member of the same wholly-owned group: see section 32-85.

Note 3: Subsection (3) has a special operation for partnerships: see section 32-90.

Subdivision 32-D—In-house dining facilities (employer expenses table item 1.2)

Table of sections

32-70	$30 is assessable for each meal provided to non-employee in an in-house dining facility
-------	--

32-70 $30 is assessable for each meal provided to non-employee in an in-house dining facility

- (1) Your assessable income includes $30 for a meal you provide in an *in-house dining facility in the income year to an individual other than your employee, but only if:
- (a) you incur a loss or outgoing in respect of providing the meal; and

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 32-75

- (b) because of item 1.2 of the table in section 32-30, section 32-5 does not stop you deducting the loss or outgoing under section 8-1 (which deals with general deductions); and
 - (c) the loss or outgoing is one that you can deduct under section 8-1 for the income year or some other income year.
- (2) However, you can choose not to include in your assessable income $30 for each meal you provide in the *in-house dining facility in the income year to an individual other than your employee.
- Note: If you do choose, you cannot rely on item 1.2 of the table in section 32-30 as a basis for deducting a loss or outgoing you incur in respect of providing a meal.
- (3) You must choose by the day you lodge your *income tax return for the income year, or within a further time allowed by the Commissioner.

Subdivision 32-E—Anti-avoidance

Table of sections

32-75 Commissioner may treat you as having incurred entertainment expense

32-75 Commissioner may treat you as having incurred entertainment expense

If:

- (a) you incur a loss or outgoing under an *arrangement; and
- (b) someone provides *entertainment under the arrangement to you or someone else; and
- (c) section 32-5 would have stopped you deducting the loss or outgoing under section 8-1 (which deals with general deductions) if you had incurred it in respect of providing that entertainment;

this Division applies to you as if you had incurred the loss or outgoing in providing that entertainment, to the extent (if any) that the Commissioner thinks reasonable.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 32-80

Note: This means that section 32-5 will prevent you from deducting the loss or outgoing under section 8-1 unless an exception applies.

Example: A company pays $1,000 to sponsor a football game. Under the same arrangement, the company is given a viewing box at the game. To the extent the Commissioner thinks reasonable, he or she can treat the company as having incurred the $1,000 in providing entertainment.

Subdivision 32-F—Special rules for companies and partnerships

Table of sections

32-80	Company directors
32-85	Directors, employees and property of wholly-owned group company
32-90	Partnerships

32-80 Company directors

In the case of a company, these provisions cover directors of the company as if they were the company's employees:

- item 1.1 (exception for *in-house dining facilities) of the table in section 32-30;
- item 1.2 (exception for *in-house dining facilities) of the table in section 32-30;
- item 1.3 (exception for *dining facilities) of the table in section 32-30;
- item 1.5 (exception for recreational facilities) of the table in section 32-30;
- item 1.8 (exception for providing your employee with an allowance) of the table in section 32-30;
- section 32-55 (which defines in-house dining facility);

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

- subsection 32-65(3) (which defines business meeting).

32-85 Directors, employees and property of wholly-owned group company

Employees and directors of group company

- (1) In the case of a company, these provisions cover directors and employees of another company that is a member of the same *wholly-owned group as if they were the company's own directors and employees:

- item 1.1 (exception for *in-house dining facilities) of the table in section 32-30;
- item 1.2 (exception for *in-house dining facilities) of the table in section 32-30;
- item 1.3 (exception for *dining facilities) of the table in section 32-30;
- item 1.5 (exception for recreational facilities) of the table in section 32-30;
- section 32-55 (which defines in-house dining facility);
- subsection 32-60(1) (which defines dining facility);
- paragraph 32-65(3)(b).

Property occupied by group company

- (2) Those provisions also cover property occupied by that other company as if the company occupied that property.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 32-90

32-90 Partnerships

In the case of a partnership:

- item 1.8 (exception for providing employee with an allowance) of the table in section 32-30; and
 - subsection 32-65(3) (which defines business meeting);
- apply to a partner in the same way as they apply to an employee of the partnership, but only for the purposes of calculating, in accordance with section 90 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936, the partnership's net income or partnership loss.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Division 34—Non-compulsory uniforms

Table of Subdivisions

34-C	Registering the design of a non-compulsory uniform
34-D	Appeals from Industry Secretary's decision
34-E	The Register of Approved Occupational Clothing
34-F	Approved occupational clothing guidelines
34-G	The Industry Secretary

Guide to Division 34

34-1 What this Division is about

This Division is about deductions for the costs of non-compulsory uniforms.

Table of sections

34-3	What you need to read
------	-----------------------

34-3 What you need to read

Employees

- (1) If you incur expenditure for your non-compulsory uniform, you need to read Subdivision 34-B (which is about deductions for your non-compulsory uniform), starting at section 34-10.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 34-5

Employers

- (2) If you have people working for you who want to deduct expenditure of that kind, you need to read:
- Subdivision 34-C (which is about registering the design of a non-compulsory uniform), starting at section 34-25; and
 - Subdivision 34-D (which is about appeals from Industry Secretary's decision), starting at section 34-40.

Subdivision 34-A—Application of Division 34

Table of sections

34-5	This Division applies to employees and others
34-7	This Division applies to employers and others

34-5 This Division applies to employees and others

- (1) This Division applies not only to an individual who is an employee. It also applies to an individual who is not an employee, but who receives, or is entitled to receive, *withholding payments covered by subsection (3).
- (2) If an individual is not an employee, but is covered by subsection (1), this Division applies to the individual as if:
- (a) he or she were an employee; and
 - (b) the entity, who pays (or is liable to pay) *withholding payments covered by subsection (3) that result in the individual being in receipt of, or entitled to receive, such payments, were the individual's employer; and
 - (c) any other individual who receives (or is entitled to receive) *withholding payments covered by subsection (3):
 - (i) that result in that other individual being in receipt of, or entitled to receive, such payments; and

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 34-7

- (ii) that the entity pays (or is liable to pay) to that other individual; were an employee of the entity.
- (3) This subsection covers a *withholding payment covered by any of the provisions in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 listed in the table.

Withholding payments covered
Item	Provision	Subject matter
1	Section 12-40	Payment to company director
2	Section 12-45	Payment to office holder
3	Section 12-50	Return to work payment
4	Subdivision 12-D	Benefit, training and compensation payments

34-7 This Division applies to employers and others

If an entity is not an employer, but pays (or is liable to pay) *withholding payments covered by subsection 34-5(3), this Division applies to the entity as if:

- (a) it were an employer; and
(b) an individual to whom the entity pays (or is liable to pay) such withholding payments were the entity's employee.

Subdivision 34-B—Deduction for your non-compulsory uniform

Table of sections

34-10	What you can deduct
34-15	What is a non-compulsory uniform?
34-20	What are occupation specific clothing and protective clothing ?

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 34-10

34-10 What you can deduct

- (1) If you are an employee, you can deduct expenditure you incur in respect of your *non-compulsory *uniform if:
 - (a) you can deduct the expenditure under another provision of this Act; and
 - (b) the *design of the uniform is registered under this Division when you incur the expenditure.

Note 1: This Division also applies to individuals who are not employees: see Subdivision 34-A.

Note 2: Employers apply to register designs of uniforms: see Subdivision 34-C.

- (2) You cannot deduct the expenditure under this Act if the *design is not registered at the time you incur the expenditure.
- (3) However, this Division does not stop you deducting expenditure you incur in respect of your *occupation specific clothing or *protective clothing.

34-15 What is a non-compulsory uniform?

What is a uniform?

- (1) A uniform is one or more items of clothing (including accessories) which, when considered as a set, distinctively identify you as a person associated (directly or indirectly) with:
 - (a) your employer; or
 - (b) a group consisting of your employer and one or more of your employer's *associates.

When is a uniform non-compulsory?

- (2) Your uniform is non-compulsory unless your employer consistently enforces a policy that requires you and the other employees (except temporary or relief employees) who do the same type of work as you:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

- (a) to wear the uniform when working for your employer; and
 - (b) not to substitute an item of clothing not included in the uniform for an item of clothing included in the uniform when working for your employer;
- except in special circumstances.

34-20 What are occupation specific clothing and protective clothing?

- (1) Occupation specific clothing is clothing that distinctively identifies you as belonging to a particular profession, trade, vocation, occupation or calling. To determine this, disregard any feature of the clothing that distinctively identifies you as a person associated (directly or indirectly) with:
- (a) your employer; or
 - (b) a group consisting of your employer and one or more of your employer's *associates.

Example: Occupation specific clothing includes a nurse's uniform, a chef's checked pants and a religious cleric's ceremonial robes.

- (2) Protective clothing is clothing of a kind that you mainly use to protect yourself, or someone else, from risk of:
- (a) death; or
 - (b) *disease (including the contraction, aggravation, acceleration or recurrence of a disease); or
 - (c) injury (including the aggravation, acceleration or recurrence of an injury); or
 - (d) damage to clothing; or
 - (e) damage to an artificial limb or other artificial substitute, or to a medical, surgical or other similar aid or appliance.

Example: Protective clothing includes overalls, aprons, goggles, hard hats and safety boots, when worn to protect the wearer.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 34-25

*Meaning of disease

- (3) Disease includes any mental or physical ailment, disorder, defect or morbid condition, whether of sudden onset or gradual development and whether of genetic or other origin.

Subdivision 34-C—Registering the design of a non-compulsory uniform

Table of sections

34-25	Application to register the design
34-30	Industry Secretary's decision on application
34-33	Written notice of decision
34-35	When uniform becomes registered

34-25 Application to register the design

- (1) The employer of an employee who has, or will have, a *non-compulsory *uniform can apply to the *Industry Secretary for the *design of the uniform to be registered.

Note: This Division also applies to entities that are not employers: see Subdivision 34-A.

Meaning of design of a uniform

- (2) The design of a *uniform includes features such as its colouring, construction, durability, ornamentation, pattern and shape.

Form of application

- (3) The application must be:
- (a) in writing; and
 - (b) in a form approved in writing by the *Industry Secretary; and
 - (c) accompanied by such information as the Industry Secretary requires.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

34-30 Industry Secretary's decision on application

Industry Secretary must decide to grant or refuse application

- (1) After considering the application, the *Industry Secretary must decide to either grant or refuse the application.

Criteria for grant of application

- (2) The *Industry Secretary must not decide to grant an application unless he or she is satisfied that the design meets the criteria set out in the *approved occupational clothing guidelines.

Note: The approved occupational clothing guidelines are created under section 34-55.

When Industry Secretary taken to have refused application

- (3) The *Industry Secretary is taken to have refused an application if he or she does not make a decision by the later of the following times (the deadline):
 - (a) the end of 90 days (the 90-day period) after the day the Industry Secretary receives the application;
 - (b) if the Industry Secretary, by written notice given to the applicant within the 90-day period, requests the applicant to give further information about the application—the end of 90 days after the Industry Secretary receives the further information.

34-33 Written notice of decision

- (1) If the *Industry Secretary makes a decision to grant or refuse an application under subsection 34-30(1) before the *deadline, the Industry Secretary must give the applicant written notice of the decision.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 34-35

Reasons for refusal

- (2) If the notice is a notice of a decision to refuse the application, it must also set out the reasons for the refusal.

Statements to accompany notice of decision

- (3) The notice of the decision is to include the statements set out in subsections (4) and (5).
- (4) There must be a statement to the effect that, subject to the Administrative Review Tribunal Act 2024, an application may be made to the *ART, by (or on behalf of) any entity whose interests are affected by the decision, for review of the decision.
- (5) There must also be a statement to the effect that a request may be made under section 268 of that Act by (or on behalf of) such an entity for a statement of reasons.

Failure does not affect validity

- (6) If the *Industry Secretary fails to comply with subsection (4) or (5), that failure does not affect the validity of his or her decision.

34-35 When uniform becomes registered

If the *Industry Secretary decides to grant the application, the *design of the *uniform becomes registered on:

- (a) the day the decision is made; or
- (b) if the applicant requests—such earlier day as the Industry Secretary specifies.

Note: When the design becomes registered, an entry for the design is made on the Register of Approved Occupational Clothing. Subdivision 34-E is about the Register.

Applications may be made to the *ART for review of a decision made by the *Industry Secretary under subsection 34-30(1).

Subdivision 34-E—The Register of Approved Occupational Clothing

Table of sections

34-45	Keeping of the Register
34-50	Changes to the Register

34-45 Keeping of the Register

- (1) The *Industry Secretary must keep the Register of Approved Occupational Clothing, listing the designs that are required to be entered on the Register because of this Division.

Register to be open for inspection

- (2) The *Industry Secretary must arrange for the Register to be available for inspection at any reasonable time by any person on request.

34-50 Changes to the Register

Removal of registration

- (1) The *Industry Secretary must remove an entry for a *design from the Register of Approved Occupational Clothing if requested to do so by the employer who applied for the design to be registered.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 34-55

Correcting errors and mistakes

- (2) The *Industry Secretary may correct a clerical error or an obvious mistake in an entry for a design in the Register and, if the Industry Secretary does so, the correction takes effect on the day on which the design to which the entry relates was registered.

Subdivision 34-F—Approved occupational clothing guidelines

Table of sections

34-55 Approved occupational clothing guidelines

34-55 Approved occupational clothing guidelines

- (1) The Minister must, by legislative instrument, formulate written guidelines (the approved occupational clothing guidelines) setting out criteria that *designs of uniforms must meet if the designs are to be registered.

Matters to be taken into account in making guidelines

- (2) In making *approved occupational clothing guidelines, the matters to which the Minister is to have regard include:
- (a) how distinctively a *uniform's *design identifies the wearer as a person associated (directly or indirectly) with:
 - (i) the applicant for registering the uniform's design; or
 - (ii) a group consisting of the applicant and one or more of the applicant's *associates; and
 - (b) the nature of the *business or activities the applicant carries on.

34-60 Industry Secretary to give Commissioner information about entries

The *Industry Secretary must give the Commissioner information about entries of *designs on the Register of Approved Occupational Clothing if the Commissioner requests him or her to do so.

34-65 Delegation of powers by Industry Secretary

The *Industry Secretary may, by writing, delegate any or all of his or her functions and powers under this Division to a person in the *Industry Department:

- (a) who holds or performs the duties of a *Senior Executive Service office; or
- (b) whose classification level appears in Group 7 or 8 of Schedule 1 to the Classification Rules under the Public Service Act 1999; or
- (c) who is acting in a position usually occupied by a person with a classification level of the kind mentioned in paragraph (b).

Section 35-1

Division 35—Deferral of losses from non-commercial business activities

Guide to Division 35

35-1 What this Division is about

This Division prevents losses of individuals from non-commercial business activities being offset against other assessable income in the year the loss is incurred. The loss is deferred.

It sets out an income requirement and a series of tests to determine whether a business activity is treated as being non-commercial.

The deferred losses may be offset in later years against profits from the activity. They may also be offset against other income if the income requirement and one of the other tests are satisfied, or if the Commissioner exercises a discretion.

Operative provisions

35-5 Object

- (1) The object of this Division is to improve the integrity of the taxation system by:
 - (a) preventing losses from non-commercial activities that are carried on as *businesses by individuals (alone or in partnership) being offset against other assessable income; and
 - (b) preventing pre-business capital expenditure and post-business capital expenditure by individuals (alone or in partnership) in relation to non-commercial activities being deductible under section 40-880 (business related costs);unless certain exceptions apply.
- (2) This Division is not intended to apply to activities that do not constitute carrying on a *business (for example, the receipt of income from passive investments).

35-10 Deferral of deductions from non-commercial business activities

- (1) The rule in subsection (2) applies for an income year to each *business activity you carried on in that year if you are an individual, either alone or in partnership (whether or not some other entity is a member of the partnership), unless:
 - (a) you satisfy subsection (2E) for that year, and one of the tests set out in any of the following provisions is satisfied for the business activity for that year:
 - (i) section 35-30 (assessable income test);
 - (ii) section 35-35 (profits test);
 - (iii) section 35-40 (real property test);
 - (iv) section 35-45 (other assets test); or

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 35-10

- (b) the Commissioner has exercised the discretion set out in section 35-55 for the business activity for that year; or
- (c) the exception in subsection (4) applies for that year.

Note: This section covers individuals carrying on a business activity as partners, but not individuals merely in receipt of income jointly. Compare the definition of partnership in subsection 995-1(1).

Rules

- (2) If the amounts attributable to the *business activity for that income year that you could otherwise deduct under this Act for that year exceed your assessable income (if any) from the business activity for that year, or your share of it, this Act applies to you as if the excess:
 - (a) were not incurred in that income year; and
 - (b) were an amount attributable to the activity that you can deduct from assessable income from the activity for the next income year in which the activity is carried on.

Note 1: There are modifications of this rule if you have exempt income (see section 35-15) or you become bankrupt (see section 35-20).

Note 2: This rule does not apply if your excess is solely due to deductions under Division 41 (see section 35-10 of the Income Tax (Transitional Provisions) Act 1997).

Example: Jennifer has a salaried job, and she also carries on a business activity consisting of selling lingerie.

Jennifer starts that activity on 1 July 2002, and for the 2002-03 income year, the activity produces assessable income of $8,000 and deductions of $10,000. The activity does not pass any of the tests and the discretion is not exercised so the $2,000 excess is carried over to the next income year in which the activity is carried on.

For the 2003-04 income year, the activity produces assessable income of $9,000 and deductions of $10,000 (excluding the $2,000 excess from 2002-03). Again, no tests passed and no exercise of discretion.

$3,000 is carried over to the next income year (comprising the $1,000 excess for the current year, plus the previous year's $2,000 excess) when the activity is carried on.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 35-10

- (2A) You cannot deduct an amount under section 40-880 (business related costs) for expenditure in relation to a *business activity you used to carry on if you are an individual, either alone or in partnership (whether or not some other entity is a member of the partnership) unless:
- (a) you satisfied subsection (2E), and one of the tests set out in any of the following provisions was satisfied for the business activity:
 - (i) section 35-30 (assessable income test);
 - (ii) section 35-35 (profits test);
 - (iii) section 35-40 (real property test);
 - (iv) section 35-45 (other assets test); or
 - (b) the Commissioner has exercised the discretion set out in section 35-55 for the business activity; or
 - (c) the exception in subsection (4) applied;
- for the income year in which the business activity ceased to be carried on or an earlier income year.
- (2B) If you are an individual, either alone or in partnership (whether or not some other entity is a member of the partnership), you cannot deduct an amount under section 40-880 (business related costs) for expenditure in relation to a *business activity:
- (a) you propose to carry on; or
 - (b) another entity proposes to carry on if the other entity is not an individual, either alone or in partnership;
- for an income year before the one in which the business activity starts to be carried on.
- (2C) This section applies to an amount that you could have deducted, apart from paragraph (2B)(a), as if it were an amount attributable to the *business activity that you can deduct from assessable income from the activity for the income year in which the business activity starts to be carried on.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 35-10

- (2D) You can deduct expenditure covered by paragraph (2B)(b) for the income year in which the *business activity starts to be carried on.

Income requirement

- (2E) You satisfy this subsection for an income year if the sum of the following is less than $250,000:
- (a) your taxable income for that year, disregarding your *assessable FHSS released amount for that year;
 - (b) your *reportable fringe benefits total for that year;
 - (c) your *reportable superannuation contributions for that year;
 - (d) your *total net investment losses for that year.

For the purposes of paragraph (a), when working out your taxable income, disregard any excess mentioned in subsection (2) for any *business activity for that year that you could otherwise deduct under this Act for that year.

Grouping business activities

- (3) In applying this Division, you may group together *business activities of a similar kind.

Exceptions

- (4) The rule in subsection (2), (2A) or (2B) does not apply to a *business activity for an income year if:
- (a) the activity is a *primary production business, or a *professional arts business; and
 - (b) your assessable income for that year (except any *net capital gain) from other sources that do not relate to that activity is less than $40,000.

- (5) A professional arts business is a *business you carry on as:
- (a) the author of a literary, dramatic, musical or artistic work; or

Note: The expression “author” is a technical term from copyright law.
In general, the “author” of a musical work is its composer and the

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 35-15

“author” of an artistic work is the artist, sculptor or photographer who created it.

- (b) a *performing artist; or
- (c) a *production associate.

35-15 Modification if you have exempt income

- (1) The rule in subsection 35-10(2) may be modified for an income year if you *derived *exempt income in that year.
- (2) Any amount to which paragraph 35-10(2)(b) would otherwise apply for an income year for you is reduced by your *net exempt income for that year (after *utilising the net exempt income under section 36-10 or 36-15 (about tax losses)). This reduction is made before you apply the paragraph 35-10(2)(b) amount against assessable income from the *business activity.

35-20 Modification if you become bankrupt

- (1) The rule in subsection 35-10(2) or (2A) is modified as set out in subsection (3) for an income year if in that year (the current year) you become bankrupt or are released from a debt by the operation of an Act relating to bankruptcy.
- (2) The rule is also modified as set out in subsection (3) if:
 - (a) you became bankrupt before the current year; and
 - (b) the bankruptcy is annulled in the current year under section 74 of the Bankruptcy Act 1966 because your creditors have accepted a proposal for a composition or scheme of arrangement; and
 - (c) under the composition or scheme of arrangement, you have been, will be or may be released from some or all of the debts from which you would have been released if you had instead been discharged from the bankruptcy.
- (3) This Act applies to you as if any amount that:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 35-25

- (a) paragraph 35-10(2)(b) had applied to for an income year before the current year for you; and
 - (b) you have not yet deducted;
- were not an amount attributable to the *business activity that you can deduct for the current year or a later income year.

35-25 Application of Division to certain partnerships

For the purpose of applying the tests in sections 35-30, 35-40 and 35-45 where you carry on a *business activity in an income year as a partner, ignore:

- (a) any part of the assessable income from the business activity for the year that is attributable to the interest of a partner that is not an individual in the partnership net income or partnership loss for the year; and
- (b) any part of the assessable income from the business activity for the year that is *derived from the activity by another partner otherwise than as a member of the partnership; and
- (c) any part of the *reduced cost bases or other values of assets of the partnership used in carrying on the activity in that year that is attributable to the interest of a partner that is not an individual in those assets; and
- (d) any part of the reduced cost bases or other values of assets owned or leased by another partner that are not partnership assets and used in carrying on the activity in that year.

35-30 Assessable income test

The rules in section 35-10 do not apply to a *business activity for an income year if:

- (a) the amount of assessable income from the business activity for the year; or
- (b) you started to carry on the business activity, or stopped carrying it on, during the year—a reasonable estimate of

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

what would have been the amount of that assessable income
if you had carried on that activity throughout the year; is at least $20,000.

35-35 Profits test

- (1) The rules in section 35-10 do not apply to a *business activity (except an activity carried on by one or more individuals as partners, whether or not some other entity is a member of the partnership) for an income year (the current year) if, for each of at least 3 of the past 5 income years (including the current year) the sum of the deductions attributable to that activity for that year (apart from the operation of subsections 35-10(2) and (2C)) is less than the assessable income from the activity for that year.
- (2) For a *business activity you carried on with one or more others as partners, the rules in section 35-10 do not apply to you for the current year if, for each of at least 3 of the past 5 income years (including the current year) the sum of your deductions (including your share of the partnership deductions) attributable to that activity for that year (apart from the operation of subsections 35-10(2) and (2C)) is less than your assessable income (including your share of the partnership's assessable income) from the activity for that year.

35-40 Real property test

- (1) The rules in section 35-10 do not apply to a *business activity for an income year if the total *reduced cost bases of real property or interests in real property used on a continuing basis in carrying on the activity in that year is at least $500,000.
- (2) You may use the *market value of the real property or interest if that value is more than its *reduced cost base.
- (3) The *reduced cost base or *market value is worked out:
 - (a) as at the end of the income year; or

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 35-45

- (b) if you stopped carrying on the *business activity during the year:
 - (i) as at the time you stopped; or
 - (ii) if you disposed of the asset before that time in the course of stopping carrying on the activity—as at the time you disposed of it.
- (4) However, these assets are not counted for this test:
 - (a) a *dwelling, and any adjacent land used in association with the dwelling, that is used mainly for private purposes;
 - (b) fixtures owned by you as a tenant.

35-45 Other assets test

- (1) The rules in section 35-10 do not apply to a *business activity for an income year if the total values of assets that are counted for this test (see subsections (2) and (4)) and that are used on a continuing basis in carrying on the activity in that year is at least $100,000.
- (2) The assets counted for this test, and their values for this test, are set out in this table:

Assets counted for this test and their values
Item	Asset	Value
1	An asset whose decline in value you can deduct under Division 40	The asset's *written down value
2	An item of *trading stock	Its value under subsection 70-45(1)
3	An asset that you lease from another entity	The sum of the amounts of the future lease payments for the asset to which you are irrevocably committed, less an appropriate amount to reflect any interest component for those lease payments
4	Trade marks, patents, copyrights and similar rights	Their *reduced cost base

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

- (3) The value of such an asset is worked out:
 - (a) as at the end of the income year; or
 - (b) if you stopped carrying on the *business activity during the year:
 - (i) as at the time you stopped; or
 - (ii) if you disposed of the asset before that time in the course of stopping carrying on the activity—as at the time you disposed of it.
- (4) However, these assets are not counted for this test:
 - (a) assets that are real property or interests in real property that are taken into account for that year under section 35-40;
 - (b) *cars, motor cycles and similar vehicles.

35-50 Apportionment

If an asset that is being taken into account under section 35-40 or 35-45 is used during an income year partly in carrying on the relevant *business activity and partly for other purposes, only that part of its *reduced cost base, *market value or other value that is attributable to its use in carrying on the business activity in that year is taken into account for that section.

35-55 Commissioner's discretion

- (1) The Commissioner may, on application, decide that the rule in subsection 35-10(2) does not apply to a *business activity for one or more income years (the excluded years) if the Commissioner is satisfied that it would be unreasonable to apply that rule because:
 - (a) the business activity was or will be affected in the excluded years by special circumstances outside the control of the operators of the business activity, including drought, flood, bushfire or some other natural disaster; or

Note: This paragraph is intended to provide for a case where a business activity would have satisfied one of the tests if it were not for the special circumstances.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 35-55

- (b) for an applicant who carries on the business activity who satisfies subsection 35-10(2E) (income requirement) for the most recent income year ending before the application is made—the business activity has started to be carried on and, for the excluded years:
 - (i) because of its nature, it has not satisfied, or will not satisfy, one of the tests set out in section 35-30, 35-35, 35-40 or 35-45; and
 - (ii) there is an objective expectation, based on evidence from independent sources (where available) that, within a period that is commercially viable for the industry concerned, the activity will either meet one of those tests or will produce assessable income for an income year greater than the deductions attributable to it for that year (apart from the operation of subsections 35-10(2) and (2C)); or
- (c) for an applicant who carries on the business activity who does not satisfy subsection 35-10(2E) (income requirement) for the most recent income year ending before the application is made—the business activity has started to be carried on and, for the excluded years:
 - (i) because of its nature, it has not produced, or will not produce, assessable income greater than the deductions attributable to it; and
 - (ii) there is an objective expectation, based on evidence from independent sources (where available) that, within a period that is commercially viable for the industry concerned, the activity will produce assessable income for an income year greater than the deductions attributable to it for that year (apart from the operation of subsections 35-10(2) and (2C)).

Note: Paragraphs (b) and (c) are intended to cover a business activity that has a lead time between the commencement of the activity and the production of any assessable income. For example, an activity involving the planting of hardwood trees for harvest, where many years would pass before the activity could reasonably be expected to produce income.

- (2) The Commissioner may, on application, decide that the rule in subsection 35-10(2B) does not apply to a *business activity for an income year if the Commissioner is satisfied that it would be unreasonable to apply that rule because special circumstances of the kind referred to in paragraph (1)(a) of this section prevented the activity from starting.

Note: This subsection is intended to provide for a case where a business activity would have begun to be carried on and satisfied one of the tests if it were not for the special circumstances.

- (3) An application for a decision by the Commissioner under this section must be made in the *approved form.

Guide to Division 36

36-1 What this Division is about

If you have more deductions for an income year than you have income, the difference is a tax loss.

Note: You may be able to utilise the tax loss in that or a later income year.

Subdivision 36-A—Deductions for tax losses of earlier income years

Table of sections

36-17	How to deduct tax losses of corporate tax entities
36-20	Net exempt income
36-25	Special rules about tax losses

36-10 How to calculate a tax loss for an income year

- (1) Add up the amounts you can deduct for an income year (except ^{*}tax losses for earlier income years).
- (2) Subtract your total assessable income.

^{*}To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 36-15

- (3) If you derived exempt income, also subtract your net exempt income* (worked out under section 36-20).
- (4) Any amount remaining is your tax loss for the income year, which is called a loss year.
- Note 1: Some deductions are limited so that they cannot contribute to a tax loss. See section 26-55 (Limit on certain deductions).
- Note 2: The meanings of tax loss and loss year are modified by section 36-55 for a corporate tax entity that has an amount of excess franking offsets.
- (5) For subsection (3), if you have exempt income* under section 51-100 (about shipping), disregard 90% of so much of your net exempt income* as directly relates to that exempt income.

36-15 How to deduct tax losses of entities other than corporate tax entities

- (1) Your tax loss* for a loss year* is deducted in a later income year as follows if you are not a corporate tax entity* at any time during the later income year.
- Note 1: See section 36-17 for the deduction of a tax loss of an entity that is a corporate tax entity at any time during the later income year.
- Note 2: A tax loss can be deducted only to the extent that it has not already been utilised: see subsection 960-20(1).

If you have no net exempt income

- (2) If your total assessable income for the later income year exceeds your total deductions (other than tax losses*), you deduct the tax loss from that excess.

If you have net exempt income

- (3) If you have net exempt income* for the later income year and your total assessable income (if any) for the later income year exceeds your total deductions (except tax losses*), you deduct the tax loss:

To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.*

Section 36-17

- (a) first, from your net exempt income; and
 - (b) secondly, from the part of your total assessable income that exceeds those deductions.
- (4) However, if you have *net exempt income for the later income year and those deductions exceed your total assessable income, then:
 - (a) subtract that excess from your net exempt income; and
 - (b) deduct the tax loss from any net exempt income that remains.

To work out your net exempt income: see section 36-20.

General

- (5) If you have 2 or more *tax losses, you deduct them in the order in which you incurred them.

36-17 How to deduct tax losses of corporate tax entities

- (1) A *tax loss of an entity for a *loss year is deducted in a later income year as follows if the entity is a *corporate tax entity at any time during the later income year.

Note 1: A tax loss can be deducted under this section only to the extent that it has not already been utilised: see subsection 960-20(1).

Note 2: A corporate tax entity may also, in the 2020-21, 2021-22 or 2022-23 income year, be able to carry a loss back to the 2018-19, 2019-20, 2020-21 or 2021-2022 income year: see Division 160.

If the entity has no net exempt income

- (2) If the entity's total assessable income for the later income year exceeds the entity's total deductions (except *tax losses), the entity is to deduct from that excess so much of the tax loss as the entity chooses. The entity may choose a nil amount.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

If the entity has net exempt income

- (3) If the entity has *net exempt income for the later income year and the entity's total assessable income (if any) for that year exceeds the entity's total deductions (except *tax losses), the entity is to:
- (a) first, deduct the tax loss from the net exempt income; and
 - (b) secondly, deduct from the part of the total assessable income that exceeds those deductions so much of the undeducted amount of the tax loss (if any) as the entity chooses.

The entity may choose a nil amount under paragraph (b).

Note: To work out the corporate tax entity's net exempt income: see section 36-20.

- (4) However, if the entity has *net exempt income for the later income year and those deductions exceed the entity's total assessable income, the entity is to:
- (a) subtract that excess from the net exempt income; and
 - (b) deduct the *tax loss from any net exempt income that remains.

Note: This means there is no choice available under this subsection.

- (4A) For subsection (3) or (4), if the entity has *exempt income under section 51-100 (about shipping) for the later income year, disregard 90% of so much of the entity's *net exempt income for the later income year as directly relates to that exempt income.

Limit to how much the entity can choose

- (5) The choice that the entity has under subsection (2) or (3) for the later income year is subject to both of the following:
- (a) the entity must choose a nil amount if, disregarding the *tax loss and other tax losses of the entity, the entity would have an amount of *excess franking offsets for that year;
 - (b) if, disregarding the tax loss and other tax losses of the entity, the entity would not have an amount of excess franking offsets for that year—the entity must not choose an amount that would result in the entity having an amount of excess franking offsets for that year.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 36-17

Example: For the 2017-18 income year, Company A (which is not a base rate entity) has:

- a tax loss of $150 from a previous income year; and
- assessable income of $200 (franked distribution of $70, franking credit of $30 and $100 of income from other sources); and
- no deductions; and
- no net exempt income.

The tax offset of $30 from the franking credit is not stated in Division 67 to be subject to the refundable tax offset rules.

Company A would not have an amount of excess franking offsets for that year if the tax loss were disregarded (see section 36-55). This is because the tax offset of $30 is less than $60, the amount of income tax that Company A would have to pay if it did not have the tax offset and the tax loss. Paragraph (a) therefore does not apply.

If Company A chooses to deduct the full amount of the tax loss, it would have an amount of excess franking offsets of $15:

$$$30 - (($200 - $150) \times 30\%)$$

Company A therefore cannot make this choice because of paragraph (b).

However, if Company A chooses to deduct $100 of the tax loss, it would not have an amount of excess franking offsets:

$$$30 = (($200 - $100) \times 30\%)$$

Company A therefore can choose to deduct $100 of the tax loss.

- (6) The entity must state its choice under subsection (2) or (3) in its ^{*}income tax return for the later income year.

General

- (7) If the entity has 2 or more ^{*}tax losses, the entity is to deduct them in the order in which the entity incurred them.

^{*}To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Recalculation of amounts resulting in a choice or a change of a choice

- (10) Subsection (11) or (12) applies if at least one of the following amounts is recalculated after an entity has lodged its *income tax return for an income year:
- (a) the amount of a *tax loss that the entity can *utilise in that year;
 - (b) the amount of the difference between the entity's total assessable income for that year and the entity's total deductions (other than *tax losses) for that year;
 - (c) the amount of the entity's *net exempt income for that year; whether or not the amount is recalculated in an amendment of the entity's assessment for that year, and whether or not the amount was a nil amount before the recalculation (or has become a nil amount after the recalculation).
- (11) If:
- (a) before the recalculation, a choice under subsection (2) or (3) for the income year was not available to the entity; but
 - (b) as a result of the recalculation, the choice has (apart from subsection (6)) become available to the entity;
- the entity can make that choice by written notice given to the Commissioner.
- (12) If:
- (a) the entity made a choice under subsection (2) or (3) for the income year; but
 - (b) as a result of the recalculation, the entity wishes to change that choice;
- the entity can do so by written notice given to the Commissioner.
- (13) Subsections (10) to (12) have effect subject to section 170 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 (about amendment of assessments).

Section 36-20

36-20 Net exempt income

- (1) If you are an Australian resident, your net exempt income is the amount by which your total *exempt income from all sources exceeds the total of:
- (a) the losses and outgoings (except capital losses and outgoings) you incurred in deriving that exempt income; and
 - (b) any taxes payable outside Australia on that exempt income.
- (2) If you are a foreign resident, your net exempt income is the amount (if any) by which the total of:
- (a) your *exempt income *derived from sources in Australia; and
 - (b) your exempt income to which section 26AG (Certain film proceeds included in assessable income) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 applies;
- exceeds the total of:
- (c) the losses and outgoings (except capital losses and outgoings) you incurred in deriving exempt income covered by paragraph (a) or (b); and
 - (d) any taxes payable outside Australia on income covered by paragraph (b).

Subdivision 36-B—Effect of you becoming bankrupt

Guide to Subdivision 36-B

36-30 What this Subdivision is about

After you become bankrupt, you cannot deduct a tax loss that you incurred beforehand. However, you may be able to deduct repayments of debts you incurred in the loss year.

Table of sections

Operative provisions

- 36-35 No deduction for tax loss incurred before bankruptcy
- 36-40 Deduction for amounts paid for debts incurred before bankruptcy
- 36-45 Limit on deductions for amounts paid

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 36-35

Operative provisions

36-35 No deduction for tax loss incurred before bankruptcy

(1) If:

- (a) you became bankrupt; or
- (b) you were released from a debt by the operation of an Act relating to bankruptcy;

before the income year, you cannot deduct a *tax loss that you incurred before the day on which you either became bankrupt or were released.

(2) If:

- (a) you became bankrupt before the income year; and
- (b) the bankruptcy is later annulled under section 74 of the Bankruptcy Act 1966 because your creditors have accepted your proposal for a composition or scheme of arrangement; and
- (c) under the composition or scheme of arrangement, you have been, will be or may be released from some or all of the debts from which you would have been released if you had instead been discharged from the bankruptcy;

you cannot deduct a *tax loss that you incurred before the day on which you became bankrupt.

36-40 Deduction for amounts paid for debts incurred before bankruptcy

Tax losses generally

(1) If:

- (a) you pay an amount in the income year for a debt that you incurred in an earlier income year; and
- (b) you have a *tax loss covered by section 36-35 for that earlier income year;

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 36-40

you can deduct the amount paid, but only to the extent that it does not exceed so much of the debt as the Commissioner is satisfied was taken into account in calculating the amount of the tax loss.

Film losses

(2) If:

- (a) you pay an amount in the income year for a debt that you incurred in an earlier income year; and
- (b) you incurred the debt in the course of deriving or gaining *assessable film income or *exempt film income; and
- (c) you also incurred a *film loss covered by section 36-35 in that earlier income year;

you can deduct the amount paid, but only to the extent that it does not exceed so much of the debt as the Commissioner is satisfied was taken into account in calculating the amount of the film loss.

(3) A film loss is the *film component (if any) of a *tax loss.

(4) Your *tax loss for an income year has a film component if your *film deductions for the year exceed the sum of:

- (a) your *assessable film income for the year; and
- (b) your *net exempt film income for the year.

The amount of the film component is the excess or the tax loss, whichever is lesser.

(5) However, if your *tax loss worked out under a provision listed in the table, the film component is what that tax loss would have been if:

- (a) your *film deductions for the *loss year had been your only deductions; and
- (b) your *assessable film income for the loss year had been your only assessable income; and
- (c) your *net exempt film income for the loss year had been your only *net exempt income.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 36-45

However, the film component cannot exceed the actual tax loss.

Working out film component of tax loss
Item	Provision	Type of entity
1	165-70	Company—income year when ownership or control changed
2	175-35	Company—deductions that have been used to obtain a tax benefit disallowed
3	268-60 in Schedule 2F to the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936	Trust—income year when ownership or control changed

36-45 Limit on deductions for amounts paid

Tax losses generally

- (1) The total of your deductions under subsection 36-40(1) for amounts paid in the income year for debts incurred in the *loss year cannot exceed the amount of the *tax loss reduced by the sum of:
 - (a) your deductions under that subsection for amounts paid in earlier income years for debts incurred in the loss year; and
 - (b) any amounts of the tax loss *utilised in earlier income years; and
 - (c) any amounts of the tax loss that, apart from section 36-35, would have been deductible from your *net exempt income for the income year or earlier income years.

Film losses

- (2) The total of your deductions under subsection 36-40(2) for amounts paid in the income year for debts incurred in the *loss year cannot exceed the amount of the *film loss reduced by the sum of:
 - (a) your deductions under that subsection for amounts paid in earlier income years for debts incurred in the loss year; and

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 36-50

- (b) any amounts of the film loss deducted in earlier income years; and
- (c) any amounts of the film loss that, apart from section 36-35, would have been deductible from your *net exempt film income for the income year or earlier income years.

Subdivision 36-C—Excess franking offsets

Guide to Subdivision 36-C

36-50 What this Subdivision is about

Amounts of tax offsets to which a corporate tax entity is entitled under Division 207 and Subdivision 210-H may in some circumstances be converted into an amount of a tax loss for the entity.

Table of sections

Operative provision

36-55 Converting excess franking offsets into tax loss

Operative provision

36-55 Converting excess franking offsets into tax loss

Excess franking offsets

- (1) An entity that is a *corporate tax entity at any time during an income year has an amount of excess franking offsets for that year if:
 - (a) the total amount of *tax offsets to which the entity is entitled for that year under Division 207 and Subdivision 210-H (except those that are subject to the refundable tax offset rules because of section 67-25);

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 36-55

exceeds:

- (b) the amount of income tax that the entity would have to pay on its taxable income for that year if:
- (i) it did not have those tax offsets; and
 - (ii) it did not have any tax offsets that are subject to the tax offset carry forward rules or the refundable tax offset rules; and
 - (iii) it did not have any tax offset under section 205-70; but had all its other tax offsets.

The excess is the amount of excess franking offsets.

Note: Division 65 sets out the tax offset carry forward rules. Division 67 sets out which tax offsets are subject to the refundable tax offset rules.

Example: For the 2017-18 income year, Company E (which is not a base rate entity) has:

- assessable income of $200 (franked distribution of $140 and franking credit of $60); and
- $100 of deductions that are allowable.

The tax offset of $60 from the franking credit is not stated in Division 67 to be subject to the refundable tax offset rules.

Disregarding the tax offset of $60 from the franking credit, the amount of income tax that Company E would have to pay is $30:

$$(($140 + $60) - $100) \times 30\%$$

This amount is $30 less than the tax offset of $60. Company E therefore has an amount of excess franking offsets of $30 for that year.

How to work out the amount of the tax loss

- (2) For the purposes of this Act, if:
- (a) an entity has an amount of *excess franking offsets for an income year; and
 - (b) the result of applying the following method statement is a positive amount;
- then:

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.

Section 36-55

- (c) the entity is taken to have a *tax loss for that year equal to that positive amount (instead of an amount of tax loss worked out under section 36-10, 165-70, 175-35 or 701-30); and
- (d) that year is taken to be a *loss year for the entity if the entity would not otherwise have a tax loss for that year.

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount (if any) that would have been the entity's *tax loss for that year under section 36-10, 165-70, 175-35 or 701-30 if the entity's *net exempt income for that year (if any) were disregarded.

Note: See section 36-20 for the calculation of net exempt income.

Step 2. Divide the amount of *excess franking offsets by the entity's *corporate tax rate for imputation purposes for that year.

Step 3. Add the results of steps 1 and 2.

Step 4. Reduce the result of step 3 by the entity's *net exempt income for that year (if any).

The result of this step is taken to be the entity's *tax loss for that year. However, if the result of this step is nil or a negative amount, the company does not have any tax loss for that year.

Example: Assume that company E did not derive any exempt income for the 2017-2018 income year and that it would not otherwise have any tax loss for that year under section 36-10, 165-70, 175-35 or 701-30.

Applying the method statement, the amount of excess franking offsets of $30 generates a tax loss of $100 for that year, which can be deducted in a later income year under section 36-15 or 36-17.

*To find definitions of asterisked terms, see the Dictionary, starting at section 995-1.
