
A guide to self-assessment

1. Overview
2. Who should register for Income Tax self-assessment?
3. What is preliminary tax?
4. Pay and file system - how does it work?
5. What forms do you need to complete?
6. How do you know what to pay?
7. Do you need to pay 'Pay Related Social Insurance \(PRSI\)'?
8. High Income Earner Restriction \(HIER\)

What forms do you need to complete?

Income Tax

To make an Income Tax Return, use the Revenue Online Service \(ROS\) to complete an Income Tax Return (Form 11). As part of that form, you must also make a self-assessment. You do this by completing the self-assessment panel in the Income Tax Return (Form 11). In this panel, you will enter:

- a breakdown of your income, profits and costs for the year and
- the amount of Income Tax, Pay Related Social Insurance \(PRSI\) and Universal Social Charge \(USC\) you need to pay.

Sign in to ROS →

Capital Gains Tax (CGT)

To make a CGT return, complete the CGT panel in the Income Tax Return (Form 11). If you do not need to make an Income Tax return you can complete [\[PDF\] Form CG1](#).

