the prescribed implementation framework.

Notice

Service hereby notifies all affected taxpayers that it has commenced compliance monitoring activities to assess the level of adherence to the E-Invoicing mandate across the large taxpayer segment.

Accordingly, all large taxpayers that are yet to commence or complete implementation processes are required to ensure full compliance on or before 31 July 2026.

For the avoidance of doubt, compliance includes:

- Completion of onboarding on the NRS Merchant Buyer Solution (MBS);
- Successful integration of taxpayer systems through approved Access Point Providers (APPs) and/or Systems Integrators (SIs);
- Completion of all required validation and testing activities; and
- Active transmission of invoices to the NRS E-Invoicing platform in line with approved standards and guidelines;

transparency, and improve service delivery across the nation's tax system.

Notice

The Tax ID will serve as a single, unified identity for all taxpayers, enabling seamless interaction with tax authorities at both federal and sub-national levels. It is designed to consolidate taxpayer records, eliminate duplication, and ensure more efficient management of tax-related information.

Key Benefits of the Tax ID:

Single Tax Identity: One Tax ID for all tax transactions and engagements

Simplified Compliance: Easier processes for registration, filing, and payment of taxes

Improved Transparency: Better visibility and tracking of taxpayer records

Enhanced Revenue Assurance: Reduction in tax leakages and improved accountability

Data Harmonization: Alignment of taxpayer information across all tiers of government

Notice

This initiative is part of the commitment of the Service to provide additional taxpayer support and service delivery as the rollout of Rev360 Phase I Tax Administration System commences for Medium and Emerging Taxpayer segments.

The extended Saturday operations are designed to:

- Provide additional assistance to taxpayers requiring support with the new system.
- Facilitate seamless compliance during the June peak Companies Income Tax filing period.
- Improve access to tax services outside regular weekday hours.

Taxpayers are encouraged to take advantage of this opportunity to resolve any tax-related matters, seek guidance, and ensure timely compliance with their obligations.
